

The Hornet

1956-1959

THE HORNET

"THE STINGING TRUTH"

VOL. XII, NO. V

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DELAWARE

OCTOBER 13, 1956

Shirley Benson—Miss Delaware State—To Reign Over Homecoming

NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

DR. E. PRESTON MITCHELL

Joining the faculty of Delaware State College is Dr. E. Preston Mitchell, associate professor of Physical Education and also an athletic director. Dr. Mitchell's home town is Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he graduated from Central High School. After school he received his Bachelor of Science degree from North Carolina College and his Master's and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Iowa.

Dr. Mitchell taught high school in Ashville, North Carolina, for four years as an instructor in Biology Physical Education, English, and also coach. After teaching in the high school he taught at Iowa University as an instructor and coached for three years. Later he spent two years as coach and Physical Education instructor at Fisk University.

Dr. Mitchell is married and has one child. It seems that he believes that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, for he has many hobbies such as carpentry, mingling with electrical appliances, reading, singing, and playing the trumpet.

He is a member of the Omega Psi Phi and Physical Education Invitational Fraternity.

Among the new faculty members on the campus is Miss Nora M. Patrick, a native of Atlanta, Ga. Miss Patrick is our assistant professor of Romantic Languages.

Miss Patrick received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia; her master of Arts Degree from Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia; and a Diploma from The Sorbonne, University of Paris. She has also done post graduate work on her Doctor of Philosophy Degree at New York University, New York.

Miss Patrick has had seven years of teaching experiences. She has been professor of French at the following schools:

Spelman College, Atlanta, Ga.; Barber Scotia College, Concord, North Carolina; Bluefield State College, Bluefield, West Virginia; San Antonio, Texas.

Miss Patrick has a mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. K. D. Patrick, who lives at 1437 Mozley Drive, South West, Atlanta, Georgia, and a brother, Mr. James Patrick, who is a radio announcer and disc jockey.

Miss Patrick has been offered an Assistantship to study at the University of Iowa, a Fellowship to study in Haiti, and a Fulbright Fellowship to study in France. She did not accept the Assistantship to study at the University of Iowa and the Fellowship to study in Haiti because of her mother's illness. In 1953, she accepted the Fulbright Fellowship to study in France.

Miss Patrick's hobbies are all sports, bridge, and traveling. She has traveled all over the United States, Europe, France, Italy, and Spain. In 1953, she visited Monaco.

NEZVAL

Dr. Helen Nezval of Blooming Grove, Pennsylvania, recently joined the Delaware State College faculty as an instructor in Mathematics. Dr. Nezval earned her master's degree at Masaryk University in Czechoslovakia and her doctoral degree at Columbia University, New York City.

Dr. Nezval's personal interests vary from the jazz music of Benny Goodman, Nat King Cole, and Glenn Miller to the classical music of Dvorak, Mozart, Bach, and Hyden. Her favorite piece of music, however, is the New World Symphony by Antonin Dvorak.

Dr. Nezval is also a lover of possibly all kinds of sports, specifically, volleyball and soccer. Her favorite types of art are the modern and classical.

MISS RUSH

Joining our faculty recently was Miss Evelyn Rush from Atlanta, Georgia. Miss Rush, a staff assistant in the library, obtained a B. S. C. from North Carolina College and a M. S. Ed. from Indian University.

Miss Rush's personal interests are quite varied. They include swimming, music, and literature. Swimming is her favorite sport. She has taught swimming at various camps. As far as music is concerned, she is perhaps interested in almost every kind. Her private collection is made up of 80 record albums, many of which contain works by famous composers. Her favorite classical composers are Tchaikovsky, Beethoven, Brahms, and Verdi. Errol Garner, Jackie Gleason, and Paul Weston are her favorites in the popular field. However, her interests in literature are not as varied. Her favorite type of stories is mystery stories. Therefore, her favorite authors are Earle Stanley Gardner and Sherlock Holmes.

DELAWARE STATE PROFESSOR SELECTED AS ABSTRACTOR FOR SCHOLARLY PERIODICALS

Professor Roland A. Sorensen of the Social Science Department of Delaware State College, Dover, Delaware has been selected as an Abstractor for "Historical Abstracts" which is a Scholarly Quarterly containing abstracts of Historical Articles from periodicals appearing currently in all parts of the world. Professor Sorensen's special field of interest will deal with the Scandinavian countries of Norway, Sweden and Denmark. This assignment is of international significance as the abstracts prepared by Professor Sorensen will influence the educational concept of many historians toward these countries as well as in the field of international relations and diplomacy.

Professor Sorensen will abstract the following periodicals:

1. Historiske Meddelelser om København.
2. Okonomi og Potilik.
3. Samtiden.
4. Svensk Tidskrift.
5. American-Scandinavian Review.
6. Journal of International Affairs.

Professor Sorensen was educated in the school system of Denmark and was a school teacher in Denmark prior to attending Lincoln University, Lincoln University Pennsylvania. He received a Master of Arts Degree at the University of Pennsylvania, and is currently completing his doctoral dissertation at New York University. He has been a member of the faculty at Delaware State College for four years.

MISS DELAWARE STATE 1956-57

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT HOLLAND

I am very happy to have this opportunity to welcome the Alumni of Delaware State College to the Annual Homecoming Day Program. The entire college family looks forward to this day with a great deal of pride.

Your alma mater is in the process of expansion, and the success of this program is directly dependent upon the degree of cooperation and assistance received from the Alumni. We are all grateful to the Alumni for the support which this group has given to the college in recent years. Through your interest in the college, you have made our present accomplishments possible. I believe that we may confidently face the future.

LIBRARY TO OFFER THREE PROGRAMS

The library plans to offer three programs in its Library Cultural Series of the 1956-57 school year. The programs this year will be given in the college library, one in November, one in January, and one in March. Our speakers will be announced at a later date. The purpose of the programs is to emphasize outstanding authors and books and at the same time encourage more extra curricular reading.

Two very successful programs were given last year with our own Dr. Marc Moreland, Professor of Humanities, and Miss Mary Vroman, author of "See How They Run," as our speakers respectively.

The king cobra is one of the deadliest of snakes. Its bite can be fatal in a few hours.

TRENDS IN EDUCATION BETTY MAKELL

We live in a progressive society and there are about as many changes in the field of education as there are in any other field. One of these changes lays in the realm of curriculum construction. Curriculums are being constructed in such a way that mastery of subject matter and development of skill can be utilized as tools whereby life activities are experienced in or outside the classroom. Hence, there is a growing interest in the activity curriculum.

Modern educational trends are pointing to a more realistic attitude toward the practical functions of secondary school education, and more experimental procedures. Moreover, a large number of new courses are being added to educational offerings on this level.

Another trend in modern education is better screening of candidate teachers and more extensive training for those who are selected.

Qualifications for entrance into the majority of teachers training institutes is based upon two factors: (1) An expressed interest on the part of the applicant and (2) a demonstrated ability to master the material of instruction. Other qualifications are: good health and freedom from physical handicaps, the qualities of the voice and diction, are significant for teaching successfully. An applicant is also interviewed for personality traits in many instances.

In New York City and California, five years of training are required to teach in the secondary schools.

Teaching offers many opportunities to young people who are interested in this type of service and who are willing to prepare them-

HOMECOMING QUEEN

Our Queen — Miss Shirley Benson, is a sophomore in the Department of Biological sciences with a major in Biology. Miss Benson was born in Magnolia, Delaware, and later moved to Felton, Delaware, where she now resides. She attended the William Henry High School at Dover, from which she graduated in 1955.

Miss Benson is an active member in the various campus organizations: The Ivy Leaf Club, The Delorette Club, The Social Committee, The Cheering Squad, The "Hornet" newspaper staff, and others.

In addition to being outstanding in these areas, our queen is neatly groomed at all times. The grace and charm with which she carries herself makes her one of the most outstanding young ladies on the campus. She is gracious and pleasant on all occasions.

In her spare time, Miss Benson's interests are many and quite varied. Although she is a music lover and enjoys collecting different types of music, she prefers dancing. Her interests also carry her into the stands of the football field where she marvels over the games. In the lighter view, she enjoys playing cards quite frequently.

In addition, Miss Benson hopes someday to be a laboratory technician so that she may increase her knowledge through experience and further studies. However, if it be that something prevents her being a technician, her second preference is to be a teacher. Because Miss Benson has qualities which we feel should be possessed by a queen, we proudly elected Miss Shirley Benson as Miss Delaware State for the 1956-57 school year.

CELEBRATED MODEL WILL MAKE APPEARANCE AT DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE

The Department of Home Economics has announced the appearance of Dorothea owles on the evening of November 1, 1956 at 8:00 p.m. in Delaware Hall.

Miss Towles is a famous and scintillating model. She returned to America a few years ago to present her collection of French Fashions. She is a graduate of the Dorothy Farrier School of Modeling, Hollywood, California. After having modeled successfully on the West Coast, she continued her career in Paris, France at the world famous houses of Christian Dior, Jacques Fath, Perre Balmain the Schiaparelli.

Miss Towles is the sister of Miss Lois Towles, the pianist who appeared in concert at this college a few years ago.

The public is cordially invited to attend this event which is part of the college educational and cultural activity for the year. No admission will be charged.

selfs adequately. Good teachers are always in demand. Adequate pension rights are attracting more master teachers to the profession.

So, the trends in education are to a more practical curriculum, more screening and better training of teachers and offering many opportunities to those interested.

HORNET STAFF

Editor-in-Chief.....Hortense Priest
Associate Editor.....Leo LeCompte
Assistant Editor.....Hettie Wright
Managing Editor.....Parthenia Downing
Sports Editor.....Donald Blakey
Circulation Mgr.....Olivia Tue Smith
Augustus Davis, Janette Calloway,
Margaret Lewis
Reporters.....Leola Francis,
Betty Makell, Thomas Smith, Delbert LeCompte, Beatrice Bordley,
Barbara Lewis, Alfred Mitchell,
Muriel Drakes, Stanford Bratton,
Edith Faulk, Isaac Carter, Ruth
Neal, Virginia Palmer, and Barbara Harrel.
Faculty Advisor.....John Robert Price
Published Periodically

FASHIONS

Well, here I am back again to keep you posted on the latest fashions. As I walked around the campus I noticed many changes in styles and a few changes in colors that have captivated the students. Most of the girls seem to stroll about with confidence that their attire is appropriate for their personality, appearance, and figure. But as some of you may realize, you can always use a hint that will stretch the use of the clothing in your present wardrobe.

Most times when you are shopping about, you will notice that some clothes demand that you be a certain height, your shoulders be so wide and no wider, your bustline can not pass the arbitrary mark by a few inches, or your hips must have certain proportions; such clothing requires a considerable amount of attention. Suppose we talk about a few of the problems that may help you to become lovelier.

If your problem is above-the-waist, you will want to choose something in a dress line that has a canny way of slimming a midriff. A straight jacket worn with a skirt is a handsome way to hide your waistline. You can dramatize your waistline with a contrasting cummerbund to make a smaller bosom seem fuller and shoulders seem wider by contrast.

Another valuable use of a straight jacket is to hide a bosom and midriff that does not coincide with "perfect dimensions." A princess dress always can be used to beautify the figure. To broaden the shoulders you can wear blouses and dresses that have stripes running across the fabric instead of running straight up and down—this makes your shoulders appear slimmer. You can focus attention to your face by wearing smart neckline sweaters and blouses. If you have a long neck, the sweaters and blouses should be worn in the round neckline styles. Attractive necklaces turtle neck sweaters, or button-up close to the neck blouses are the ideal things to purchase. However, if you wanted to wear a v-neckline blouse, dress or sweaters; a choker necklace should be worn. For the girl with the short fat neck, you will want to wear blouses, etc., just the opposite of a girl with a long neck. Try to always let as much of your neck be seen as possible.

One fact that all girls are aware of, I'm sure, is that stout girls should never wear dresses or skirts that are too full and the slimmer girls should avoid wearing straight skirts.

Another important problem that should be given some thought is that of selecting clothes in a suitable color. Each individual is different, therefore, you can not wear a shade that your girl friend may look very well in. Remember when you buy a dress, purchase one that blends with you. In selecting an outfit make sure that the colors contrast with one another.

If you stop and think over some of the things I've mentioned in this article, I can assure you that you will be lovelier in the future.

Olivia Tue Smith.

MALE CAMPUS FASHIONS

This fall the hard-hitting conservative male students are wearing black Ivy League pants with a strap in the back. These pants are worn in various shades of flannel, charcoal, bankers gray, light gray and others.

To combine with the pants, the students have purchased Ivy League shirts which have three buttons on the collar. Although they come in different patterns, the checkered ones are the most popular.

Another favorite of the boys are striped Ivy League suits and sport coats.

The trend in shoes (this year) is (the) brown bucks which are also known as the dirty buck. Occasionally a pair of Italian styled shoes can be seen.

The big news in caps (this year) is the plastic covered khaki cap with the striped Ivy Leaguers.

THE D. S. C. MAN

What is a D. S. C. Man? Where can he be found? Of course, he is a gentleman emanating from Delaware State College. He is courteous and polite at all times. Furthermore, he possesses character and other attributes to take his station in life.

Observe him! What will you see? A well groomed man moving gracefully from building to building in search of knowledge. Perfect is his attire. Neatly pressed are his trousers and coat. Fresh is his shirt with tie of his choice—may even be a bow. His shoes are shined always, and he has an option play from day to day which may or may not be a hat. When worn, of course, it is placed properly upon his head. Upon entering buildings he promptly removes it and carries it in his left hand. Look around in Delaware Hall, and I am sure you will see this D.S.C. man.

Ivy League caps and similar attire he has for leisure wear; however, when representing Dear Old D.S.C., he wears none of these. Regard the male members of the Plays Guild, Choir, S.C.A., and our athletic teams. Watch him, the D.S.C. man, and you will see what experts agree—that is, "going places is the man from D.S.C."

THE LATEST HAPPENINGS.

Have you noticed the things... That are happening On the campus of D. S. C.? The fellows are drifting to someone else

What can the trouble be? Of course we're familiar with one of the scenes

It's happened every year Boy friends drift to the freshman girls

But they'll be back, don't fear!

And then again, if they don't care to return

Hope is still to be found Just take a glance about you There are fellows all around

But girls, don't let having a male friend

Be your only destination Remember you came to college To get an Education.

ON TO VICTORY

When the football players Come on the field Standup and give them a cheer Wish them luck and send them on To victory this coming year

Show the spirit that is the best Help the team succeed For if they know you're rooting for them

This is all they'll need

So when the team comes on the field

And the whistle starts the game Keep cheering on the sidelines And help the team win fame.

BARBARA LEWIS.

WHAT IS A ROOMMATE?

Between the entering of college as a freshman, and graduation as a senior, you meet an interesting character called a roommate.

Roommates come from various towns, states, countries, but all roommates are imbedded with the same intention:

Of seeing how complicated he can make your life, while giving you four or five of the most enjoyable years of your life, while you are trying to get that sheepskin and leave college.

Roommates are found in different things, your shirt, your your blouse, your socks, your suit, your shoes, and sometimes even your bed.

Students love them, faculty members flatter them, parents bless them, and you protect them.

A roommate is friendship with a gleam in his eye, the devil with a heart of gold, the athlete with no letter to show, and a future executive with talent to spare.

When you are studying, a roommate is the Milton Berle of the dormitory with a little Red Buttons thrown in.

When you want to fool around he is the other side of Dr. Jeckle whom we all know as Mr. Hyde, or he wants to make some great oration on the possibilities of supersonic powers according to blah blah.

A roommate is a composite; he has the tactfulness of a diplomat, the audacity of a kid brother, the brain of a Pinocchio, the manners of an Emily Post—when he wants something.

The disappearance of a magician when there is work to be done, the voice of a Crosby, the get-up of a hobo; and when you need help in chemistry he has just fallen asleep.

They go for comic books, clean rooms—when you clean it, few classes, midnight snacks, dances movies, sports, holidays, especially long ones, Joe's girl or Sue's beau, certain instructors, a beer here and there, fraternities, sororities and their roommate.

They don't go too much for Beethoven homework, late classes, bills, C.F., or V.M., mopping the room in their turn, dressing up, chapel, curfew, final exams, conferences, that trick someone played on them, or that research term paper.

No other student can accomplish in one night: choir practice, letter writing, homework jam session, creative work, Chuck Richards, a snack, visiting other rooms and settling back to read a few pages from the works of Victor Hugo.

A roommate has strange ways; you can get him out of your clothes, but you can't get him out of the room.

You can ask him not to make noise, so he plays the radio.

Might as well relax; this is life give and take, borrow and lend, if he is worthy call him your friend.

Things aren't always square with the two of you, but when you come in from a hard day in class and maybe practice, there is something warm and sincere in these two words, "HI ROOMS!"

REVILO CLASS OF '54

Everybody needs friendship.

No matter who you are,

Friendship means a lot,

It's like a lucky star.

No man is an island,

No man can stand apart,

He needs a kindly friend,

To cheer his weary heart.

So hold on to friendship,

Whatever be the cost,

Do all for friendship,

Let it never be your lost.

Delbert LeCompte

BOOK REVIEW

"THE EDGE OF RUNNING WATER"

By William Sloane

This story concerns the adventures of a young psychologist in an inconsiderable Maine farm house on Setauket Point.

There are very distinct characters such as Juleau Blair and his wife Helen, and Dick and Anne.

Helen died very suddenly of pneumonia. Her death was merciful in its speed but the very abruptness of it was too much for Juleau. One week he was the new rich and, happy person that Helen had made him. The next he was a widower overwhelmed with the despair that comes to a man who has loved late in his life and has lost his happiness before he has grown accustomed to having it.

Dick and Anne's great companionship and strong affection add to the annoyance and charm of the story.

This novel is one of suspense, skill, and description. The author, William Sloane, does a marvelous job in presenting the story in such an understandable manner.

Read this novel for your pleasure and enjoyment!

Virginia Palmer

AGGIE HIGHLIGHTS

First, the Agriculture Department wishes to welcome its new members who come from New Jersey and South Carolina as well as Delaware. Then the department wishes to pay tribute to Mr. Ronald LeCompte, a member of the class of '56, for doing such a commendable job as assistant farm manager during the summer. Tributes also go to Mr. Fisher, Mr. Seeny, and Mr. Hawkins; the other unsung heroes in the Agriculture Department.

This year the department foresees a prosperous year. The pasteurization plant has been repaired. A new incubator which will soon be installed in the poultry section will prove to be outstanding for training purposes as well as supplying baby chicks for broiler production. The swine herd is being replaced with pure breed Yorkshire and Hampshire.

Even the food supply is at an all time high. Forage management during the summer months has kept the dairy cows at a very maximum production. The supply of high quality hay and silage should keep the level of production at a favorable peak during the winter months. The supply of small grain crops, corn, and soybeans, when supplemented with ample protein, should supply adequate nutrients for the animals without too much shortage. Although corn yields have not been measured yet, it is expected that one hundred bushels per acre will be a conservative figure.

(Vegetable crops are maturing to a good time to supply the vegetables for several weeks.) Root crops are available for storage which will also supply students with food during the winter months.

On the other hand, there are the research problems which also deserve much attention. Among these projects is a fertilizer study being conducted in front of Tubman Hall. Trails of various fertilizers are being studied on the front lawn and around the boxwoods.

This study was made possible through the courtesy of the Borden Company Chemical Division, 350 Madison Avenue, New York 17, New York.

The swine research project is being continued with the spring litter from the pure bred Hampshire sow that was purchased early last spring. Fortunately, the live stock production class has an active part in this project.

Finally, the Agriculture and the Home Economics Departments are enthusiastic about their Farm Family Day which will be held at the beginning of the second semester. The exact date will be published later.

BULLETIN SCHOLARSHIP WINNER CHOOSES D. S. C.

Delaware State College is proud to welcome Ronald D. McCrary, who was named the replacement winner of the Bulletin Newspaper Scholarship Award. This award, properly known as the William J. McLean Memorial Scholarship Award, consists of $500 a year renewable and was given by the Philadelphia Evening and Sunday Bulletin.

In addition to this award Mr. McCrary has won four English racing bicycles, a salt water fishing tackle and kit, a Bell and Howell eight millimeter camera and projector outfit, two wagons, a set of carpenter's tools, some model planes and boats and a multisection dictionary.

However, of most importance is the fact that in the summer of 1955, Mr. McCrary, was chosen from a group of over six thousand city and suburban newspaperboys to spend an all expense paid nineteen day tour of Italy and Sicily. Mr. McCrary, together with two other Bulletin carriers and 45 news boys from 29 newspapers in 26 cities, represented the United States on a good will tour to Italy. While on this tour, McCrary visited such places as Rome, Naples, Milan, Turin, Palermo, Isle of Capri, Blue Grotto and the Vatican City.

Incidentally, Mr. McCrary, is an 18 year old freshman from 2363 North Lambert Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, graduated from Northeast High School in the upper half of his class, and has one sister who is a junior at Temple University.

COLLEGE STUDENTS

All college students are cordially invited to submit original verse to be considered for possible publication in the ANNUAL ANTHOLOGY OF COLLEGE POETRY.

Rules: Mss. must be typed or written in ink on one side of a sheet. Student's home address, name of College and College address must appear on each mss.

Students may submit as many mss. as is desired. Theme and form may be in accordance with the wish of the student contributor. In order to give as many students as possible an opportunity for recognition, and because of space limitations—shorter efforts are preferred.

Closing Date For Submissions of Manuscripts.

NOV. 5

COLLEGE TEACHERS AND LIBRARIANS

All college teachers and librarians are cordially invited to submit original verse to be considered for possible publication in the ANNUAL ANTHOLOGY OF POETRY OF TEACHERS AND LIBRARIANS.

Rules: Mss. must be typed or written in ink on one side of a sheet.

Teacher's Home Address, name of College and College address must appear on each mss.

There are no limitations as to theme, form or style. Teachers may submit as many mss. as is desired. Appropriate certificates will be sent to those whose poetry qualifies for publication.

Closing Date For Submission of Manuscripts.

JAN. 1

Address:
College Poetry Anthology
National Poetry Association.
3210 Selby Avenue
Los Angeles 34, California.
Teachers Poetry Anthology
National Poetry Association
3210 G Selby Avenue
Los Angeles 34, California.

The seven nations which lead in air transport are the United States, Great Britain, France, Holland, Canada, India and Mexico.

First Row, L. to R.: Frank Pharr, William Thompson, Augustus Davis, Albert Smith, Walter Greene, Stephen Wright, James Vestal, Donald Blakey, William Murray, Thomas Griffin. Second Row, L. to

R.: Coach Bennie George, Earl Chism, Howard McKenzie, John Peebles, Carl Naylor, Ulysee Roseboro, Albert Battle, John Biggins, Wilbert Miller, Thomas Anderson.

Marvin Williams. Third Row, L. to R.: Coach Ulysses Washington, John Matthews, Edward Davis, William Jackson, Harry Bell, John Lewis, John Grinnage, Robert Alexander, Cornell Harvell, Marlin Carter, Coach E. Preston Mitchell, Isaac Carter. Fourth Row, L. to R.: Frank Holloway, Charles Durden, Clarence Davis.

DELAWARE STATE HORNETS STING

The Delaware State Hornets launched their 1956-57 football season under their new coach, Bennie George, 27-0 at Cheyney, Pa. In the first quarter, Fullback Gus Davis from Salem, New Jersey, carried the pigskin 30 yards, into the end zone for the first touch down. The conversion attempt was missed, and the first quarter ended, 6-0.

In the second quarter, End Frank Pharr from Charlotte, North Carolina, caught a Cheyney player in the end zone for a safety, and Donald Blakey, from Washington, D. C., later went over for another touchdown. The extra point attempt was wide of the mark. Score at the end of the first half was 14-0 Delaware State.

In the third quarter, William Murray from Philadelphia, Pa., went into the end zone for D. S. C.'s third touchdown. P. A. T. was again missed, score 20-0 Delaware State, at the end of the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, halfback Albert Smith scored from the one. The key play that set up this touchdown was pass from quarterback "Rock" Greene to end John Peebles who caught it on his own 31 and ran it to Cheyney's 22 yard line. "Rock" Greene then passed to Carl Naylor before Albert Smith carried it over from the one. P. A. T. was made by "Gus" Davis, final score thus was D. S. C. 27, Cheyney 0.

HORNETS BOW TO BLOOMSBURG, 13 - 0

The Hornets opened their second non-conference game on their opponent's field. Figured to beat the Bloomsburg Huskies, Delaware State fell at their opponent's goal line three times. From the opening whistle Bloomsburg marched down the field for a very important early score from their own 35. The attack was let by John Oustrich. On the scoring play, Oustrich handed to Robert Rainey four yards out for the score. The conversion by Rainey was also good.

On the return kickoff by Bloomsburg, Delaware received and was stalled by the fury of the large Bloomsburg line. After three unsuccessful attempts, Delaware was forced to kick from their own 24 and the ball was called out of bounds on the 48. Bloomsburg's frequent replacements kept the ball deep in Delaware's territory. The close of the first half found both teams gaining yardage.

The early part of the second half was controlled by Delaware. Twice the Hornets threatened to tally against the Huskies. A 25 yd. pass from Walt Greene to John Peebles (quarterback to left end) covered a distance of 59 yds. This with the hard running of "Gus Davis" and Bill Murray of Delaware State took the ball deep into the Huskie territory, only to be Bloomsburg line. Late in the second half D.S.C. threatened on several occasions to score without success. Bloomsburg after getting the ball late in the second half moved to the Hornet one yd. line on brilliant running by John Oustrich, Charles Casper, Robert Rainey, and Joseph Malczuk. John Oustrich then plunged over for the final Bloomsburg tally. The conversion attempt was not good, and the game ended 13-0, Bloomsburg.

DELAWARE STATE ROUTS HAMPTON 46-6

Playing their first home game of the season under gray skies, Delaware State defeated Hampton 46-6. The victory was the second of the season for Delaware State against one defeat.

Furious, because of their loss last week to Bloomsburg, the Hornets marched straight down the field after taking the opening kickoff on a sustained drive of 67 yards to score in the first five minutes of play. The key play was a 20 yard run into the end zone by halfback William Murray of Philadelphia, Pa. Augustus Davis from Salem, N. J., made the conversion.

Later in the same quarter the Hornets took over once more after forcing Hampton to punt. Halfback Donald Blakey and fullback Davis moved the ball for first downs for the Hornets. Davis then broke through the line from his own 48 yard line and went 49 yards to Hampton's 3 yard line before he was forced down. After a couple of attempts, quarterback "Rock" Greene went over from the 1 on a quarterback keep. Again, Davis converted. Score 14-0, Del. State.

Murray Scores Again

Early in the 2nd quarter after forcing Hampton to punt, Del. State moved to Hampton's 17 yard line on a series of plays that started with a good gain on a punt return by "Rock" Greene and a lateral to halfback Thomas Anderson from Camden, N. J. After moving to the 17 yard line, Del. State was penalized for holding. William Murray then went into action again and went 32 yards to score. The conversion was missed.

Again in the second quarter after forcing Hampton to punt, Del. State took over on its own 47 yard line. A few running plays gained yardage, but quarterback Greene decided to go to the air, and he hit Frank Pharr on a play that was good for 44 yards. After running to the one on a few attempts, Albert Smith from Washington, D. C., went over for the T.D. The point attempted was not made. Score at the half, Delaware State 26, Hampton 0.

During the half, coach Harry Jefferson of Hampton was presented a plaque by the Eastern Shore graduates of Hampton Institute in recognition of his service as a coach and teacher for over three decades.

In the second half Delaware State continued to roll. Tackle Earl Chism recovered a Hampton fumble on Hampton's 32. After several plays, "Rock" Greene heaved a TD pass to end Frank Pharr on a play that was good for 15 yards. Again, the point was missed. In the same period the Delaware State line led by Frank Holloway and Earl Chism blocked a Hampton punt on Hampton's 28 yard line. Del. State took over and very quickly moved the ball to the 2 yard line from where fullback Davis plunged over for a TD. U. Roseboro then kicked the extra point. Score at the end of the 3rd quarter, 39-0, Del. State.

In the 4th quarter, Carl Naylor of Del. State intercepted a Hampton pass on Hampton's 25 and returned it to the 22 yard line of Hampton. Hampton then recovered Delaware State's fumble. After a few plays, Hampton was forced to punt. Tackle Earl Chism of Del. State promptly broke through the line to block the punt and also scoop it up and go over for a T. D. Score then after conversion was Del. State 46, Hampton 0.

At this point Hampton came to life. They took the kickoff and began moving. Four first downs in a row were made by them, their entire total for the game. Quarterback Louis Shackleford, a substitute, scored the TD from the one foot line. This was the first TD scored against Del. State on its home field since October 30, 1954. The game ended without further scoring. Final score, Delaware State 46, Hampton 6.

Scoring Summary:

Hampton	0	0	0	6
Del State	14	12	3	7

Touchdown Scoring:

Touchdown, Louis Shackleford, (1, plunge) Delaware State Scoring

Touchdowns, William Murray 2 (20 run; 30 run) Walter Greene (1, run) Albert Smith (1, run) Frank Pharr (15, pass run from Greene) Augustus Davis (2, plunge) Earl Chism (10, blocked punt-run). Conversions, Augustus Davis 3 U. Roseboro 1.

WORDS FOR THOUGHT

The invariable mark of wisdom is to see the miraculous in the common.

There is a time in every man's education

When he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation when he arrives at the conclusion that is suicide; that he must take himself for better, for worse, as his portion.

When everything else feels so good. Anonymous

JACK JOHNSON GREATEST HEAVYWEIGHT IN HISTORY FIGHT EXPERTS SAY

NEW YORK, October 1 — Jack Johnson, the first Negro heavyweight champion, was the greatest heavyweight fighter in history, according to a survey conducted by Look Magazine of six leading fight experts.

In an article published in the new issue of Look, the experts overwhelmingly favored Johnson because he "combined the ultimate in both offense and defense, could take a punch, had tremendous punching power and great boxing skill."

The experts felt that Joe Louis, the "Brown Bomber," was the sixth greatest, ranking behind the recently retired Rocky Marciano.

The six members of the panel, who among them have seen every great heavyweight bout back to the days of John L. Sullivan, are:

Nat Fleischer, editor of "The Ring Magazine" and "The Ring," the record book of boxing.

Harry Grayson, veteran sports editor of the Newspaper Enterprise Association.

George A. Barton, boxing authority of the Minneapolis Tribune and a famous referee.

Tom Laird, former sports editor of the San Francisco News.

Abe Attell, one time featherweight champion.

Tim Cohane, sports editor of In the opinion of the panel, the ten top heavyweights are:

1. Jack Johnson
2. Jim Jeffries
3. Bob Fitzsimmons, Gene Tunney (Tied).
4. Rocky Marciano, Jim Corbett
5. Joe Louis
6. John L. Sullivan
7. Tom Sharkey
8. Max Schmeling

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

10:30 a.m. — 11:00 a.m. Inspection Tour of the Harriet Tubman Hall.

11:00 a.m. — 11:30 a.m. Inspection New Men's Dormitory.

11:30 a.m. — 12:30 p.m. Inspection Tour of Health Center, Library, Art Studio and other campus buildings ("Fruit Display" Delaware Hall, 2nd Floor).

12:30 p.m. — 2:00 p.m. Dinner—Conrad Hall Dining Room.

2:30 p.m. — 3:30 p.m. Parents' Day Program, Delaware Hall.

4:00 p.m. — 4:30 p.m. Laying of Cornerstone of New Men's Dormitory.

4:30 p.m. — 5:30 p.m. Reception for Students, Parents, Alumni, and Friends Conrad Hall Dining Room.

CAMPUS CHATTER

(1) The campus is really going to miss the "Collegians" what are we going to do about our combo?

(2) The upperclassmen welcome all freshmen and transfer students to Delaware State.

(3) Transfer students, Barbara Harrell and Delores Douglas are challenging the Whist Champs of D. S. C. What do you think champs?

(4) Harvey Murray is one to say the least but Oh, when he does!

(5) Say fellows, did you export your campus friends for your home girls.

(6) Congratulations to our competent senior, Gertrude Chandler, for teaching.

(7) The girls admire the way Ernest Perry dances. Why he was the "Beau" of the Backward Dance!

(8) We finally know why we could not keep John Pitts on the campus last year, yes, it was because of Lowan Carter.

(9) The slogan of the "Fatal Six" is, "To knock them down, step over them and take what you want."

(10) Clifford Riddick has brought in a six footer to take his friend Larry Metzger's place on the basketball team.

(11) It looks as though the senior girls are really making use of their permanent excuses.

(12) Patricia Blacknall is doing a fine job with the cheering Squad.

(13) Let's support Harry wholeheartedly so that we will be able to get snacks quickly.

(14) Frederick Coverdale is the figure of special figure of attention of the girls of 2nd and Tubman.

(15) Aubrey Stinson was delcared the number one man of the junior class.

(16) More girls than Betty Duffy are admiring your fine selection of clothes, George Beachum.

(17) Someone would like to know if Ronald Anderson could use his fine collection of Progressive jazz recordings to cultivate more interests into the student body.

(18) James Moddy, could we see you on the campus more often?

D. S. C.

CHEERLEADERS OF 1956

The cheering squad for the school year 1956-57 hopes to keep up the former school spirit which was demonstrated during the last year. Unfortunately, they are losing six of their former cheerleaders. Due to circumstances beyond our control, Claudette Bishop, Ruby Davis, Barbara Lewis, Sarah Moody, Gertrude Redding, and Delores Walker will not be with them.

However, there are new members who are joining the squad. These girls seem to be capable of doing as well a job as did the former cheerleaders. They are Patricia Blacknall, Swanella Boney, Valentine Cottman, Grace Shockley, and Roberta Webb. There are two old members still remaining on the squad, Shirley Benson and Olivia Tyler Blackwell.

The cheering squad was organized by Saturday, September 22, for the trip to Cheyney, Pennsylvania where they had a very successful trip.

The cheerleaders are pleading for support from the student body. Won't you give them your support?

WHY DID YOU

COME TO COLLEGE,

Why did you come to college? Did you come to work or play? Did you come to increase your knowledge—

Or to pass the time away. I hope you came to work, And not to fool around, If your duties you don't shirk, Your rewards will come tumbling down.

BEAT SMITH

FULLBRIGHT COMPETITION CLOSES

November 1, 1956 is the closing date of the competitions for United States Government educational study abroad, it was announced today by Kenneth Holland, president of the Institute of International Education, New York City. One month remains in which to apply for awards under the Fulbright and Buenos Aires Convention Programs for the 1957-58 academic year.

Scholarship application blanks and a brochure describing the overseas study awards are available in the offices of Fulbright advisers on college and university campuses. Applicants enrolled at academic institutions must abide by the submission deadlines established by their respective Fulbright advisers.

The programs under the Fulbright Act and the Buenos Aires Convention for the Promotion of Inter-American Cultural Relations are part of the international educational exchange activities of the Department of State. They will give almost 1,000 American citizens the chance to study abroad during the 1957-58 academic year. Since the establishment of the program in 1947, over 5,500 American students have received grants for study.

Countries where U. S. graduate students may study under the Fulbright Program are Australia, Austria, Belgium and Luxembourg, Burma, Chile, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, India, Japan, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, the Philippines and the United Kingdom. In the Asian countries, Burma, India, Japan the Philippines, as well as in Greece, only a limited number of grants are available, and mature graduate provision is made in the German program for 25 grants to American graduate students who will serve as English language assistants in secondary schools.

Countries participating in the Buenos Aires Convention Program are Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru and Venezuela.

Eligibility requirements for these foreign study fellowships are United States citizenship; a college degree or its equivalent at the time the awards is to be taken up; knowledge of the language of the country of application sufficient to carry on the proposed study and good health. Preference is given to applicants not more than 35 years of age.

Final selection of Fulbright grantees is made by the Board of Foreign Scholarships, ten leading educators, and educational administrators appointed by the President of the United States. The Institute of International Education has been designated by the Board and the Department of State to screen applicants for study abroad. Under the Buenos Aires convention, the Institute makes the preliminary recommendation of candidates, with the governments, of the cooperating countries making the final selection of candidates for study within their borders.

Awards under the Fulbright Act are made entirely in the currencies of participating countries abroad. This Act authorizes the use of foreign currencies and credits acquired through the sale of surplus property abroad for educational exchanges. The Awards cover transportation, expenses of a language refresher or orientation course abroad, tuition, books and maintenance for one academic year. Awards under the Buenos Aires Convention include transportation provided by the U. S. Government, and tuition and maintenance allowances provided by the host governments.

TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS

well freshmen, you are in college! All during the summer vacation, you thought about "college" didn't you? You probably wanted to know what the other students would be like, if you could make the football team, or perhaps your chances of securing a boy friend. I feel sure most of these questions have been answered.

Generally speaking, you went through a week of orientation set up like that of most colleges and universities in the country. It was during that week you learned a great deal about college life. However, as you are seeing now, things experienced during that week are being modified.

I assume most of you are here because you realize the necessity of higher education. I agree, it is necessary, but don't let it crowd out purpose.

Purpose is very important. Although it may appear vague at times, hold on to it. If your purpose has meaning for you, it will be a solace and a guide. You will need an anchor here in college. Many of your beliefs and dislikes will be under fire. You will think reflectively about many situations. Purpose will give you the support you will need.

What is purpose? Purpose to me is a principle or a set of principles which serve as a guide to an individual in his performance of a task. It will likely differ in the case of each individual. All of you won't use the same method of achieving purpose to the same degree. After a time, you will find yourself and you will be able to say with conviction, "I know why I came to college, what I want to get from a college education, and how I intend to utilize what I am learning."

Yes, this is college. For every task you undertake, try to carry it out to the best of your ability. When you are in need of aid in solving your problems, don't hesitate to ask for it. Utilize all of the available resources on our campus, including faculty and upper classmen.

Welcome to our campus, freshmen, may your school year be very successful.
D. Swiggett (Class of '56).

OMEGA PSI PHI HIGHLIGHTS

This year the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity begins with an able body of officers and members.

The officers for the year 1956-57 are: Basileus, Leo LeCompte; Vice Basileus, James Conway; Dean of Pledges, Isaac Carter; Keeper of Records and Seals, John Maloney.

Members of the Lampodas club are: John Biggings, William Jackson, Samuel Givens, and Ivory Collins.

The calendar for the year consists of a Vesper Service, a Chapel Program, co-sponsorship with Psi Iota Chapter for Achievement Week, social affairs, and other worthwhile services which will benefit the student body and the fraternity.

Items on the agenda are to: begin a system of communication with brothers who have joined the services or have graduated, to select the Citizen of the Year, and the Omega Man of the Year, and the most important item will be how the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity can cooperate with the college in promoting their ideals, aspirations, and programs.

These items plus others present a full program for this year. With the Grace of God we shall progress.

A. K. A HIGHLIGHTS

The Delta Lambda Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority has started its second year of work. The past year was a very successful one for the chapter and its Sorors.

Delta Lambda plans to participate in a number of activities this year. Among them are: The Homecoming Program, Chapel Services, Rush Parties for the Freshmen, Teas, The Founder's Day Program, The Pan-Hellenic Ball and take an active part in the Health Program of the National Health Committee for Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. In addition the chapter will award a Scholarship to a deserving person. We plan to entertain patients at the Kent Hospital and the Welfare Home and to offer services to our campus infirmary and local doctors.

Delta Lambda is happy to welcome Soror Barbara Harrell and Soror DeLores Douglas to our chapter. Soror Harrell is a transfer student from South Carolina State and Soror Douglas transferred from Maryland State.

The two advisors of Delta Lambda this year are Soror Edmonia Grider, Faculty Advisor, and Soror Mary Scott, Graduate Advisor. Soror Scott was a charter member of Delta Lambda.

Our Ivy Leaf Club has five members. They are: Shirley Benson Parthenia Downing, Alma Henry, Harriette Walker, and Equilla Watson. Their club officers are: Equilla Watson, president; Alma Henry, secretary; and Harriette Walker, treasurer. Included in the program are several social activities, a Vesper Program and two benefit dances.

Delta Lambda's sorors are active in many campus activities. Hortense Priest is Editor-in-Chief of the "Hornet", Betty Duffy is president of the Du-Ed Club, and Gertrude Chandler will be starring in a Dramatic Club presentation. Claudette Bishop is sweetheart of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity for the fourth year; Barbara Harrell is sweetheart of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Esselee Matthews is a member of the college choir, and Barbara Lewis is a member of the band.

It is with eager hearts, sincere minds, greater cooperation and higher ideas, that Delta Lambda Chapter plans to build a closer bond of sisterly love.

Betty Duffy
Ivy Leaf Reporter

ALPHA HAPPENINGS

The Gamma Sigma Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity is anticipating a very successful year. Although this year the chapter consists of only two members, Brother James Vestal, Dean of Pledges, and Brother Alfred Mitchell, President, it has planned an extensive program.

The have chosen Barbara Harrell, a senior majoring in English, for their sweetheart.

However, there are ten members in the Sphinx Club who are striving very hard to become full-fledged Alpha men. These members are Wilbur Miller, President; Thomas Wilbur Mier, President; Thomas Griffin, Secretary; Richard Turner, Treasurer; Cornell Harvell, Parliamentarian, James Scarbrough, James Moody, Thomas Anderson, Reynolds Harris, Howard McKinzie, and Albert Battle. The Sphinx has also planned an extraordinary program. They have chosen Greta Naylor, a sophomore majoring in Home Economics, for their sweetheart.

KAPPA ALPHA PSI

The Beta Sigma Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc. this year is being manned by five capable and talented brothers. They are: Brother William McCoy, brother Stephen "Catfish" Wright III, brother Thomas Smith, brother James Evans and your turly. Our sweetheart is Miss Claudette Bishop, who has been our sweetheart for four years. Maintained under the watchful eye of the Kappa Brothers is a Scrollers Club. These men are pledging their loyalty and ives to Dear Ole Kappa. Someday they will share the cherished privileges of a true Kappa. In the Scrollers Club we have Don Evans, Earl Chism, Charles Brown, John Mathews and Marlin Carter. Their sweetheart is Miss Barbara Hazzard. The Beta Sigma Chapter has as an advisory aid, its graduate brother, Bennie George. At the present, Beta Sigma Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Psi is trying to put over a guide right program.

Donald Blakey.

DELTA HIGHLIGHTS

Epsilon Kappa Sigma Alumni chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority extends to the new and old students a hearty welcome to Delaware State College, which serves as the chapter seat. The opening of a new school year brings the opportunity to initiate cultural and social activities beneficial to the entire college family. An awareness of these opportunities plays a prominent role in the shaping of the sorority program.

Among the many activities of the Deltas is the sponsoring of a sub-debutante organization of young ladies of high school age who are expressively interested in the sorority and who have demonstrated attributes of potential collegiate scholarship, personal integrity and character.

Efforts are currently being directed toward the establishment of an undergraduate chapter at the college, financial aid to deserving college students, and production of the Delta Jabberwock, a competitive variety show.

Officers and members for the current year are: President..Soror Martha Woodfolk V. President. .Soror Annette Henry Rec. Scty Soror Minnie Wynder Cor. Scty.....Soror Phyllis Parson Treasurer.....Soror Helen Games Undergraduate Coordinator Soror Maye Grant Journalist.....Soror Ruth Laws Parliamentarian

Soror Judith White Custodian....Soror Virginia Dennis Financial SctySoror Helen Washington.

Other members: Sorors Celestine Gray, Isabelle Patterson, Evelyn Rush, Dorothy Talbert, and Cleo Mitchell.

D. S. C. BAND MAKES DEBUT

The D. S. C. Band made its debut at the Pep Rally preceding the Delaware State-Hampton football game. Although small in number, the band really "picks a wallop" according to Mr. Thomas Griffin, the director. The members are: Clarinet, Walter Moody; Saxophones, Carroll Waters, R. Galen to Draine; trumpets, Eugene Kenney, Barbara Lewis; trombone, Carlton Parker; Baritone horn, Oliver Casson; Tuba, Joseph Royal; Percussion, Joyce Jackson, Natalie Crowder, Harry Jackson, James Conaway.

PEP SONG WRITING CONTEST ANNOUNCED

A campus wide Pep Song writing Contest was announced by Mr. Thomas S. Griffin, Acting Head of the Music Department, at the Pep Rally held on October 5th. Sponsored by the Music Department, the contest is to be open to both individuals and campus organizations and trophies will be awarded on October 23rd for the best original pep song submitted by 1) and individual 2) a campus organization. The final entry date is Saturday, October 20, 1956.

PREPARE FOR YOUR FUTURE

Study at Delaware State College

Do Not Delay, Enter the Second Semester, January 24, 1957

Start Enrollment Proceedings NOW

NEW DORMITIES

A Coed School with majors and minors in the following fields:

English	Secondary Education
Economics	Health and Physical Education
Biology	Agricultural Education
Business Administration	Technical Agriculture
Elementary Education	Business Education
History	Foods and Nutrition
Sociology	Home Economics Education
Mathematics	Secretarial Studies
Chemistry	Textiles
Music Education

Write to the following for an application blank TODAY:

Registrar
Delaware State College
Dover, Delaware

Applications Now Being Accepted

WELCOME ALUMNI

THE HORNET

VOL. XII, NO. VII DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DEL. NOV. 21, 1956

UNIVERSITY MUSEUM IN PHILADELPHIA TO EXHIBIT SOMMERVILLE COLLECTION

Philadelphia, Pa. Nov., 1956--

A rare treat to many persons will be the exhibit of the famous Sommerville Collection of Cameo and Intaglio gems at the University Museum in Philadelphia from November 30th to the end of March.

The public has waited over fifty years to see these gems, bequeathed to the University Museum, Philadelphia, by Maxwell Sommerville in 1904. At the time of Sommerville's death, his collection was considered to be one of the largest and most important collections of ancient and later Cameo and Intaglio engraved gems and gems moulded in glass in the Western Hemisphere. It rivaled collections in the museums of Naples, Florence, Paris, Berlin, Vienna and St. Petersburg, on the Continent, and at the British Museum in London and was comparable to the collections of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in the United States.

For the current exhibit, 650 of the more than three thousand pieces which comprise the Sommerville Collection have been by Dr. Cornelius Vermeule, Assistant Professor of Classical Archaeology at Bryn Mawr College. Dr. Vermeule, who is an authority on gems, devoted considerable time to the study of the Sommerville Collection in order to identify the pieces as to date and subject matter, and to select the most representative ones to be shown. Items in the Collection range in date from Babylonian of the second millennium B.C. to the Neo-Classic European of the 19th century. The tradition of the gem cutter's art is thus illustrated over a period of four thousand years.

The collection also illustrates the various uses to which gem carvings have been put as personal jewelry, particularly in rings and as pendants, and in Medieval times, inset in liturgical vessels and in the covers of manuscripts. The larger cameos and glass pastes, in the Renaissance and Neo-Classical periods, were used as wall decorations, much as we use small paintings or framed photographs. The various designs reflect the style and thinking of their period, and we may look to them for real mirror of the life and art for those times known to us in monumental form in architecture, and in sculpture and painting.

Professor Sommerville collected a great many gems of periods ranging chronologically from the Byzantine and Western European Middle Ages to the sophisticated Italian Neo-Classic products of Santorelli, the Pichler family and Marchant in the earlier part of the last century. Like other arts, that of gem carving revived noticeably in the Italian Renaissance or 15th and 16th centuries. Many Sommerville gems, particularly larger allegorical and portrait cameos, can be attributed to these years.

A lecturer in the Department of Archaeology and Palaeontology of the University of Pennsylvania from 1890 to 1894, and Professor of Glyptology from 1894 to 1904, Maxwell Sommerville was one of a group of Philadelphians to whom the University Museum actually owes its existence. He served as its curator, was a member of its Board of Managers, and a Vice-President from 1900 until his death. His collection was made
(Continued on Page 2, Column 1)

Published Periodically

Harlow, a grainbroker in his

Virginia Palmer

DRIVE SAFELY PLEASE
HAPPY THANKSGIVING

HORNETS TIED BY ST AUGUSTINE'S COLLEGE, 13-13

Nov. 17--The Delaware State Hornets traveled to Raleigh, N.C. to close out their 1956 Football season with the St. Augustine Falcons, and ended with a 13-13 tie.

In the first quarter, the Falcons scored first on a 5 yd. run by Lester Spears. The PAT was missed. William Murray, playing halfback for the Hornets, retaliated by carrying the pigskin 38 yds. to tie the game at 6-6.

In the second quarter, Donald Thompson, a St. Augustine back, carried the pigskin 36 yds. to pay dirt. The PAT was made by Spears and the score was then St. Augustine 13, Delaware 6. Later in this quarter, the Hornets' tackle, Earl Chism, blocked a punt and scooped it up on the three and ran into the end zone for the Hornets' second touchdown. Quarterback Walter "Rock" Greene, playing his last game for the Hornets, passed to end Frank Pharr for the PAT. The score was then, St. Augustine Falcons 13, Delaware State Hornets 13.

Neither team scored in the third and fourth quarters, and the final score was 13-13. The Hornets thus finished their 1956 football season with a record of seven wins, one tie, and one defeat.

Other players besides Walter "Rock" Greene who were playing their last game for the Hornets were James Henry Vestal, guard; Stephen "Catfish" Wright, end; and Albert "Buzzy" Smith, halfback; all from Washington, D.C. Our all C.I.A.A. Mgr., Isaac Carter, of Dover, Delaware also bowed out. T. Smith

C.I.A.A. FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP FOR THE HORNETS DEPENDS ON IT

The Hornets' chances of receiving the C.I.A.A. football championship now depend on a big if. If North Carolina A & T on Thanksgiving Day defeats North Carolina College at Durham, N.C., and if on the same day Virginia State College defeats Morgan State College at Petersburg, Va., then Delaware State would be the C.I.A.A. champions. Another possibility is a co-championship with Morgan, if Morgan wins and N. C. College loses. If N. C.

College wins, we are then out. Further information on this complicated situation will have to come from the official C.I.A.A. statistician.

INDIVIDUAL DELAWARE STATE FOOTBALL SCORING STATISTICS FOR THE SEASON

Player	Points
Halfback William Murray	54
Quarterback Walter Greene	42
Fullback Augustus Davis	36
End Frank Pharr	31
Halfback Albert Smith	18
Tackle Earl Chism	12
Center Robert Alexander	8
Halfback Thomas Anderson	6
Halfback Donald Blakey	6
End Edward Davis	6
Fullback Carl Naylor	6
End John Peebles	6
Halfback Ulysse Roseboro	3
End William Jackson	1

CAMPUS CHATTER

1. The Hornet newspaper staff welcomes all new members, especially our little Ivy, Alma Henry.
2. Esther Brittingham and Samuel Givens are the Business couple of the semester.
3. Congratulations, Tiko! Scholastically you are tops. Keep up the good work. That goes to show that our athletes work in class as well as on the football field.
4. Say, girls, did you capture your Lil Abner Saturday?
5. Felicitations are extended to William Murray for being a valuable player to the Hornets.
6. Freshmen, if your mid-term grades did not measure up to your expectations, do not give up; just work twice as hard for finals.
7. To the present probates: Be good to your Big Brothers and Sisters and they will see you through.
8. Willie Brown is definitely one of our most collegiate looking students.
9. The social committee is trying very hard to get the campus to resume its old atmosphere, but it must have cooperation from the student body.
10. To the entire football team: You have done very well this season fellows, and we are proud of you.

Kill a man with a gun, and we call it murder. Kill a man with a two-ton vehicle, and we call it an accident.

COMMENTS FROM THE EDITORS

The editors of THE HORNET would like to congratulate everyone who has made it possible for the student body to support the Hornets at the football games that were played close to home.

Special thanks goes to the student body for cheering for the team while they were gallantly fighting for victory. The cheering gave our team that much needed inspiration to fight to the end and to put everything they had into the games. The spirit displayed at the Maryland State game by the college family and the alumni was an "A plus" job. Without this type of support, the team would have been as sturdy as a castle built on a sand dune.

We wish to also congratulate our coaching staff for they have done an excellent job in making this 1956 football season a very successful one for the Hornets. Our appreciation is extended to Bennie George, who, this year, aptly filled the position of head coach; to Ulysses Washington, who did a splendid job with the linemen; and to Dr. E. Preston Mitchell, who worked faithfully with the ends and who served as an eagle eye in scouting for the team.

Also there is the team that we wish to congratulate for its exhibition of excellent teamwork and co-operative spirit has proved without a doubt that the saying, "together we stand; divided we fall," is true.

We realize that athletics play a secondary role in our program of educational development, but when a job is well done, congratulations should be given.

CORRINE GILLIAM JOINS COLLEGE FAMILY

Joining our faculty staff recently, as secretary to the business manager, was Corrine Gilliam. Miss Gilliam was born in Emporia, Virginia. After completing elementary and high school at her home town, Emporia, Virginia, she journeyed to Philadelphia, where she attended The William Penn Business Institute. When she graduated, she was granted a scholarship by the Alumni Association of the school for further study which she undertook. Upon completing several secretarial courses, she was given the opportunity to work for some of the leading businessmen in Philadelphia until she joined our staff.

Miss Gilliam's interests are quite varied. They include reading mystery stories, collecting pictures and clippings, raising gold fish, and listening to all types of music. Her favorite sport is basketball.

COMING EVENTS

- Nov. 22-25 Thanksgiving Recess
- Nov. 25-28 Middle States Association's Visitation
- Nov. 27 Paul Denise Regser of WUS will speak in Chapel
- Dec. 1 Breakfast Dance sponsored by Social Committee
- Dec. 2 Vesper Service sponsored by Bahai International Club
- Dec. 4 Rabbi Herbert Drooz will speak in Chapel D.S.C. vs. Maryland State at D.S.C. (Basketball)
- Dec. 6 D.S.C. vs. J. C. Smith at D.S.C. (Basketball)
- Dec. 8 Dance sponsored by Ivy Leaf Club
- Dec. 9 Vesper Service sponsored by Sphinx Club and A Phi A
- Dec. 10 D.S.C. vs. Lincoln University at D.S.C. (Basketball)
- Dec. 11 Morris Milgram will speak in Chapel program
- Dec. 15 Christmas Dinner Dance 2:00 P.M. D.S.C. vs. Hampton at D.S.C. (Basketball)
- Dec. 16 Concert given by the College Choir
- Dec. 18 AKA Sorority will sponsor a Chapel program
- Dec. 19 D.S.C. vs. St. Augustine at D.S.C. (Basketball)
- Dec. 20 Christmas Caroling directed by College Choir and Mrs. Grant
- Dec. 22 - Christmas Recess
- Jan. 6

Our sincere gratitude goes to Mrs. Jones and the Dining Hall Staff for our splendid Thanksgiving Dinner.

THE HORNET

"THE STINGING TRUTH"

(SENIOR PICTURES INSIDE)

VOL. XIII. NO. II

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DELAWARE

MAY 26, 1957

President Holland Gives Future Outlook of D. S. C. In Message To Graduating Class

DR. HOLLAND'S MESSAGE

"I am extremely happy to have this opportunity on behalf of the Delaware State College family of extending to the members of the class of 1957 best wishes for a successful life as you leave these hallowed walls. This class is very close to the Office of the President as it was only four short years ago that you and I entered Delaware State College. It was the beginning of an interesting educational experience, and one that I will always remember.

"If we indulge in past memories, they will vividly portray the serious plight of Delaware State College at that time. The college was entwined in the midst of a frustrating situation which threatened to end the educational services of this institution. Through divine guidance, the college remained open, and today it is potentially an excellent small general college with an accredited program. This success has been the result of a cooperative effort on the part of all members of the college family.

"I must commend the members of the class of 1957 because you were determined to obtain a higher education in spite of the many obstacles with which you were confronted. Many of your classmates decided not to make the sacrifice, and, today, I believe that they regret their decision. Your opportunities for success are much greater than those young people who stayed at home. This places a great responsibility on you which must be accepted. Your position of leadership makes it mandatory for you to assume the rights and obligations of such a role. In addition, and speaking rather candidly, you should accept this role in order to promote the type of social order conducive to your best physical, social, spiritual and emotional development.

"A perusal of the college scene during the past four years portrays a most interesting picture. At the close of the 1952-53 school year, there were less than 100 students on the college campus. During your first year at the college (1953-54), there was an increase in student enrollment. The college opened Harriet Tubman Hall which gave the women students excellent living quarters. You witnessed a rebirth in academic interest, a renewed concern for the place of extra-class activities in the college program, the development of a strong faculty, the opening of a new library addition, and consequently, the organizing of a functional library program, and a general reawakening as to the role of the college in higher education with in the state and surrounding area. At the same time, the college was undertaking many extensive renovations. This included the development of a student health center, a student canteen, a temporary math-physics building, a piggery, a brooder house, offices in Jason Hall and the completion of six faculty apartment units in Lore Hall. In order to bring its physical plant up to par the college has completed a men's residence hall and a building for single male faculty members.

DR. JEROME H. HOLLAND
President, Delaware State College

"Within the next two years, the college hopes to construct a new classroom, laboratory and office building. An addition to the library has been planned, which will give the college adequate library facilities. There is also the possibility that a building will be constructed for housing single women faculty members.

"While I have enumerated only a limited number of the changes developed at Delaware State College during the past four years, I believe that we recognize the value of being fortunate enough to be closely associated with an expanding and progressive institution.

"The present enrollment trend should continue. A conservative estimate would give the college a student body by 1960, approximately 400-500 students. It is quite possible that by 1970 the enrollment may be double or even triple the estimate for 1960. If such is the case, additional physical facilities will be needed. In this context, the college will need the following capital improvements:

1. A physical and natural science building
 2. A residence hall for women
 3. A residence hall for men
 4. An auditorium and music building
 5. A student union building
 6. A religious center or chapel
- In addition, there must be a rather extensive renovating program organized.

"The future of your alma mater is rather promising. The assistance and cooperation of the Alumni body is needed if the college is to become active members of the Alumni Association. It is through this organization that you will be able to make your greatest contribution to Delaware State College.

"It is our sincere wish, that the members of the class of 1957 may have success in all of their future endeavors."

DR. WILSON OF HOWARD UNIVERSITY TO SPEAK AT BACCALAUREATE

Our baccalaureate speaker for 1957 is Dr. Frank Theodore Wilson, Dean of the School of Theology, Howard University, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Wilson attended Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, where he received his A. B. in 1911 and his S. T. B. in 1924. He later matriculated at Columbia University, New York for his A. M. in 1933 and the ED. D. in 1937.

His teaching career carried him to Lincoln University, Pennsylvania from 1936-49 as Professor of Psychology and Dean of Men, and to Howard University in 1949 as Dean of the School of Theology.

Some of the organizations and positions held by him are: student secretary, National Council, Y. M. C. A. in New York, 1923-26; member of the board of directors, Washington, D. C., member of the research committee to study services of Y. M. C. A. movement to Negro boys and men in United States; member of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education; member of the regional council, Middle Atlantic Student Christian Movement; director of the Young People's Summer Conferences under the auspices of Board of Christian Education, Presbyterian Church, United States of America; member of the board of directors of the American Council on African Education and numerous others.

He has written such articles as Young Ministers Examine the Ministry, in New Advance, 1944; Religion in Negro Colleges, in Religious Education, 1946; The Church and the Negro, Southern Churchman, 1945; The Present Status of Race Relations in the U. S., Journal of Religious Thought, 1945; Development of Program at Lincoln University, Pennsylvania, (doctoral thesis) 1937, and many others.

LIBRARY RECEIVES GIFT

Mrs. Thelma Young, a member of the Board of Trustees, presented to the College Library a copy of Lucille A. Chambers' America's Tenth Man. Mrs. Young who is a friend of the author feels that this title is very significant because of its emphasis on the positive contributions of the Negro in American life today. Accepting the book on behalf of the college community, Mr. Josey, the librarian, said that "most of our great libraries were begun by gifts and continue to thrive because of gifts from interested persons like Mrs. Young. Gifts of books to libraries are weapons of ideas for the arsenal of a democratic culture."

WALTER DE YOUNG, TOP HONOR STUDENT

Walter DeYoung, an agricultural major, will graduate this term with highest honor.

Mr. DeYoung was born April 21, 1929 in Preakness, New Jersey. He attended Preakness Grammar School in New Jersey, Wayne Township Junior High School in New Jersey, Pompton Lakes School in New Jersey, and Cherry Valley High School in Cherry Valley, New York.

Being raised on both a poultry and a dairy farm, Mr. DeYoung really grew up with nature. Among many other pastoral activities, he has even been engaged in the raising of minks. However, his life has been devoted not only to farming but also to traveling. He has hitch hiked across the United States nine times, traveled in every state of the Union, and spent fourteen months in the tropics of Central and South America. He visited such countries as Panama, Trinidad, Puerto Rico, Santa Lucia, and Antigua.

Mr. DeYoung spent over four and one half years in the United States Air Force. While in the Air Force, he was a flutist, a physical instructor, an Arc Squadron Specialist on Secret Mission, and a first string center on the football team.

During his civilian life he has been an active gymnast in the Swiss Turnverein in New Jersey, a supervisor for the Exclusive Trade Construction Company, and a member of the Merchant Marines.

While at D. S. C. he has been President of the Tutorial Society and Secretary of the Agricultural Club. In addition to spending much of his spare time with his family, he plays chess and does extensive reading.

DR. PATTERSON TO DELIVER COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Our commencement speaker this year will be Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, former President of Tuskegee Institute, Alabama. He was born in Washington, D.C., October 10, 1901; and married Catherine Elizabeth Moton of Tuskegee, Alabama in 1932.

Dr. Patterson attended Iowa State College where he received his D.V.M. in 1923; M. S. from Cornell University in 1927; and his Ph.D. in 1932. He has also received L.L.D. from Virginia State College, Petersburg, in 1941, D.H.L. from Wilberforce University, Ohio; and the Sc. D. from Lincoln University, Pa. in 1942. In 1948 he received the Alumni Award for distinguished achievement from his alma mater.

He first started teaching as an instructor of Veterinary Medicine at Virginia State College in 1923-26. Later he was promoted to director of Agriculture in 1927-28; and then to head of the veterinary division of Tuskegee Institute, Alabama in 1928-33; director of School of Agriculture in 1933 to 1935 and President of Tuskegee in 1935. He is now director of the Phelps-Stokes Fund in New York.

Dr. Patterson belongs to the following organizations: board of trustees at Booker T. Washington A & I Institute, Liberia, Africa; Fisk University, Nashville, Tennessee; Bethune-Cookman College, Daytona Beach, Florida; Hampton Institute, Virginia; and other institutes of learning. He also is a member of National Foundation of Medical Education, National Society for Crippled Children; National Committee, National Urban League; Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report on Reorganization of the Federal Government, Assistant to the United States Secretary of Agriculture, president of Committee on Higher Education, Cleveland Conference, and the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. He is the former president of the United Negro College Fund.

He also is co-author of "What the Negro Wants" written in 1946 and a contributor to scientific and professional journals.

PROFESSOR ULYSSES S. WASHINGTON TO LEAD GRADUATION EXERCISES

Professor Ulysses S. Washington, Assistant Professor of Agricultural Engineering, will lead the graduation exercises at Delaware State College on May 26, 27, 1957. Assisting the chief marshal will be the following: Joseph N. Grant Associate Professor of Biology; Bennie J. George, Assistant Professor of Physical Education; and John Robert Price, Assistant Professor of Business Education.

Chairman of the Commencement Committee is Miss Harriet R. Williams, Associate Professor of Chemistry.

Our campus roads have many arteries now. Please look carefully at all intersections and obey the campus speed limit of 15 miles per hour.

THE HORNET

PICTORIAL SECTION

VOL XIII. NO. II

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DELAWARE

MAY 26, 1957

GRADUATING SENIORS

Row 1, left to right: Hortense Priest, Wilmington, Delaware, Business Education; Leo LeCompte, Odessa, Delaware, Elementary Education; Hettie Wright, Newark, Delaware, Secretarial Science; Walter Greene, Washington, D. C., Physical Education.

Row 2, left to right: Barbara Lewis, Avondale, Pennsylvania, Physical Education; William McCoy, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Physical Education; Barbara Harrell, Florence, South Carolina, English; Alfred Mitchell, Dover, Delaware, Agricultural Education.

Row 3, left to right: Harry Jackson, Chicago, Illinois, Sociology; Claudette Bishop, Newark, Delaware, Elementary Education; James Vestal, Washington, D. C., Agriculture; Gertrude Chandler, Wilmington, Delaware, Elementary Education.

Row 4, left to right: Addie Matthews, Seaford, Delaware, Elementary Education; Albert Smith, Washington, D. C., Physical Education; Virginia Palmer, Seaford, Delaware, Biology; William Morris, Dover, Delaware, Agriculture.

Graduating Seniors not pictured: Carroll Waters, Cambridge, Maryland, Music Education; Stephen Wright, Washington, D. C., Physical Education; Donald Coker, Cheswold, Delaware, History; Gilbert Frisby, Middletown, Delaware, Elementary Education.

NOTE: Walter DeYoung is pictured on page one of the printed section. Pictures of graduating class continued on next page.

Row 1, left to right: Marva Bond, Newark, Delaware, Elementary Education; Susie Perkins, Seaford, Delaware, English; Alice Hollis, Wilmington, Delaware, Elementary Education; Kathleen Lane, Newark, Delaware, Elementary Education; Nora Steele, Millsboro, Delaware, Elementary Education.

Row 2, left to right: Margaret Powers, Viola, Delaware, Elementary Education; Gertrude Redding, Wilmington, Delaware, Physical Education; Delores Hanks, Wilmington, Delaware, Elementary Education; Alice Maull, Lewes, Delaware, Sociology.

Row 3, left to right: Student Christian Association; Newspaper Staff, "The Hornet."

Row 4, left to right: Choir, Student Government Association.

Not pictured: Mrs. Edmonia Grider, Head of Department of Home Economics, Class Advisor.

Row 1, top to bottom: Football Team, Track Team, Evans at Work.

Scene of a Basketball game (D. S. C. versus D. C. Teachers College of Washington, D. C.).

Row 2, top to bottom: Basketball team; Baseball Team; Cheering Squad.

Row 1, top to bottom: Five athletes at ease; Watson, Spady and Mitchell; Scene from Hamlet; (Beverly DeYoung as Ophelia and James Scarborough as Hamlet).

Row 2, top to bottom: DSC Band, Beauty at DSC, (Row 1, McSears, Johnson, Wright, White, Benson, Hazzard, Marshall, Dean, Naylor; Row 2, Chandler, Henry, Sammons, Bishop and Harrell), Conwell Hall, (Men's Dormitory), New Multiple Purpose Building, Tubman Hall (Girls' dormitory).

Row 3, top to bottom: Rock Greene. After lunch get-together Fraternity probates, (Collins and Givens), Dorothea Towles.

ARNA BONTEMPS COLLEGE LIBRARY CULTURAL SERIES SPEAKER

With its presentation on Sunday, March 10, 1957 of Arna Bontemps, Librarian of Fisk University, the Delaware State College Library concluded its 1956-1957 Library Cultural Series. The program convened in the College Library at 5 p.m. He discussed "The Negro's Contribution Reconsidered".

Mr. Bontemps, a prolific and ex-authority on books for young people and has written extensively for this age group. He has contributed to leading professional and literary publications, has written two plays, and has authored more than a dozen books. These books, magazine articles, poems, and plays cover a wide range of subjects.

Outstanding among his writings are "Black Thunder", "Sad-Faced Boy", "Chariot in the Sky", and "Lonesome Boy" — books especially for young people; also, "Story of the Negro", "Father of the Blues", and "The Poetry of the Negro".

Arna Bontemps received his undergraduate training at Pacific Union College of California and his Master's degree from Chicago University. In addition, he is a recipient of Rosenwald and Guggenheim fellowships.

Mr. Bontemps has received wide recognition for his noteworthy contributions to literature. In 1956 he was recipient of the coveted Jane Addams Award for literature. He was recently honored by the American Library Association, having been selected as a judge in the area of Imaginative Literature for the A. L. A. Liberty and Justice Book Awards.

The Delaware State College Library through its Cultural Series has endeavored this school year to present to the public outstanding literary personalities. In November the Cultural Series speaker was J. Saunders Redding, renowned author and Professor of English at Hampton Institute. The January lecturer was Edwin Honig, outstanding poet and Briggs-Copeland Professor of English at Harvard University. In presenting the stimulating and provocative personality Arna Bontemps as its March speaker, the Delaware State College Library concluded its 1956-1957 Library Cultural Series on a high literary plane.

CAMPUS CHATTER

1. If you will come out of your shell to take a look at the world around you, Robert Poole, you will find that you have many admirers.
2. Chestene Billard and Freddie Coverdale are making a charming couple.
3. Congratulations to Vera White Viola McSears, and Vera Collins for teaching. They are juniors, you know.
4. Barbara Hazzard, your reddish brown noggin is very becoming to you.
5. James Starling is looking very promising these days, since Claudia Harrell has stepped into the picture.
6. This campus has been longing for more girls from the big cities. Now we have Joan Dean and Wilhemina Demby from the "City of Brotherly Love."
7. The men of Conwell Hall should remember that the walls have ears and there are no telephone booths.
8. Mabel Conaway, a second semester freshman, is making definite progress.
9. Frank Hollaway, try to make more rounds at the dances please.
10. Harriette Walker, you are striking some tough sounds and not only on the piano, either.
11. Thought you said you were moving on the campus when Conwell Hall was completed, James Moody? Well, it's finished.

12. Clarence Jones, you are looking fine as usual. When are you going to resume your old place?

13. Cut out the "Lord" and "Lady" titles, they don't fit the people. (M. L. & G. B.)

14. We have some very promising fraternity men and sorority women for the future, don't we?

15. James Moody seems to be doing all right for himself these time spring days.

16. It looks as though spring is really here. The couples are strolling again.

17. The paths that lead to dear old State College bridge are being heavily trod once more.

18. K. B. may be a newcomer, but she sure has found out where the telephone booth is.

BASEBALL

Delaware Hornets Defeat Lyndon College To Open 1957-58 Season

April 12 - The D. S. C. Hornets opened their 1957-58 baseball season by defeating Lyndon College of Vermont by a score of 10-4. Donald Evans (Wilmington, Delaware), known as "The Junk Pitcher," went the distance for Coach Bennie George's Hornets and limited the Lyndon College team to two hits.

D. S. C. Hornets Defeat Shaw University Bears 9-8

April 15 - The D. S. C. Hornets in the first game of their Southern tour defeated the Shaw University Bears 9-8. Wayne Puckham (Laurel, Delaware), a freshman, pitched a very impressive game for Coach Bennie George's Hornets for seven innings before giving way to relief pitcher, Donald Evans.

Hornets Sting Winston-Salem Rams 8-3

April 16 - The D. S. C. Hornets notched their third straight victory behind the pitching of big Carl Naylor (Washington, D. C.) by a score of 8-3. The Hornets were out-hit by the Rams 10-7, but the Rams made nine errors while the Hornets made only two.

Cornell Harvell and Robert Puckham led the Hornets' seven hit attack by collecting two hits a piece, while the Rams ten hit attack was led by Bratton and Ashley with three and two hits respectively.

Hornets Lose First To A & T Aggies 16-8

April 17 - The D. S. C. Hornets bowed to A & T Aggies by a score of 16-8. Donald Evans started for the Hornets but had to be relieved by Wayne Puckham and Freddie Coverdale, who both turned in good relief jobs for the Hornets.

The Hornets were out-hit by the Aggies 16-12; they also committed seven errors while the Aggies committed three.

The Hornets' twelve hit attack was led by Walter Greene, Clarence Jones, and Robert Puckham with two hits a piece, while Bryant and Rouse led the Aggies sixteen hit attack with seven between them, the latter getting three of the seven.

Hornets Sting Howard Bisons 7-4

April 25 - The D. S. C. Hornets notched their fourth victory in five games by defeating Howard University Bisons behind the pitching of Walt Greene (Washington, D. C.) by a score of 7-4.

The Hornets pounded Clarence Morrow for fourteen hits with John Pitts collecting three. Cornell Harvell, Kenneth Miles, Wilbert Miller, and Walter Greene each had two hits. The Bisons' six hit attack was led by Gregory with three hits, and Ford who collected two for the Bisons.

Hornets Bang Winston-Salem Rams 19-4

May 2 - The D. S. C. Hornets behind the splendid relief pitching of Donald Evans who relieved Carl Naylor, defeated Winston-Salem Rams 19-4 for their fifth win in six starts. Evans relieved Naylor in the fourth with the bases loaded, the score 4-3 in favor of the Hornets and no one out. He retired the side by striking out all three batters and allowing just one more run while his teammates collected fifteen runs for him.

Ken Miles broke out of his slump with two hits while Clyde Trotman contributed with a home run. Claude Studiavnt had two hits to lead the Rams who collected only five hits between Naylor and Evans.

Shaw Nips Hornets 14-12

May 3 - The Shaw University Bears handed D. S. C. Hornets their second setback in seven games by a score of 14-12. The Bears jumped on Walt Greene for eleven runs before Donald Evans came in to relieve him. A big factor in the Hornets' defeat was their committal of nine errors. The Bears committed only one.

Ken Miles collected three hits and Clarence Jones chipped in with two. Cornell Harvell and Walt Greene each hit a four bagger. James Hinton and William Wilder each collected three hits a piece in the Bears' twelve hit attack, while James Drake connected for a four bagger.

Hornets Sting Lincoln 5-4, 9-6

May 4 - The D. S. C. Hornets picked up their sixth and seventh victory in nine starts as they turned back Lincoln University in a double header 5-4, 9-6.

In the first game Coach Bennie George sent Freshman Wayne Puckham to the mound for the Hornets. Puckham turned in a fine performance as he went the distance for the Hornets. The score was tied 4-4, until John Pitts drove Walt Greene home with a single in the bottom of the seventh to break the tie. Greene, Trotman, and Pitts each collected two hits a piece for the Hornets, while Layayette and Smith had two hits a piece for Lincoln.

In the second game of the double header, Fred Coverdale went the distance for Coach Bennie George's Hornets and made it a clean sweep by beating Lincoln 9-6, allowing only five hits.

The Hornets ten hit attack was led by Cornell Harvell and Clarence Jones with three and two hits respectively, as each contributed a home run along with William Evans. Lincoln was led by B. Miles who collected two of the five hits given up by Coverdale. Eugene Puckham looked very impressive playing first base for the first time for the Hornets.

HAIL TO THE ATHLETES

Hail to the athletes is right and that's just what the Delaware State College did for its young heroes. Delaware State held a lovely banquet on the 24th of April to show her appreciation for a job well done. Present were members of every athletic team on the campus.

Also in our midst was a distinguished figure, who in his days of glory, gave breath-taking performances for thousands of people on the track and on the gridiron. He was none other than Mr. Claude "Buddy" Young, a former half-back of the Baltimore Orioles and at present is public relations man for Baltimore's team.

He delivered an emphatic speech on what measures and qualifications mean to a man when in competition with the world. I believe that his quotation stuck in the minds of those who were present. He said, "It's not the size of the man in the fight, but the size of the fight in the man". I believe that this was one of the most implicative inspirational speeches ever given at a banquet at Delaware State College.

Donald Blakey

SENIOR CLASS WILL

ALFRED MITCHELL — leaves to Charlie Brown a clear tongue to get something said in a minimum of time.

DONALD COKER — leaves his quietness and silence, but deep thinking to Clifford Riddick.

MARVA BOND — leaves to Patricia Blacknall, her daughter, success in completing her education and the future.

GERTRUDE REDDING — leaves to Alma Henry her excellent disposition and to Mr. Tisdale — all her affections to add to his many admirers.

HETTIE WRIGHT — leaves to James Evans the initiative to attend classes each day and on time so that he will make that "A" by going instead of sleeping and making a "B".

SUSIE PERKINS — leaves her ability to sing second soprano (always on key) to any girl in the choir who desires to have it.

ALICE MAULL — leaves to Esther Young her ability to keep accurate account of all students and guests in the Dining Hall.

ESSELEE MATTHEWS — leaves to Mary Ross her reducing plan.

KATHLEEN LANE — leaves her sleeping ability to DeLores Douglas and anyone else that has a hard time trying to sleep.

BARBARA IRENE LEWIS — leaves to Muriel Barbara Drakes her position as secretary in the Physical Education Department - Take Care Muriel!

GERTRUDE CHANDLER — leaves to Harriette Walker, the new Student Christian Association President, much success in carrying out an efficient S.C.A. program next year and her excess speed to next year's track team.

VIRGINIA PALMER — leaves to Iris Watson her ability to attend classes and programs punctually.

DELORES HANKS — leaves her ability to be punctual in getting to classes and all the knights of her court to DeLores Douglas.

NORA STEELE — leaves her feminine ways and quiet manners to Catherine Bolden.

HORTENSE PRIEST — leaves to her roommate Muriel Drakes her ability to be cool and calm and collected at all times "Ma." And leaves to her fellow Business Education students her ability to graduate from the Business Education Dept. on time.

CLAUDETTE BISHOP — leaves to Essie Davis the ability to relax with a novel at test time and leaves all her love to only one.

ALICE HOLLIS — leaves to the next fronts-getter on D.S.C. campus her wardrobe and winning personality.

LEO LeCOMPTE — leaves his bass voice to George Parker and James Starling, and his non-defeatist attitude to Baby Brother.

JAMES VESTAL — leaves to Harvey Murray his ability to go to class on time, and to Charlie Brown to be mean playing the middle guard on the football team.

HARRY JACKSON — leaves his height to Joseph Lewis, Charles Durden, and Clifford Noble in the hopes that it will help them get down to studying. To Carl Robinson he leaves one well preserved, unopened book, knowing that he will pass it on under the same tradition and condition that he received it.

CARROLL WATERS — leaves all the squares (which are many) the right to get hep.

WALTER GREENE — leaves his "four letter" athletic ability to some worthy freshman of next year's incoming class.

STEPHEN WRIGHT — leaves to Clifford Riddick an official begging license and to Brother Donald Evans to keep his cool.

WILLIAM MCCOY — leaves to George Beachum his first lesson plan. To Muriel Drakes one whistle and one long black shoe string for her practice teaching. To Mr. Richard Turner his ability to write poems. To Brother Charles Brown the title "Mr. Kappa." To Kenneth makes his ability to play first base like Gil Hodges.

SENIOR CLASS OBITUARY

Died: Claudette Bishop — trying to remove the freckles from her face.

William McCoy — trying to keep his mouth closed.

Marva Bond — trying to get a husband.

Stephen Wright — sticking his chest out too far.

James Vestal — milking cows.

Alice Maull — saying "Good morning".

Kathleen Lane — sleeping.

Walter Greene — sweeping the dining hall.

Gertrude Chandler — acting on stage.

Hettie Wright — trying to straighten her knees.

Hortense Priest — dieting.

Donald Coker — smoking.

Margaret Bowers — popping chewing gum.

Alice Hollis — trying?

DeLores Hanks — saying "I'm leaving you".

Nora Steele — getting fat.

Alfred Mitchell — trying to avoid being run over by a farm tractor.

William Morris — being Mutt.

Carroll Waters — trying to compose a song.

Gertrude Redding — perfecting her walk.

Virginia Palmer — telling jokes.

Barbara Harrell — sleeping.

Barbara Lewis — trying to hit high "C" on her trumpet.

Harry Jackson — trying to change his middle name.

Leo LeCompte — arguing.

Esselee Matthews — trying to be the perfect minister's wife.

Albert Smith — grinning.

Walter DeYoung — debating.

Susie Perkins — reading Shakespeare.

GILMERE JONES JOINS BUSINESS STAFF

Joining our business staff recently was Miss Gilmere M. Jones, a graduate of Hampton Institute in 1953. She attended the Central High School in Louisville, Kentucky and graduated with highest honor. Her major at Hampton was accounting, and she is now the assistant to the business manager at Delaware State College.

While in college, Miss Jones became a member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, president of the Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society, and a member of the Phyllis Wheatley Literary Society. She was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

During the summers of 1949-52, she was employed as secretary in the office of the Interracial Fellowship of Greater New York. While in school she worked as a typist for three years and in her senior year, she worked in the business office as an Accounts Payable Clerk. For nearly two years, Miss Jones was employed at Fort Eustis in the finance and accounting office.

Her hobbies are reading novels, record collecting, and tennis.

OLIN CURRY GIVES 35 YEARS TO DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE

Olin Curry, who came to Delaware State College in 1922, has contributed 35 years of service to Delaware State College. At first, he held the position of a farm hand. Later, he was transferred to the position of a janitor, then a gardener, and finally to his present position as a kitchen staff worker.

Mr. Curry feels that his years of service have been delightful ones, and remembers several humorous incidents.

ENSIGN THOMAS C. GROCE
Class Of '56 Notes

Thomas C. Groce, a 1956 graduate of D. S. C., was among 970 new officers of the 29th class of the U. S. Navy's Officer Candidate School which was graduated December 14, 1956 aboard the Newport Rhode Island Naval Station Vice Admiral Charles Wellborn, Jr., Commander, Second Fleet, was guest speaker and also presented certificates of completion to the honor graduates.

The course at the Officer Candidates School was a rigorous eighteen weeks in which the students, all with college degrees except a few former outstanding fleet personnel not only became proficient in military drill and ways, but also studied navigation, engine engineering, seamanship, naval weapons military justice and other naval subjects. Having completed the "pressure course", the graduates were well prepared for their duty in the fleet and shore establishment of the Navy, to which they have reported.

577 of the class were given shipboard duty as their first assignment, 91 were assigned to Aviation Ground billets, and 179 were given engineering and staff corps duties. The remaining 123 new officers were ordered to special programs such as underwater demolition, salvage, naval intelligence, and explosive ordnance disposal.

ISAIAH GROSS - Business Manager at Krause School in Delaware.
RICHARD "DICKIE" WRIGHT - Baseball coach and faculty member at Louis L. Redding High in Middletown, Delaware.

ANTHONY E. BELCHER - Junior accountant with the Police Department of New York City and a member of the firm of Fitzgerald & Belcher, Accountants, Auditors, and Tax Consultants in Brooklyn, New York.

HELEN BENSON - Elementary Education teacher in Lusby, Md.
DELORES PETERS - Teaching at Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School Laurel, Delaware.

LEONARD HIGGINS - Teaching at Henry High School in Dover, Delaware.

CLARENCE HARRIS - Physical Education Director at the Walnut Street Y. M. C. A. in Wilmington, Delaware.

ELVIRA WILSON HARRIS - Housewife.

JAMES MAULL - High School teacher in Denton, Maryland.

JEROME DAVIS - In service.
MURDOCK SHOFIELD - In service.

CLARK GLENN - Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Air Force.

MACKLIN HARMON - High school teacher in Baltimore, Maryland.

BERTHA TURNER MORRIS - housewife.

JAMES MEADE - Employed at the Dover Air Base.

RONALD LeCOMPTE Farm Supervisor in Chester Pennsylvania area
JEAN WILSON Secretary to the Dean-Registrar of Delaware State College.

ROLAND HENRY Supervisor of the Alcoholic Ward, Governor Bacon's Health Center in Delaware.

D. S. C. STUDENTS HEAR ERNEST GROSS, FORMER ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE

Ernest Gross, former Assistant Secretary of State and United States Deputy Representative to the United Nations, delivered the keynote address Saturday, March 9, at the Eleventh Annual Inter-collegiate Conference sponsored by the Barnard College Political Council. The all-day conference, American Foreign Policy: New Trends and New Problems, was held in Barnard Hall, Broadway and 117 Street.

Over 130 delegates from 37 eastern colleges and universities joined Barnard undergraduates to hear the keynote address at 11:15 a.m. Professor Thomas Peardon, dean of the Barnard faculty, introduced Mr. Gross, following a welcome address to the delegates.

American Foreign Policy in Relation to the Great Powers" was considered at three panel sessions from 11:00 to 12:15. The panels were as follows: Western Europe and NATO, moderated by Joseph C. Harsch, Washington correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor; "The Soviet Union and her Satellites," moderated by Dr. Paul Ziner, assistant professor of government at Columbia University, and "Communist China and the Far East," moderated by Professor Nathaniel Pfeffer of Columbia's School of International Relations.

The afternoon session, American Foreign Policy in Relation to the New Nations, began at 2:00 p.m., following a luncheon for the Henderson, of the Council on Foreign Relations moderated a panel on Southeast Asia. The other two afternoon panels were: "The Middle East" and South America and Africa.

A plenary session was held at 3:30 p.m. This was followed by a the New York consulates of foreign governments were invited to attend all sessions.

The Political Council at Barnard is a non-partisan organization established by the Undergraduate Association to encourage an inter-and international events. Dr. Ree Albrecht-Carrie, executive officer of the Barnard history department, and Dean Peardon were the faculty advisors to the conference this year. Mrs. Barbara Reider Stevelman was the conference chairman. She was assisted by Miss Vivian Grunder, chairman of Political Council, and other Barnard students.

Colleges and universities that participated in the conference included:

CONNECTICUT

Middletown—Wesleyan University

DELAWARE

Dover—Delaware State College

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

American University
Georgetown University
Howard University
Trinity College

MARYLAND

Baltimore—Johns Hopkins University

MASSACHUSETTS

Boston—Northeastern University,
Simmons College, Wheelock College

Cambridge—Lesley College, Radcliffe College

Newton—Newton College of the Sacred Heart

Northampton—Smith College

South Hadley—Mount Holyoke College

Williamstown—Williams College

NEW HAMPSHIRE

New London—Colby Junior College

NEW JERSEY

Hackettstown—Centenary College for Women

Long Branch—Monmouth College

NEW YORK

Bronxville—Concordia College Institute

Endicott—Harpur College

Middletown—Orange County Community College

New York City

Brooklyn—Long Island University

Manhattan—Barnard College

Manhattan—Manhattan College

Rochester—Nazareth College

Saratoga Springs—Skidmore College

West Point—United States Military Academy

White Plains—Good Counsel College

PENNSYLVANIA

Bryn Mawr—Bryn Mawr College

Chambersburg—Wilson College

Kutztown—Kutztown State Teachers College

Lincoln University—Lincoln University

Scranton—Marywood College

VERMONT

Bennington—Bennington College

Poultney—Green Mountain Junior College

Delaware State College students in attendance were: James Evans, Vice President of Student Government Association, Junior, Trento, N.J.; Donald Coker, Senior, Dover, Delaware; Walter Knox, Junior, Bronx, N.Y.; Parthenia Downing, Sophomore, Milton, Delaware; and Shirley Lowan Crerar, Freshman, Dover, Delaware.

FAREWELL FROM THE EDITOR

The time has come for me to say farewell to "The Hornet Staff." It has been a pleasure working with you.

The cooperation that "The Hornet Staff" possesses is to be commended. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Price, the faculty advisor of "The Hornet", for his splendid guidance in making "The Hornet" a success this year.

I leave "The Hornet" physically, but it will always be a part of my memories when I think of D. S. C.

Keep up the good work staff and continue to produce a fine college newspaper.

Hortense Priest
Editor-in-Chief

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE CAREER CONFERENCE YIELDS MUCH UNDERSTANDING

The career conference held at Delaware State College on March 1 and 2, was heralded as the largest in size and achievement of all conferences ever held here.

The conference opened on Friday night with a keynote address "Job Rewards for the Graduate" by Julius Thomas, director, Industrial Relations Department, National Urban League, New York City. In his speech to the students of Delaware State College Mr. Thomas said, "In another few years, many of the job ideals that we have looked upon as out of bounds will be thrown open to our race. Only you can make the decision as to whether you can compete."

The topic discussed early Saturday morning was Automation and Its Challenge to College Graduates. L. A. Wetlauffer, assistant manager, Personnel Division, Durrant Co., Wilmington, Delaware, said, "Science is the father of automation. What has been happening is that we have been pulling ourselves by the root sticks. Scientific developments form new products, and we have to plan automation to make it available to us. As automation takes place, the scientist is led in doing his job faster. . . I think one of the greatest challenges to the educated person today is along the line of what we are going to do with that leisure time. That is certainly a matter in the field of human relations."

Speaking on the same subject, Dr. Margaret Seitz of the Delaware Unemployment Compensation Commission said, "Automation is when the machines will take over man's nervous reaction and, in some instances, his brains. . . It is going to be left up to the college graduate to take the lead in human relations." Clarence Montgomery of the same agency added, "The jobs taken by automation will provide for those in that industry who are qualified when automation takes place. As one field increases, another field will also increase." Worth Tracy, employee relations manager, Continental Diamond Fibre Division, Budd Co., Wilmington, Delaware, said, "I believe human relationship is the one thing that will not lend itself to automation. We as human beings must handle the turn over to the machines."

At the discussion "Opportunities and Teaching in Related Areas for Elementary Education, Secondary Education, Health and Physical Education, and Social Science Majors" John S. Charlton, director of Child Development and Guidance Services, State Department of Public Instruction, Dover, Delaware, said, "Teaching itself is the most rewarding opportunity. If you don't like people, stay out. If you can't get along with people, stay out. There are more opportunities in this field than any other field."

Specific discussions for all majors continued Saturday afternoon. Acting as chairmen for these discussions were members of the Delaware State College faculty. A discussion concerning the National Guard was conducted by Captain Frank Matthewson of the Delaware National Guard.

Other Outstanding Consultants

Other consultants who made contributions were: Wendel P. Alston and James S. Avery, Public Relations Representatives, Esso Standard Oil Company, New York City; Barbara Beaman, Delaware Library Association, Wilmington, Delaware; George Chartrand, Delaware Flying-A-Refinery, Delaware City, Delaware; George Crawford, State Department of Education, State of Maryland; Dorcas Cheavens, DuPont Technical Library, Wilmington, Delaware; Dr. Donald J. Dittenbough, State Department of Education, Dover, Delaware; Howard Jackson, chief, Examining Division, Third U. S. Civil Service Region, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Samuel Whiteman, director, School Division, R. Mars Contract Furniture Co., Washington, D. C.; Dr. Charles M. Ulrich, assistant to the executive director, Milk Industry Foundation, Washington, D. C.; Rowena Johnston, Department of Home Economics, Howard University, Washington, D. C. and George Mueller, State Department of Public Welfare, Dover, Delaware. Chairman of the entire conference was Dr. William E. Johnston, Jr., director of student personnel at Delaware State College.

John Robert Price
Publicity

WHEN COLLEGE OPENS NEXT FALL, WILL YOU BE THERE? COLLEGES ARE CROWDED

More people are attending college today than ever before! !

MAKE SURE YOU ENTER

Start Enrollment Proceedings NOW

Study at Delaware State College

FULLY ACCREDITED BY THE MIDDLE STATES
ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES
AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS

New Dormitories and Gymnasium With Swimming Pool

A Coed School with majors and minors in the following fields:

English	Music Education
Economics	Secondary Education
Biology	Health and Physical Education
Business Administration	Agriculture
Elementary Education	Agricultural Education
History	Business Education
Sociology	Secretarial Science
Mathematics	Home Economics
Chemistry	Home Economics Education

Pre-Professional Courses also available in the following fields:

Medicine	Public Health	Nursing
Dentistry	Law	Veterinary Science

Write to the following for an application blank TODAY:

Registrar

Delaware State College
Dover, Delaware

Applications Now Being Accepted

THE HORNET

"THE STINGING TRUTH"

VOL. XIII, NO. III

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DELAWARE

OCTOBER 20, 1957

Governor Boggs To Give Remarks At Dedication Of Memorial Hall

DEDICATORY EXERCISES

His Excellency, J. Caleb Boggs, Governor of the State of Delaware, will give remarks at the dedicatory exercises of Memorial Hall on Sunday, October 20, 1957.

The dedicatory exercises which will commence at 2:30 p.m. will have on the program leading figures who have been instrumental in helping Delaware State College move forward. Presiding over the program will be The Honorable John N. McDowell, Secretary of the State of Delaware and president of the Board of Trustees of Delaware State College. Other persons making remarks include Dr. Jerome H. Holland, president of Delaware State College; Mrs. LaVerne Thomasson, chairman, Parents' Day Committee; Mr. James C. Hardcastle, president, Delaware State College National Alumni Association; Dr. George E. Kent, dean of Delaware State College; and Mr. Donald Blakey, president, Student Council.

Mr. W. Ellis Preston, architect who designed the building, will present it. Invocation and benediction will be by the Rev. William E. Marks, pastor, Whatcoat Methodist Church in Dover, Delaware.

OUR PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Thirty-Third Annual Parents' Day Program at Delaware State College has a special meaning to the entire Delaware State College Family. While the college has always emphasized Parents' Day because of its many educational benefits, this year, the college dedicates Memorial Hall as a part of the Parents' Day Program. It gives the college an opportunity to show the Parents the remarkable progress being made on behalf of the education of their children.

Memorial Hall is named in memorial to those members of the Delaware State College Family who have given their lives in the service of their country. It symbolizes the great physical sacrifice made by this group of citizens. It embodies a spiritual and moral responsibility on the part of those of us associated with Delaware State College, as to our obligations and responsibilities in our educational pursuits. The sacrifice made by the members of the family should serve as a guide in the progressive development of Delaware State College.

With the dedication of Memorial Hall, the college completes the first phase of its capital improvement program. The funds for the program were made possible by the positive action of the General Assembly and the Governor of the State of Delaware. The college is greatly indebted to this segment of the citizenry who have demonstrated a belief in higher education and the welfare of the youth of the State of Delaware. While the completion of the first phase of the building program is a noteworthy accomplishment, the college is now preparing to enter the second phase of its developmental program. Thus, within the next two years, the college's physical facilities should reach a level whereby the educational program being undertaken will be adequately supported with the necessary physical resources.

I know that you as parents are proud of this record. The Delaware State College Family is happy to have this opportunity to serve your children. The entire citizenry of Delaware fully realizes that the future of Delaware rests in the hands of your children. The college needs your assistance and cooperation in preparing our young people for citizenship.

Dr. Jerome H. Holland
President,
Delaware State College

PROMINENT PERSONS JOIN D. S. C. FACULTY

MR. RANSOM

First on the list of new faculty members is Mr. William Richard Ransom, who is a visiting professor of mathematics. Mr. Ransom, a native of Chicago, attended Goddard Seminary for four years, Harvard Graduate School in 1903, and Tufts College, where he received a B.A. and M.A. degree.

Mr. Ransom has taught at Cascadilla School, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, Beaver County Day School, Harvard, Dearborn Observatory, and Tufts College. Most interesting is the fact that he taught at Tufts College for thirty years.

In addition, he was secretary of Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity for twenty-three years and a member of Sigma Xi, an honor society.

Forty-five of Mr. Ransom's articles have appeared in mathematical magazines since 1944.

Nevertheless, Mr. Ransom has managed to squeeze a few leisure moments into his busy life. These moments are spent creating all sorts of objects by manipulating paper and string.

DR. KURITZ

Joining our faculty recently was Dr. Kuritz from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Dr. Kuritz, associate professor of history, obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from Wisconsin State Teachers College and the degrees -- Master of Arts and Doctorate of Philosophy -- from Columbia University.

Dr. Kuritz has previously taught four years in City College in New York City and two years in Richman High School, also in New York City.

He is a member of the American Historical Association and the Mississippi Valley Historical Association. With him on the campus are his wife and six months old son. Dr. Kuritz's hobbies are tennis, swimming and chess.

DR. YATRON

Dr. Michael Yatron, one of the new members of the D.S.C. faculty, was born and reared in Reading, Pennsylvania. Thereafter he entered the Kutztown State Teachers College in Kutztown, Pennsylvania wherein he received a B. S. degree. Later Dr. Yatron secured admittance into Harvard University whereupon he proceeded to study economics. While studying at Harvard, however, he was drafted into the U.S. Army for two years. Upon being discharged he elected to study English at the University of California. Immediately after leaving the University of California, he ventured to such countries as England, France, and Greece. When he returned from abroad, Dr. Yatron attended Temple University where he received both his Master of Science and Doctorate degrees.

Upon receiving these two degrees, Dr. Yatron then taught in two colleges (College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts in Puerto Rico and the University of Puerto Rico) and two public schools, one of which was a junior high school and the other a senior high. His appointment here as assistant professor of English and humanities is his third teaching job in a college.

In addition, Dr. Yatron has written two novels, "Sappho's Islands" and the "Last Romantic." These novels are not yet published; however, Dr. Yatron strongly believes they eventually will be. In the light of Dr. Yatron's busy day, it appears almost impossible for him to have time to play chess, his favorite game. Nevertheless, he has played in several international tournaments. He also finds time to spend with his wife and his twin boys.

MRS. INEZ ALDRICH

The newly created experimental Kindergarten and Nursery is under the supervision of Mrs. Inez Letitia Aldrich of New York City.

Besides holding the position of supervisor of the school, Mrs. Aldrich is also a part-time instructor in the department of Home Economics.

Mrs. Aldrich attended James Monroe High School in the Bronx, New York. She holds a B. S. degree in Home Economics from Morgan State College, Baltimore, Maryland, and a M. A. degree from the Teachers College of Columbia University, New York.

For six years, she was an accountant at Morgan State College. Mrs. Aldrich also has taught in the Douglass Evening High School, Baltimore, Maryland, and was a Home Economics Consultant of the Philadelphia Board of Education.

Music, dancing, art, fishing, traveling, sewing, interior decorating, and working with children are all part of Mrs. Aldrich's many hobbies.

Mrs. Aldrich holds memberships in the following organizations: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, The National College of Women's Relations, and a former member of the Crime Prevention Association of Philadelphia.

PARENTS' DAY

Schedule of Events

10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. - Registration, Tubman Hall and Conwell Hall

11:00 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. - Inspection Tour of Conwell Hall

11:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon - Inspection Tour of Harriet Tubman Hall

12:00 noon - 12:30 p.m. - Inspection Tour of Library and other Campus Buildings

12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. - Dinner-Conrad Hall Dining Room.

2:30 p.m. - 3:45 p.m. - Dedication of Memorial Hall

4:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. - Inspection Tour of Memorial Hall

4:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. - Reception for Students, Parents, Alumni and Friends-Conrad Hall Dining Room

MISS LOUISE M.E. NIXON

Miss Louise M. E. Nixon from Hertford, North Carolina joined our college family as assistant professor of mathematics after having held the same position at the Agricultural and Technical College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

She taught mathematics on a public school level at the James B. Dudley High School in Greensboro, North Carolina and the Willis Hare High School in Pendleton, North Carolina.

Miss Nixon received a Bachelor of Science degree at the Agricultural and Technical College of North Carolina and a Master of Arts degree at the New York University in 1951.

Among the organizations to which she belongs are the Beta Kappa Chi Scientific Society, the Alpha Kappa Mu Honorary Society, the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics and the A.M.E. Zion Church.

For entertainment Miss Nixon likes to play cards, to crochet, to read, to dance, and to work in the Young Women's Christian Association.

CLASS OF 1961

THE HORNET STAFF

Editor-in-Chief ... Parthenia Downing
 Associate Editor ... Stanford Bratton
 Assistant Editor ... Leola Francis
 Sports Editor ... Donald Blakey
 Managing Editor ... Shirley Benson
 Fashion Editor ... Olivia Tue Smith
 Circulation Managers ... Margaret Lewis and Janette Callaway
 Production Manager ... Alma Henry
 Typist ... Wilhelmenia Demby
 Reporters ... Thomas Smith, Delbert LeCompte, Edith Faulk, Ruth Neal, Claudia Harrell, Kenneth Gallimore, Sandra Walker, Geraldine Johnson, Ralph Harigan, Oliver Casson, Daniel Miller and James Pleasant.
 Faculty Advisor ... John Robert Price

Published Periodically

MR. WOODWARD....

Mr. Richard W. Woodward, Jr., comes to us from Atlanta, Georgia, by the way of Washington, D.C., and is an instructor in history and geography.

Mr. Woodward obtained his A.B. degree from Morehouse College in Georgia, and his M.A. Degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. He has also done work towards his doctorate degree at Catholic University.

For a number of years and prior to coming to D.S.C., Mr. Woodward worked for the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. Accompanying him to our campus and his residence at Lore Hall is his charming wife. Mr. Woodward, a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, spends his spare time with his extensive collection of records—which happens to be his hobby.

MRS. CUYJET

Contributing to the field of arts at D.S.C. this school year is Mrs. Marion Cuyjet, dance instructor.

Mrs. Cuyjet began her dance training at the age of 15 at the Essie Marie Studio. She later studied under Thomas Cannon and Robert Wilson of the former Little Field Ballet; at the William Sena Studio of La Scala fame, and at the Katherine Dunham School of Cultural Arts in New York City. In preparation for her teaching career, this training was supplemented by training in kinaesthetics for pre-school tots, designed for body, rhythmic and socializing influence with Nancy Lynch.

Combining marriage with her career, Mrs. Cuyjet has two children. Her husband, who is her business manager, helped her in the founding of the Judimar School of Dance.

Since her aspiration now is to be a great ballet teacher, Mrs. Cuyjet hopes to preserve the continuity of her training through her students. Her greatest ambition is to help develop and send forth from Judimar a Negro student to the American School of Ballet. She has been promised that such a student, a youth of proven interest and merit, will be accepted by that great fraternity of dancers.

CAMPUS FASHIONS

College girls once had a problem selecting a wardrobe that would make them comfortable, neat, and attractive. Today, skirts, blouses, sweaters, co-ordinating separates, and unfitted sheaths have solved this problem for the average co-ed. These types of clothing provide neatness and comfort to girls whether they are in the classroom, loafing around the dormitory or attending sport events.

College shops in Dover and the surrounding area are featuring the "slim-look" for campus wear. Pants, without pleats and skirts worn without bouffant petticoats are among many of their popular selections.

Car coats still remain as a favorite of the college students.

Before buying your clothing for school this fall, I am sure you asked yourself many times, "What do I need to bring my wardrobe up to date?" Many of you have been able to answer this question and many of you still remain undecided. Let's look closely at a few styles that have become a hit with many girls at Delaware State College.

First there is the unfitted sheath. This style dress is made of crepes and wool jerseys (most popular fabrics this fall) that fall from the shoulders to the hem in a single, soft sweep. It is beltless; the waistline merely suggested not defined. Most interest is centered at the hemline, which is a slit overlapped or pleated for easy walking.

Another interesting style for campus wear is the hipbone beltline dress which, this fall, appears more prominently in suits. Half-belts are introduced either fore or aft: Hipbone length jackets are loose, semi-fitted or over bloused. One of the prettiest of these jackets is semi-fitted in front and has a straight stand-away back. I have noticed two or three girls on the campus wearing this style jacket.

And of course there is the old and favorite slim, straight "easy skirt." Pleats are leading the field this fall with a new, deep, filled-in slit. This feature gives an effect of an overskirt, vying for first-in-fashion honors.

In conclusion, I would like to mention an increasing popularity in the neckline of blouses. They are no longer tight and restraining, but cut away from the neck giving it a long-slender look. Often blouses of this style are worn with a casual chiffon scarf or masses of colorful beads or a small fur ascot.

Girls, what do you think of the pointed-toe shoes? This is another exquisite style introduced this fall coming directly from Paris. STUNNING is the word that will do it justice. If you do not have a pair, why not drop by Emmanuels or Vogue in Dover and purchase a pair? This will make a lovely addition to your shoe wardrobe. They will go with your unfitted sheath or hipbone beltline dress beautifully.

Olivia B. Smith
 Fashion Editor

APPROPRIATE
ATTIRE FOR MEN

College men all over this country set the style for men in all walks of life. Fellow collegians, are you merely dressed, or are you correctly attired?

Today, fashion is not the key to being correctly attired. It's the appropriateness of the garment that counts most. For example, a single breasted blue suit with a white button-down or tab collar shirt, black shoes, blue socks, and a "Slim Jim" blue or white tie is the ideal outfit to wear at most of the college functions; whereas, a green suit would be entirely out of place at a semi-formal dance although it might be in good taste in class.

Even people in show business follow this idea of appropriateness very closely. During the latter part of July, I met Sammy Davis, Jr., in a large department store in downtown New York. He was well attired in a blue wash and wear three buttoned suit with a light blue shirt and white slim slick tie.

Nevertheless, for the fellows who choose to add variety to their wardrobe, I suggest a good brown Harris tweed sport jacket, a couple pair of slacks, some khaki pants, and a few brightly colored sport shirts.

Walter Knox

NEW GRADUATE AWARD DIRECTORY...

To answer the needs of educators, The Advancement and Placement Institute announces publication of their first annual WORLD-WIDE GRADUATE AWARD DIRECTORY. This new Directory has been prepared as an aid for American teachers, administrators, scientists and social scientists who wish to subsidize the continuation of their education to obtain their master's or doctorate degrees or to do post-doctorate or independent research.

The award guide includes information about the field of study, the duration of the awards, the amount of stipends, the number available, where the awards are tenable, the specific conditions and to whom and when to apply.

Over 360 Universities and Foundations in 45 states and 30 foreign countries have cooperated by submitting information about their awards which range in amount from $150 to $10,000.

The Directory covers a very wide geographical range from research in the Arctic to study in Ceylon. It includes new types of educational programs, such as educational internships and student deanships, as well as assistantships, graduate scholarship and fellowships.

The Directory includes awards in the Arts, Business, Education, Health and Physical Education, Home Economics, Industrial Arts, the Languages, Library Service, Mathematics, Psychology, Recreation, the field of Special Education, Speech, Social Casework and Groupwork, Vocational Education as well as all the various fields of Teacher Education and the Sciences.

The Graduate Award Directory will be the first guide devoted entirely to advanced graduate opportunities available to educators of the United States. It fills a specific need for an up-to-date central reference source of graduate awards.

This directory is the result of several years of research by the staff of THE ADVANCEMENT AND PLACEMENT INSTITUTE, a non-commercial professional information and advisory service for the field of education since 1952.

Copies may be examined at Graduate Schools, University Placement or Dean's offices, Public and College Libraries, or may be ordered from The Institute at Brooklyn 22, New York for $2.00 a copy.

BAND OUTLOOK

The Delaware State College Band, under the direction of Mr. Thomas Griffin, is looking forward to a very promising year. With the addition of several new members, the D.S.C. Band now has the potentiality of creating a very interesting and rewarding program which would add to the cultural life of the campus.

For the school year 1957-58, the band proposes to initiate a variety of activities. Among them are: public appearances, the organization of a marching band and eventually a College dance band. In addition to these activities, there will be an award system based upon service to the band and satisfactory attendance of its members.

Members of the band are Joan Dean -- Cymbals; Ernestine Johnson and Allen Winfield -- Snare Drums; Natalie Crowder -- Bells; George Miller -- Bass Drum; Eugene Kenney, Ronald Anderson and Oliver Casson -- Trumpets; Norman Bayard -- Trombone; Donald Husser -- Baritone; Beatrice Hardgraves, Walter Moody, Kenneth Chandler, Floyd Van Kiper -- Clarinets; Wendell Phillips, Joseph Royal and Henry White -- Saxophone.

In view of these speculations, the band promises to be one of the finest and most entertaining there has ever been on Delaware State's Campus.

FULBRIGHT SCHOLARSHIPS...

Competition for Fulbright and Buenos Aires Convention scholarships for graduate study abroad for 1958-59 will close November 1, it was announced by Kenneth Holland, President of the Institute of International Education.

Fulbright awards for pre-doctoral study and research in Europe, Latin America and Asia cover transportation, tuition, books and maintenance for one academic year. The Buenos Aires Convention scholarships provide transportation from the U.S. government and maintenance from the government of the host country.

Eligibility requirements for these foreign study fellowships are United States citizenship, a college degree or its equivalent by the time the award will be used, knowledge of the language of the country of application sufficient to carry on the proposed study, and good health. Preference is given to applicants not more than 35 years of age.

Countries where U.S. graduate students may study under the Fulbright Act are Australia, Austria, Belgium, Burma, Chile, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, the Philippines, and the United Kingdom. In the Asian countries -- Burma, India, Japan and the Philippines, as well as in Greece, only a limited number of grants is available, and mature graduate candidates are preferred.

Countries participating in the Buenos Aires Convention Program are Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru and Venezuela.

Applicants enrolled at academic institutions must abide by the submission deadlines established by their respective Fulbright advisers.

Further information about these awards and application blanks are available in the offices of Fulbright advisers on college and university campuses.

THE BUILDING PROGRAM
AS SEEN BY THE STUDENT COUNCIL

On behalf of the student government, I whole heartedly welcome the parents and friends of our College family. To those of you who are here for the first time, I am sure that you will be pleased with what you will find. We, the College family, are proud of our growing institution.

Those of you who have been here before will find a few new attractive additions have been made on our campus. The last time you toured the campus, only the construction of the men's dormitory was under way. Now, we have added another facility to our physical plant.

It is a multiple purpose building which has been named "Memorial Hall". In this building is housed a gymnasium with all the necessary equipment required for first rate instruction, a swimming pool, numerous spacious class rooms, and audio-visual aid facilities. We are very proud of this structure, and I can assure that we will work hard to be deserving of it.

Being a physical education major, I am especially proud of this edifice. To us this building means that we have at hand the opportunity for the acquiring of first hand instruction. This new building is to us like the chemistry laboratory is to the chemist.

As you come to Delaware State College to visit your sons and daughters, you will undoubtedly see new and better physical structures built in dedication to the betterment of mankind. Our plans for the future are to progress and set the standards for other institutions of our size.

Donald Blakey
 President, Student Council

NEW HOME ECONOMICS COURSES

The Department of Home Economics has begun the year with ten majors. This semester we are enjoying Personal and Social Life, Family Relationship, Fundamental Foods, Nutrition, Household Equipment and Consumer Education courses. Any student may take these courses as electives.

The Consumer Education Course attempts to make one a more intelligent and discriminating consumer by pointing out ones part in the marketing system and the problems involved in selection, purchasing and care of personal selections. Family relations points up social and economic life regardless of the field in which he may do his life's work. The courses are enriched by field trips; demonstrations, consultations, visits to commercial establishments and by nationally known home economists.

THE PAST

Look at the past,
 And you will see,
 The essence of ourselves,
 You and me.

If you have been,
 Selfish, mean and wild,
 Like a child.

The past is a chest,
 Of memories sweet and bitter,
 Forget about them all,
 And your mind do not litter.

But use them as lessons,
 That you have been taught,
 To be the kind of person,
 That you ought.

Delbert Le Compte

BEAT
 ST. PAUL

WELCOME
 PARENTS

BEAT
 ST. PAUL

BEAT LINCOLN

THE HORNET

PICTORIAL SECTION

VOL. XIII, NO. III

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DELAWARE

OCTOBER 20, 1957

VALUE OF MEMORIAL HALL AND ALUMNI FIELD AS SEEN BY THE HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

The addition of the new Memorial Hall, along with the new Alumni Field and the tennis courts, makes the Physical Education and Athletic facilities a superb and functional laboratory for the students majoring in the field. Memorial Hall also presents an attractive invitation to retain or regain desirable physical status, in a healthful atmosphere, to the general student body.

The additions are attractively constructed, embodying the most functional and practical features to be found on campuses of more than twice our student enrollment. This simply means that the Delaware State College students have an advantage to be found on few campuses. Their opportunity to attempt a large variety of activities, in good sequence, are more extensive than could have been imagined a decade ago.

The members of the staff of the Department of Health and Physical Education and Athletics have an opportunity to teach a variety of skills and activities in a manner of which they had only dreamed. It is now possible for them to put into effect many of the desirable practices that lack of facilities has prevented in the past.

There is a most adequate main gymnasium that provides a fine basketball court, and seating space for two thousand spectators. This main gymnasium contains provision for dividing that area into two very adequate class spaces. This feature permits classes for young men and classes for young women to be conducted concurrently.

Marked off permanently are two volleyball courts, four badminton courts, two shuffleboard courts, and running across the main floor two basketball courts, suitable for practice or intramural games.

Off the main gymnasium floor is a small dance gymnasium, equipped with mirrors and practice bars for the teaching of the intricacies of the dance. In yet another gymnasium, off the main floor, there is gymnastic equipment, both movable and attached. This separation of function will permit an even wider scope of activities running at the same time. This area, located in the center and rear of the building, may, when large groups are expected, be converted into a stage.

There has been provided a most adequate locker and shower facility for class and recreation groups. Each student may have a locker in which gymnasium apparel may be kept. This feature alone enhances the possibility of departments function immeasurably.

Another fine feature to be found in Memorial Hall is the dormitory space for visiting teams. We, as many other colleges, have had to use make-shift quarters for athletic teams on campus to engage the Hornets. This is no longer necessary. Just off the dormitory space there is a small locker room, a lavatory room, and a shower room. Our student guides can now be proud of the area to which they show visiting squads.

By no means least attractive and desirable is the swimming pool that is a part of the imposing structure of Memorial Hall. This fine addition will provide excellent instructional facility, and many hours of recreation for the Delaware State College Family. This feature, desirable, and unique for a small campus, makes Memorial Hall an even more extraordinary building. Attractive color schemes throughout, and well appointed features, continue the pattern of functional and beautiful structure already established in the recent plant addition on the Delaware State College campus.

The departments of Health, Physical Education, and Athletics anticipate that the pride of the Delaware State College students will shine through in all of their campus life. We anticipate that there will be a new sharpness and interest in what is going on. Even now it has become evident. Delaware State College can find even another reason for taking her place proudly among that family of similar colleges dedicated to the advancing of educational processes that include all facets of student life.

We here feel that the college has taken a giant step forward, under the leadership of an understanding and appreciative administration. We are certain that without true educational awareness our many problems could not approach solution. Do not believe, however, that we are unaware of the tremendous responsibility attendant upon the occupancy and use of Memorial Hall. We recognize that we must be ever mindful of the new hazards, as well as the new-found privileges. We are dedicated to a proper awareness of both, as we make every effort to bring to the Delaware State College student all that Memorial Hall promises.

Dr. E. Preston Mitchell, III

W
E
L
C
O
M
E

A
L
U
M
N
I

MEMORIAL HALL

SWIMMING POOL

INTERIOR OF THE GYM — GYM CLASS UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MRS. LUCILLE FRANKLIN, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

MEMORIAL HALL FROM... THE STANDPOINT OF STUDENT PERSONNEL SERVICES

The Student Personnel Services is responsible for those out-of-class activities which affect the student body. Just as essential as a curriculum that meets the needs of all the students admitted to Delaware State College is a program of out-of-class activities that provides additional experiences basic to the social education and personal development of each student. The Student Personnel Staff is gratified with the facilities of Memorial Hall and we believe it will become the center of co-curriculum activities.

With few exceptions, students at American colleges devote themselves to three types of activity which are time and energy consuming:

the academic, the co-curriculum, and the personal. Co-curriculum activities are a part of the life and concern of a very large proportion of students. They make their contribution to the individual learning process and to the development or acquisitions of attitudes, appreciations, and kinds of behavior as well as of information and skills. They are a part of the complex of intellectual, social, and emotional factors at college which help to cause the individual to become what he becomes, and their impact upon his personality cannot easily be differentiated from the impact of his other experiences.

The personal value that can be obtained from participation in co-curriculum activities, are: to live happily to put oneself across in socially approved ways, to feel that one belongs, to believe in oneself to respect the sacredness of personality, to work at self-imposed tasks, to make normal, wholesome adjustments to the other sex, to acquire standards and ways of living that are conducive to good physical and mental health.

Delaware State College believes participation in team or individual sports is as beneficial for the average student as for the student of varsity calibre. Its intramural sports program, with the increased facilities of Memorial Hall, will embrace most of our student body. With facilities -- considered the best on the eastern shore -- for such activities as: basketball, swimming, tennis, handball, aesthetic and folk dancing, volleyball, badminton, gymnastics, and the like, a full program of physical and recreational activity is available to the entire student body.

Dr. W. E. Johnston, Jr.

THE ACADEMIC MEANING OF MEMORIAL HALL

Memorial Hall and its supporting facilities cost nearly three quarters of a million dollars. But their academic value depends upon our creative minds and is beyond the measure of dollars and cents.

Nine offices for instructors provide the privacy for individual instruction and counseling. Four rooms adaptable for small group conferences and seminars allow intimate contact between the minds of teacher and student. Two large classrooms and a military science and tactics room are for larger group meetings. Certainly, the flexible conditions afforded mean that we have what it takes to develop highly accomplished persons and citizens, once we put our minds to the task.

Other facilities have their part in enabling us to work for our ideal -- the sound mind in the sound body. The partitioned gymnasium, with its telescopic bleachers and fixed athletic equipment, permit the sexes to be instructed separately or together--whichever method happens to be the more efficient at a given time. A modern dance room, swimming pool, and four modern tennis courts further assure a well rounded program. These and other facilities, thus, guarantee the total student body the opportunity to acquire permanently the skills and understanding that fit in with the wise and productive use of leisure.

There it is. It's beautiful, this mass of mortar, brick, and steel, shaped for human needs by American architects, engineers, and mechanics.

Their creative work is done.

But the greater creation is yet to be and rests in our hands -- the use of Memorial Hall for the development of superior human beings.

That, too, should be beautiful and inspiring.

George Kent, Dean
Delaware State College

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF MEMORIAL HALL TO THE ALUMNI

To all Delaware State College alumni the dedication of Memorial Hall today is highly significant. Another one of those dream buildings envisioned years ago has become a reality. We are happy and proud to have this fine edifice named in commemoration of the alumni who gave their lives in service for our great nation. Memorial Hall is a perfect tribute to those alumni who have passed to their eternal reward, for in this hall as in the hearts of people for whom they served the nation, their memory is enshrined forever. May this building long be used to train young men and women to love and serve their fellowmen. May the training here received play its part in the promotion of national fitness and provide for the physical needs of generations of men and women.

We are truly grateful to all who generously gave much time, labor, skill, and treasure to make this edifice possible. The dedication of Memorial Hall reminds us who shared a rich intellectual experience as students that we continue in that experience as educated men and women and responsible trustees.

This is indeed a memorable occasion. It makes us very happy and proud to merit such honor. Our pride has 20-20 vision and our happiness is wholehearted, large and contagious. With a sense of devotion, pride, duty, and dedication we pledge to translate this effervescent spirit into solid loyalty and effective good works for beloved Alma Mater.

CLASSROOM IN MEMORIAL HALL — PROF. ERNEST TALBERT AND BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION MAJORS IN A CLASS IN MONEY AND BANKING

DELAWARE STATE STINGS... BLOOMSBURG, 13 - 0.

DOVER, DEL., Sept. 28 — Opening their season on a new field under a clear sky with Miss Delaware State College, Miss Vera White from Paris, Texas, presenting the game ball to captain Earl Chism of Washington, D.C., Delaware State College defeated Bloomsburg State Teachers College, 13 - 0, in a non-conference game. The win gives the Delaware State Hornets—defending co-champions of the C.I.A.A.—a winning streak of seven games and revenge over the last and only team to defeat them last season.

The game was played on an even basis throughout most of the first half with good clean hard tackling that resulted in many fumbles. Early in the game, tackle Frank Holloway from Atlanta, Ga., recovered a Bloomsburg fumble on Bloomsburg's 22 yard line for Delaware State. Delaware State penetrated to Bloomsburg's ½ yard line where Bloomsburg held and took over on downs. In the latter part of the first quarter, Stanley Covington from Neshaminy, Pa., got off a kick for Bloomsburg from his own 21 yard line that went out of bounds on Delaware State's 2 yard line, a distance of 77 yards. However, Delaware State punted out and a few plays later tackle and captain Earl Chism recovered a Bloomsburg fumble on Delaware's 38 yard line. Delaware State then moved to Bloomsburg's 37 yard line where Jack Chidester, a big 210 pound tackle from Perkioman Prep., recovered for Bloomsburg.

Late in the second quarter, quarterback Donald Blakey of Wilmington, Del., hit end Frank Pharr on a pass play that was good for 29 yards. Delaware State then moved to Bloomsburg's 3 yard line, but the half ended before they could score.

In the third quarter, Delaware State's guard, William Thompson from Washington, D. C., intercepted a short Bloomsburg pass thrown by John Oustrich of Taylor, Pa., on Bloomsburg's 32 yard line and ran into the end zone for a T.D. The attempted conversion was missed.

In the fourth quarter, Delaware State's fullback, Carl Naylor from Washington, D.C., recovered a fumble by Bloomsburg on his own 37. William Pinkney from Washington, D. C., then ran around left end for 34 yards to set up the second touchdown for the Delaware State Hornets which was climaxed by William Murray of Philadelphia, Pa., scoring from the 17 yard line on a power play up the middle. Carl Naylor converted to give Delaware State a 13-0 lead.

With fullback Carl Sweet from Athens, Pa., and halfback Edward Watts from Jenkintown, Pa., carrying for Bloomsburg, the Bloomsburg Huskies began to move, but they fumbled on their own 45 yard line where Delaware State recovered and held the ball until the game ended. Final score, Delaware State 13, Bloomsburg 0.

Scoring summary:

Bloomsburg	0	0	0	0
Delaware State	0	0	6	7

Delaware State Scoring:

Touchdowns: William Thompson (32, pass interception-run); William Murray (17, run). Conversion: Carl Naylor.

CAMPUS CHATTER

1. SO RARE - The Senior Class
2. LOVE IS STRANGE - Eugene Puckham.
3. IT'S NOT FOR ME TO SAY - Viola McSears
4. IVORY TOWER - Jim Evans
5. THAT OLD BLACK MAGIC - Carl Robinson
6. CREATION OF LOVE - Vera White and Earl Chism
7. I'm GOING TO SET RIGHT DOWN AND WRITE MYSELF A LETTER - Esther Young
8. I HAVE MIXED EMOTIONS - Edith Faulk
9. COME GO WITH ME - Brenda Tillman
10. BEYOND THE BLUE HORIZON - Kenneth Chandler
11. TIME ON MY HANDS - Pauline Brown
12. AIN'T MISBEHAVING - Victoria Brown
13. TIME AFTER TIME - Vera Collins
14. FOOLS RUSH IN - Freshman Class
15. THIS IS A FINE ROMANCE - Ann Holden and William Thompson
16. GOODY GOODY - Isaac Carter
17. GOING HOME - Naomi Mitchell
18. A TONE PARALLEL TO HARLEM - Clyde Trotman
19. MAKE YOURSELF COMFORTABLE - Oliver Casson
20. I'm IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE - Delores Swiggett
21. FULL MOON AND EMPTY ARMS - Bob Tisdale
22. SOME WHERE ALONG THE WAY - Marcia Loucks
23. PASSING STRANGERS - Willie Brown and E. P.
24. IF I COULD BE WITH YOU - Victor Greene
25. YOU'RE MY PERSONAL POSSESSION - Iris Watson
26. YOU GO TO MY HEAD - Roscoe Baker
27. SEND FOR ME - Tommie Anderson
28. NO OTHER LOVE HAVE I - John Biggins
29. IT'S ALL RIGHT WITH ME - Alma Henry
30. IT WAS THERE - Agnew Lockett
31. IT'S NOT FOR YOU TO SAY - Claudia Harrell and Marjorie Lewis

CRIPPLED D.S.C. BOWS TO HAMPTON, 6-0.

After 8 consecutive wins, the D. S. C. Hornets — minus eight regulars — saw their winning streak snapped by the Hampton Pirates. The Pirates received the opening kick-off and drove deep into D. S. C. territory only to be stopped short of pay dirt by strong defensive play led by William Thompson, Howard McKenzie, Bob by McKibbins and Marvin Williams. The Hornets were unable to get an offensive moving and Don Blakey kicked out of the hole. The first half ended in a scoreless tie.

The only score in the game came in the third quarter when the Pirate quarter-back pitched out to his halfback who skirted the D.S. C. right flank for a T.D. However, the conversion attempt failed.

With four minutes remaining to play in the final quarter, Dickie Roseboro succeeded in getting the only Hornet offensive clicking. He completed two passes to Bunny Miller which moved the Hornets from their own backyard into Pirate territory. The final gun ended this drive, and the Pirates triumphed 6 to 0.

FEDERAL SERVICE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION

To further improve its position in the competition for talented college people, the Federal Government is opening its Federal Service Entrance Examination this year to college juniors in addition to seniors, college graduates and others of equivalent experience, the Civil Service Commission announced today.

Also, job appointments, effective after graduation, may be offered the juniors if they pass the examination and their names become available on the lists of eligibles to be established. As in the past, such job offers may also be made to seniors.

The first Federal-Service Entrance Examination to be held since the change is scheduled for November 16, the Commission said. Subsequent examinations will be held in January, February, March, and May 1958. Applicants will have until October 31 to file for the November 16 written test, which will be given at approximately 1,000 examination points throughout the country.

The examination, first given two years ago, is designed to help fill the Government's yearly need for more young people of college-caliber who can be placed in jobs at the entrance level and who have the potential to develop into the top managers, technicians, and specialists of the future. Positions filled through the examination are in almost every kind of work. During fiscal year 1957, more than 7,500 job appointments in 175 different occupations were made of persons who passed the examination. The Commission estimates that during the next 12 months at least the same number of entrance-level jobs, at salaries ranging from $3,670 to $4,525 a year, will be filled from the FSEE lists of eligibles.

The Commission emphasized that Government needs for college-caliber people are increasing each year despite any overall reductions in the Federal work force that may occur at any one time. Although turnover in Government compares favorably with that of private industry, its effect on the large work force needed by modern government is such as to require that from 200,000 to 300,000 job appointments be made each year. In addition, the increasing complexity of many of the jobs to be performed is requiring that each year a greater number of them be filled by college-caliber people.

PROGRESSIVE JAZZ

Among the many articles brought to college by students all over the country this fall were high fidelity phonograph sets.

Progressive jazz, being quite popular among the college set, is the leader of the many categories of recorded music, and Delaware State College is following this trend. Collectors of progressive jazz around the D.S.C. campus stated that the most popular set was the Webcor H F with the Modern Jazz Quartet their most liked ensemble; Sarah Vaughn as their leading lady vocalist; and Dave Brubeck heading the list as outstanding musician.

Spokesman for the jazz cliché, Mr. Sidney Brown, in a chat with this reporter said "Progressive jazz is the most exciting music of our times." Although jazz is tops on most American campuses, there is still those who prefer rock and roll and the standard popular listings.

Most jazz fans on this campus belong to the Columbia Record Club and the Jazztone Society.

Kenneth Gallimore

GRADUATE RECORD EXAMINATIONS WILL BE ADMINISTERED AT FOUR NATIONWIDE SESSIONS DURING 1957-58

Princeton, N. J., September 13—The Graduate Record Examinations, required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year, Educational Testing Service has announced. During 1956-57 more than 12,000 students took the GRE in partial fulfillment of admission requirements of graduate schools which prescribed it.

This fall candidates may take the GRE on Saturday, November 16. In 1958, the dates are January 18, April 26, and July 12. ETS advises each applicant to inquire of the graduate school of his choice which of the examinations he should take and on which dates. Applicants for graduate school fellowships should ordinarily take the designated examinations in the fall administration.

The GRE tests offered in these nationwide programs include a test of general scholastic ability and advance level tests of achievement in sixteen different subject matter fields. According to ETS, candidates are permitted to take the Aptitude Test and, or one of the Advanced Tests.

A Bulletin of Information, (in which an application is inserted) provides details of registration and administration as well as sample questions and may be obtained from college advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey, or P.O. Box 27896, Los Angeles 27, California. A completed application must reach the ETS office at least fifteen days before the date of the administration for which the candidate is applying.

B
E
A
T
S
T.
A
U
G
U
S
T
I
N
E
S

B
E
A
T
M
A
R
Y
L
A
N
D
S
T
A
T
E

BEAT
SMITH

SPECIAL

Hornets Defeated King's College, 20-0

PLACEMENT OFFICE OPENS AT D.S.C.

During the spring of the 1956-57 school year a Placement Office at Delaware State College was initiated. The purpose of the Placement Office is to apprise and assist all graduates and former students in finding permanent employment. The Placement Office will also assist currently enrolled students in finding temporary employment during vacation periods particularly summer months.

From a recent survey it was revealed that the Placement Office aided in the placement of the following graduates:

Miss Susie Perkins, Teacher of Core and English, Mace's Lane High School, Cambridge, Maryland
Mrs. Claudette Bishop Evans, Public School System, Camden, New Jersey.

Mr. Walter De Young, Ladies Garment Workers Union, New York City.

Mr. Walter Green, Physical Education Teacher and Assistant Coach, Charlottesville, Virginia

Leo Le Compte, Special Education Teacher, Star Hoskins School, Chester, Pennsylvania.

Miss Barbara Lewis, Instructor of Physical Education, Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Alabama.

Miss Hortense Priest, Business Teacher and Secretary, William Henry High School, Dover, Dela.

Miss Gertrude Redding, Physical Education Teacher for Girls, St. Johnsville Central High School, St. Johnsville, New York.

Mrs. Nora Steele, Elementary Teacher, Millsboro, Delaware.

Mr. Carrol Waters, Music Teacher, Wallace High School, St. Andrews Parish, Charleston, S. C.

Mr. Wesley Bleen, Traveling Salesman, Atlanta Life Insurance Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Leonard Higgins, Mathematics, Camden, New Jersey.

James Wilkerson, Physical Education Teacher Junior High School, Hampton, Virginia.

Albert Smith, Line Coach, Howard University, Washington, D.C.

Walter Greene, Physical Education Teacher and Coach Jackson C. Burley High School, Charlottesville, Virginia.

William Coles, Physical Education and Social Adjustment Teacher, Douglass Junior High School, Washington, D. C.

Alice Hollis, Elementary School Teacher, Milford, Delaware

Sarah Moody, Substitute Teacher in Physical Education, William Henry High School, Dover, Delaware

The Placement Office invites all former students and graduates to register with the Placement Office if interested in being notified of possible employment. This service is free of charge.

LIBRARY TO HAVE ATOMIC EXHIBIT

The Delaware State College Library will have a very outstanding exhibit, "The Useful Atom", in the College Library commencing Sunday, October 20, and lasting until October 28.

The exhibit will be on loan from the American Museum of Atomic Energy, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and it has been displayed in many of the leading university, college, and public libraries throughout the country. Along with the library exhibit Dr. Stepan Benda, Associate Professor of Natural Sciences, will also exhibit materials that he has received from the United Nations and display work that he has done in radiation.

The College Library exhibit from the American Museum of Atomic Energy coupled with Dr. Benda's exhibition will be open to the general public as well as to the college community.

BRITAIN'S MARSHALL SCHOLARSHIP SCHEME: LISTS OPEN FOR NEXT YEAR'S AWARDS

U.S. college students can now apply for next year's Marshall Scholarship awards enabling them to study at a British University for two years. Applications must be in by October 31, 1957.

The Marshall Scholarship scheme was started in 1953 as a token of Britain's thanks for Marshall Aid.

Twelve scholarships are awarded every year. Any American student of either sex, married or single, may apply, but they must be under 28 on October 1, 1958 and have graduated from an American university.

Each award is worth ($1,540) a year. Passage is paid to and from the United Kingdom. Married men get an extra allowance.

Successful candidates are chosen for their character as well as scholastic attainments.

Four Regional Committees - the Eastern, Southern, Middle Western and Pacific - consider the applications first and would-be-winners should apply to the British Consul-General in one of the following cities:

Chicago (Mid-Western Region)
New York (Eastern Region)
New Orleans (Southern Region)
San Francisco (Pacific Region)

Each Regional Committee includes the Consul-General and four Americans distinguished in educational or public life. It selects six names from the applications and forwards them to the British Embassy in Washington.

At the Embassy the names are re-examined by a 7-member Advisory Council headed by the British Ambassador. Twelve names are selected - three from each Region - and sent to the United Kingdom for review and approval by a commission of leading British educators and businessmen set up to administer the Trust. Lord Coleraine is chairman of the commission.

Names of the winners are announced in Washington each April for the following October.

So far 48 Americans have benefited from the scheme.

All the Marshall scholars who took their final degree examinations this summer have been successful and some of them have done especially well. This is the list:

Jane L. Baltzell (1955); B. A. Cambridge (Second Class, first division of Part II of the English Tripos).

R. O. Berdahl (1955): M.Sc. (Econ.) London (with mark of Distinction).

S. W. Booth (1955): B.A. Cambridge (Second Class, first division of Part II of the English Tripos).

R. A. Dunbier (1955): B. A. Oxford (Second Class Honours in Geography).

Carol M. Edler (1954): Ph. D. London.

C. T. Maxwell (1954): B. A. Oxford (Third Class Honours in Oriental Languages).

Norma McLeod (1954): M. A. London (with mark of Distinction).

J. P. Smith (1955): B. A. Oxford (Second Class Honours in Philosophy, Politics and Economics).

Jean M. Smits (1954): M. A. Glasgow (Second Class Honours in Classics).

C. E. Whaley (1954): M. A. Manchester.

L. Wharton (1955); B. A. Cambridge (Second Class, first division of Part II in Chemistry of the Natural Sciences Tripos).

THANKSGIVING RECESS....

The Thanksgiving Recess at D. S. C. this fall will be November 28 - December 1.

D.S.C. CHAPLAIN TO OPEN SESSION OF THE MARYLAND SENATE

The Rev. Edwin Ellis, who was our College Chaplain last year and is still affiliated with Delaware State College, has been invited by Maryland Senator Forbes to be the Chaplain for the Senate, thus opening the session when the Maryland Senate convenes at Annapolis, Maryland in February.

Senator Forbes said this is the greatest honor a Senator can bestow upon a minister, and he felt very proud to be able to do so for Rev. Ellis. The Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Ellis have also been invited to be the guests of the Maryland Senate and Senator and Mrs. Forbes at that time.

The Rev. Ellis is pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist Church in Princess Anne, Maryland, having been assigned there by the Bishop at last summer's General Conference.

LAW SCHOOL ADMISSION TEST WILL BE GIVEN FOUR TIMES THIS YEAR

Princeton, N. J., September 13-The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to a number of leading American law schools, will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on the mornings of November 9, 1957, February 15, April 19, and August 2, 1958. During 1956-57 over 12,000 applicants took this test, and their scores were sent to over 100 law schools.

A candidate must make separate application for admission to each law school of his choice and should inquire of each whether it wishes him to take the Law School Admission Test and when. Since many law schools select their freshman classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to next year's classes are advised ordinarily to take either the November or the February test, if possible.

The Law School Admission Test, prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service, features objective questions measuring verbal aptitudes and reasoning ability rather than acquired information. It cannot be "crammed" for. Sample questions and information regarding registration for and administration of the test are given in a Bulletin of Information.

The Bulletin (in which an application for the test is inserted) should be obtained four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date from Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Completed applications must be received at least two weeks before the desired testing date in order to allow ETS time to complete the necessary testing arrangements for each candidate.

AFRICAN STUDENT INTERESTED IN CORRESPONDING

"The Hornet" has received a request from Andrews Ayikie, a student in Ghana, who would like to exchange letters with students of D. S. C. about the United States and the Education Systems of the countries.

All interested persons may write to:

Andrews Aryee Ayikie
Oelorgonno Secondary School
P. O. Box 792
Accra, Ghana

Please drive carefully on our campus. Use extra care at the intersections.

Shortcuts across the grass are strictly forbidden.

LIBRARY TO PRESENT CULTURAL SERIES

The Delaware State College Library will present the first program of its Library Cultural Series on Sunday, November 10th at 5 p.m. in the College Library.

The speaker will be Owen Dodson, novelist, poet, and playwright. Mr. Dodson is associate professor of drama at Howard University in Washington, D.C., and a former Guggenheim Fellow.

Additional programs will be given in January and March, 1958.

WELCOME ABOARD....

All members of The Hornet are welcome to a year not only filled with work, but to one dedicated to progress as well.

A special welcome goes to Oliver Casson, James Pleasant, Wilhelmina Demby, Kenneth Gallimore, Daniel Miller, Ralph Harigan, Beatrice Rhodes, Geraldine Johnson, Rose Coverdale, and Sandra Walker -- new staff members. I'm sure you will spend an enjoyable year with us.

Parthenia Downing
Editor-in-Chief

PREPARE FOR YOUR FUTURE

Study at Delaware State College

Do Not Delay, Enter the Second Semester, January 23, 1958

Start Enrollment Proceedings NOW

FULLY ACCREDITED BY THE MIDDLE STATES

ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES

AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS

New Dormitories and Gymnasium With Swimming Pool

A Coed School with majors and minors in the following fields:

English	Music Education
Economics	Secondary Education
Biology	Health and Physical Education
Business Administration	Agriculture
Elementary Education	Agricultural Education
History	Business Education
Sociology	Secretarial Science
Mathematics	Home Economics
Chemistry	Home Economics Education

Pre-Professional Courses also available in the following fields:

Medicine	Public Health	Nursing
Dentistry	Law	Veterinary Science

Write to the following for an application blank TODAY:

Registrar

Delaware State College

Dover, Delaware

Applications Now Being Accepted

THE HORNET

"THE STINGING TRUTH"

VOL. XV — NO. 2

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DELAWARE

NOVEMBER 20, 1959

THE LOVELY MISS ARMELIA LAWSON REIGNS AS "MISS DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE"

Miss Parthenia Downing, "MISS ALUMNI"

Miss Parthenia Downing, '59, a member of the Sussex County Alumni Club won the coveted title of "Miss Alumni" in the Annual Contest sponsored by the Delaware State College Alumni Association for the benefit of the Alumni Scholarship Fund. This is the third year in succession that the Sussex County Alumni Club has achieved the honor of having their contestant in the title of "Miss Alumni."

Miss Downing is an instructor of social studies at the William C. Jason Comprehensive High School in Georgetown, Delaware. During the school year, 1958-1959, she was one of six Delaware State College seniors listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Mrs. Ada Griffin McConnell, '50 of the Philadelphia Alumni Club, Mrs. Theresa Wayman Pinkett, '19 of the Eastern Shore Alumni Club, and Mrs. Carrie Purnell Russell, '49 of the Kent County Alumni Club won the honor of serving as attendants to "Miss Alumni" by participation in the contest.

A gold trophy and a school blanket were presented to "Miss Alumni" by the Alumni Association. Each attendant was given a small gold trophy.

Eight D.S.C. Students Make Who's Who

Eight State College students have been elected to Who's Who among students in American Universities and Colleges, according to announcement made recently by Dr. W. E. Johnson, director of personnel at Delaware State College, Dover.

Students are selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership and co-operation in educational and extra-curricular activities, his general citizenship, and has promise of future usefulness.

Among those to receive this signal honor were Delbert Le Compte, of Chester, Pennsylvania, a senior English major, who is president of this class, co-editor of the Student publication, "The Hornet", and editor-in-chief of the Yearbook.

A member of the Players Guild for four years, he starred in the production in the lead, male role of "Hello Out There," as the young gambler; appeared as "Laertes" in the Hamlet production, and as Bill Reynolds in "Tea and Sympathy", and as Uncle Ben in "Death of a Salesman". During his junior year, Le Compte served as general manager and assistant to the director in "Look Homeward Angel."

Mr. Le Compte who has held important posts in several organizations is still active with Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, presently serving as editor to the Sphinx magazine, cabinet member of the Student Christian Association, member of the International Club, Student National Education Association a member of the College Debating Society, and a Dean's scholar for six semesters.

He has also served as a delegate to the regional YMCA summer conference at Michaux, Pennsylvania.

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

W
E
L
C
O
M
E

"Miss Delaware State College"

A
L
U
M
N
I

Reigning as "Miss Delaware State College" and over Homecoming this year is the charming lovely Miss Armelia Lawson who is a graduate of Howard High in Wilmington, Delaware.

Upon graduating from high school Miss Lawson attended the University of Delaware and Livingstone College.

In 1957, Miss Lawson transferred to our wonderful college. In her junior year she was chosen to be the Lampados' queen. Miss Lawson, who is a senior majoring in Business Education, was also selected to be listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities 1959-60." She is secretary of the Epsilon Alpha Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, treasurer of the Business Club, a member of the N. E. A., newspaper staff, yearbook staff, and secretary of the Pan-Hellenic Council.

Our lovely queen enjoys skating, dancing, singing, and playing the piano during her leisure hours.

A Message From Miss D.S.C.

Fellow students: This Homecoming weekend should be a gala occasion for each of us. To me this is one of the most exciting features of my college career in that you have chosen me as your queen. For this honor I am overwhelmed with gratitude. It is my desire to represent you in the best manner possible. I wish the team much success and I am sure that the entire student body will give them their full support. I sincerely hope that everyone will have a very enjoyable week-end and it will go in your memoirs as a great and glorious occasion.

Armelia Lawson

Homecoming Program

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20

7:30 P.M.

Coronation Ceremony
Memorial Hall
"Crowning of Miss Alumni"
"Crowning of Miss Delaware State"

9:00 P.M.

Bonfire Rally
Soldiers' Field
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21

11:00 A.M.

Homecoming Parade
Del. State Campus

12:30 P.M.

Luncheon
Conrad Hall

1:30 P.M.

Pre-Game Activities
Alumni Stadium

2:00 P.M.

Delaware State vs.
St. Augustine
Alumni Stadium
Admission: $1.50

3:00 P.M.

Float Parade
Alumni Stadium

5:00 P.M.

Barbecue Dinner
Conrad Hall
Tickets: $1.00

9:00 P.M.

Homecoming Dance
Memorial Hall
Music: Preston Johnson & Orchestra
Admission: $1.50

President Holland's Message To Alumni

The Annual Homecoming Day Program on Saturday, November 21, 1959 should be of special importance to the Alumni of Delaware State College. In addition to the coronation of Miss Delaware State, the football game between St. Augustine College and Delaware State, the Alumni barbecue, and the homecoming day dance, the Alumni will have an opportunity to observe the completion of the second phase of the college's capital improvement program, and view the new landscaping design of the campus. With these improvements, the college's physical plant meets satisfactory standards. Each graduate is urged to visit the William C. Jason Library, and the Richard S. Gressley Hall.

The college needs the support of the Alumni, especially in recruiting qualified and exceptional students, and financial assistance which would include scholarships and gifts to the college. In the area of public relations, your support is urgently needed as the college requires additional dormitory space for women students, a new music area, funds for a guest house and a student center. To acquire such funds, either through public sources or private philanthropy, will be a most difficult task. This is where Alumni support is of invaluable assistance.

The entire Delaware State College family extends to the Alumni best wishes for a pleasant reunion.

THE HORNET

Co-Editors Shirley Hart and
Delbert Le Compte
Associate Editor Claudia Harrell
Assistant Editor Marion Gibbs
Managing Editor James Pleasant
Fashion Editors Claudia Harrell and
Rose Coverdale
Sports Editor Lawrence Hayes
Circulation Manager Carolyn Hearne
Production Manager Mary Ross
Typists — Edna Deloris Tate, Joanne Blocksom, Claudia Harrell, Armelia
Lawson, Mary Ross, Yvonne Elliott, Juanita Coverdale, Carolyn
Hearne, Rebecca Evans, and Marita Lingo.
Reporters — Hazel Evans, Hestene Dillard, Doris Hyland, Charlotte
Morris, Frances Spencer, Jane Waters, Jacqueline Stewart, Natalie
Crowder, Joan Dean, Lloyd Dixon, Sarah Hickman, Delores Benson,
Ernestine Brittingham, John W. Davis, and Cynthia Martin.
Faculty Advisor John Robert Price
Published Periodically by the Students of Delaware State College.

EDITORIAL

A College Is What
Its Students Make It

Why are Universities such as Yale and Harvard called great institutions of higher learning today? Is it because they are among the oldest in the United States? Is it because they have two of the largest endowments of any college in these United States? Yes, these things are very significant, but they are not the main reasons behind the greatness of these universities.

From the beginnings of these two great colleges, their students have achieved. Their students have played outstanding roles in the program of their colleges while in school, and it follows that they have been prepared to play outstanding roles in the world outside. They have worked through "tears, sweat and blood," to make their student organizations vital, active, powerful and important. It took them time and plenty of hard work to become what they are.

George Washington, the architect of these United States, had a tremendous job; he continued to work on, until his death. He accomplished as much as he could and then Adams took up the task. Now some of the Presidents didn't do too much on the structure of these United States, and progress stood still or was destroyed, but we survived through these times. Now, the United States is what it is today, the greatest country in this whole wide world.

Spinoza said: "To be is to do," and "To exist is to persist." We as students here at Delaware State College have got to stop, as the football players say, "waving traffic," always trying to get out of the way of hard work and problems. We only get things by working for them and by showing that by our work we deserve them. When the quarterbacks of our organization call on you, carry that ball by doing some job or filling some position, carry it and carry it with everything you've got. Don't be satisfied to sit on the bench and not take an active part in your organization. We should want to play in the game, to win out against any problems the organization might have.

To the quarterbacks of the various campus organizations: think big, imitate the best and the great, to the degree that you can and always look forward to bigger and better things. Remember: "As a man thinketh, so he is."

This is our school. Let's make it a great one. We have an outstanding President, let's show him he has some outstanding students.

Let's all enjoy the Homecoming festivities in the right way and fellows, bring this football game home for us.

Delbert LeCompte

Who's Who

(Continued from Page 1)

and as a member of its planning committee during the 1959-60 fiscal year, in addition to serving as a delegate to the 1960 White House Conference on Children and Youth.

Thomas Boykin of Asbury Park, New Jersey, who also was selected, played varsity baseball four years, basketball two years, and varsity football one year, in addition to being a Dean's Scholar. Boykin has found time to serve as treasurer of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, is a Student Government representative, Pan-Hellenic Council representative, Freshmen counselor for three years, and president of the Agricultural Club. He is also the recipient of the Bella Johnson and the African Society Scholarship Award.

Senior, Business Education student, Armelia Lawson of Wilmington, Delaware known to the student body as "Miss Delaware State College" for the 1959-60 school year, holds membership in the student National Education Association, secretary of the Pan-Hellenic Council, and the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, and treasurer of the College Business Club, a member of the Yearbook Staff and the College newspapers, a Dean's Scholar and was formerly the Sweetheart for the Lampodos Pledge Club.

Leathia Gaines, a senior majoring in Elementary Education and also a Dean's Scholar was likewise chosen on the basis of scholarship and participation in extra-curricular activities. Included among the latter are: a member of the players Guild, supporting roles in "The Silver Chord", "Othello", "Hamlet", and "A Street Car Named Desire"; president of the Women's Senate, member and officer of the Student Christian Association, Student National Education Association, Du-Ed Club and delegate to the National Student Assembly of Y. M. and Y.W.C.A.'s at the University of Illinois. In addition, Miss Gaines has found time to study enough to be the recipient of the African School Society Scholarship and the Joshua Parker Award.

Oliver Casson, a senior from Wilmington, Delaware, is also majoring in Elementary Education. During his tenure at the College, he has been president of the College band, the Sophomore Class, and the Sphinx Club; a member of the College Choir, Student National Education Association, Veteran Club, College Social Committee, reporter on "The Hornet" staff, Vice-president of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and a Dean's Scholar.

In the play production of "The Death of a Salesman", Mr. Casson played the role of "Happy"; starred as Ben Grant in "Look Homeward Angel".

James Collins, senior from Millsboro, Delaware is presently president of the Men's Council and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity; he has also served as treasurer of the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior Class, while holding the same office for both the Men's Council and the Sphinx Club. Additionally, he is a member of the College Choir, and played supporting roles in "Hamlet" and "A Street Car Named Desire".

D.S.C. Students Attend
White House Conference

On Saturday, November 7, 1959 the White House Conference on Children and Youth met at the Dover High School Auditorium, Dover, Delaware. Those attending from Delaware State College with Dr. W. E. Johnston were: Essie Davis, Chauncey Draine, Shirley Hart, Geraldine Johnston, Delbert LeCompte, Cynthia Martin, Edna Tate, and Barbara Ward.

Since April 1959 over 200 men women and young people throughout the state representing schools, health services, welfare agencies, religious groups, youth groups, and many civic and service organizations interested in young people had worked on conference preparations. They were the members of the Delaware State Committee for the 1960 White House Conference.

Among other activities this task force conducted studies in six areas on various aspects of the two basic questions concerning children and youth. "What has happened in the ten years since Delaware participated in the 1950 White House Conference in progress, changing needs and needs still unmet?" "And what are the urgent actions to be taken in behalf of children and youth in the next ten years?"

Persons who attended the Delaware Conference considered these preliminary reports, made recommendations for their improvement, and suggested plans that will translate recommendations into action in the years ahead. The research, data, and opinion in reports from the six advance study groups and developments which occurred during the Conference will form the main body of materials which will accompany Delaware's delegates to the 1960 Golden Anniversary White House Conference on children and Youth in Washington, D. C. between March 27 and April 2, 1960.

Dr. Weigle To Open
Faculty Round Table
Study Lectures

Opening the faculty Round Table Study lecture series, Monday, November 30, 1959, is Dr. Richard D. Weigle, a native of Northfield, Minnesota. Dr. Weigle is dean emeritus of the Yale Divinity School and chairman of the committee which brought out the revised standard version of the Bible.

For eight years, Dr. Weigle has been a member of the Anne Arundel County School Board and is currently its President. From 1955 to 1957 he was chairman of the commission on Liberal Education of the Association of American Colleges and is presently a member of the Maryland Permanent Advisory Commission on Higher Education. For two years, he was president of Historic Annapolis, Inc., and he still acts as vice-chairman of the Maryland Hall of Records Commission.

National Teacher Exams
To Be Given At Del.
State College

Delaware State College has been designated as a testing center for the 1960 Nationwide Administration of the National Teacher Examination next February, W. E. Johnston, Jr., Director, Student Personnel announced today.

College seniors preparing to teach and teachers applying for positions in school systems which encourage or require applicants to submit their scores on the National Teacher Examinations along with other credentials are eligible to take the tests. The examinations are prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey.

The designation of Delaware State College as a testing center for these examinations will give prospective teachers in this area an opportunity to compare their performance on the examination with approximately 10,000 candidates throughout the country who will be participating in the nationwide administration on February 13, 1960, Dr. Johnston said. At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Information, General Culture, English Expression, and Nonverbal Reasoning. In addition, each candidate may take one or two of the eleven Optional Examinations which are designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter in the fields in which he may be assigned to teach.

Applications for the examinations and a Bulletin of Information describing registration procedures and containing representative test questions may be obtained from Dr. W. E. Johnston, Delaware State College or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Prospective teachers planning to take the test should secure an Application Blank and a Bulletin of Information promptly, Dr. Johnston advised.

Hungarian Pianist
Coming To D.S.C.

Stephen Kovacs, distinguished Hungarian pianist will appear in concert in Delaware Hall on December 3, 1959 at 8:00 P. M. Kovacs is a great audience favorite. This masterful concert performance seems to have something for everyone in attendance.

Music critics in Europe and America concede to Kovacs this great popularity and ability of getting through to every listener in the same reviews in which they extravagantly praise his musicianship, his complete and scholarly mastery of the keyboard.

The College Lyceum Committee expects this concert to be one of the highlights of the campus music season.

College Job Recruiting

WASHINGTON—After accepting jobs, graduating students should not continue interviewing. College placement officers should not restrict the number of interviews a student has.

These are two suggestions among many in the first revisions of "The Principles and Practices of College Recruiting," a six-page leaflet published by the College Placement Council, Inc., Bethlehem, Pa., and the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Washington. The leaflet lists mutual obligations of students, employers, and placement officers. The Council and the National Chamber are sending the leaflet to 1,500 college placement officers and 3,000 top business, college, and government executives.

With business booming again, the Council and Chamber expect a boom in the number of interviewers arriving on college campuses in the next few months to talk with the hundreds of thousands of senior and graduate students in the class of 1960. The Council and Chamber expect that, as during the hectic 1957 recruiting season, the shortage of top quality science graduates will continue.

The two organizations emphasize that departure from commonly accepted practices were few in 1957. They believe that a trend toward serious infractions was averted by the suggestions in the first joint statement. However, they point out that in 1958 and in 1959 the business recession caused a slackening in recruiting competition. The leaflet states that: "It is in the best interests of students, colleges, and employers alike that the selection of careers be made in an objective atmosphere with complete understanding of all facts."

Specific, mutual obligations of college students, placement officers, and interviewers are listed. For example:

"When a student is invited to visit an employer's premises at the employer's expense, he should include on his expense report only those costs which pertain to the trip. If he visits several employers on the same trip, costs should be prorated among them..."

"The (college) Placement Officer and faculty members should counsel students but should not unduly influence them in the selection of jobs..."

"Employers should not raise (salary) offers already made, except when such action can be clearly justified as sound industrial relations practices: such as, when an increase in hiring rate is required on an overall basis to reflect salary adjustments in the employing organization."

The college Placement Council serves the eight Regional Placement Associations of the United States and Canada. Business, industry, and government personnel officers and college placement directors are members. The Chamber is composed of 3,450 business, trade, and professional organizations which have a membership of 2,750,000 business men.

You can get copies of this leaflet by writing The College Placement Council, Inc., 35 E. Elizabeth Avenue, Bethlehem, Pa., or the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, 1615 H Street, N.W., Washington 6, D.C. Enclose ten cents for each copy. Most college placement offices also have copies.

A College Without
A Yearbook Is A
College Without A
Memory

Pan - - Hellenic News

Alpha Kappa Alpha Highlights

Delta Lambda Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority extends best wishes to Soror Iris Watson Turner on becoming the bride of Brother Richard Turner. We also wish to congratulate Soror Turner for being selected "Miss Alpha Kappa Alpha" to represent us in the Homecoming festivities. Escorting "Miss Alpha Kappa Alpha" in the coronation was Brother Oliver Casson.

Also a hearty congratulations to Ivy Patricia Sneed for being selected "Miss Ivy." "Miss Ivy" was escorted in the coronation by Little Brother Phillip Saddler.

On behalf of Delta Lambda Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, we extend to "Miss Delaware State" a successful reign for the coming year

We also wish to congratulate our Ives for the Can-Can dance for the benefit of a needy family in the community in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. As for future plans Delta Lambda will present its Annual Scholarship dance on December 5th.

Delta Lambda welcomes alumni and friends and hope that you enjoy your visit at D.S.C.

Alpha Accent

The undergraduate brothers of Gamma Sigma Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Incorporated are proud that three of their brothers, out of the eight students selected to represent Delaware State College, made Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for 1959-60. These brothers are Oliver Casson, James Collins, and Delbert LeCompte. Brother James Collins is president of the campus chapter and Brother Delbert LeCompte is editor to the Sphinx for the campus chapter.

The Alpha queen, the comely Miss Christine Hoagland, will be escorted by Brother James Collins in the coronation festivities of Miss Delaware State. The Sphinx queen, the charming Miss Marion Leatherberry, will be escorted by Little Brother Marshall Arnell.

Delta Chatter

We of Epsilon Chapter, extend to Soror Armelia Lawson congratulations and best wishes in her reign as Miss Delaware State College over Homecoming. We are very proud of Soror Lawson in her high position. Also we would like to congratulate her on being named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Soror Barbara Marshall was chosen to represent us in the Coronation and in the Homecoming Parade. To her we wish good luck and much happiness.

Congratulations also to Pyramid Fontaine on being chosen the Miss who represented our little sisters.

To the football team we wish much good luck in the Homecoming game. We of Delta are with you all the way.

A hearty welcome to all alumni. May you have a wonderful Homecoming. And much fun to our fellow students on this week-end.

Continue to read this column for news of the Deltas and Pyramids and for social activities being planned.

Help Us Keep Our Campus Clean

"Ques' Concern"

The Psi Epsilon Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. welcomes all visitors and friends to the Annual Homecoming festivities and the football game between the St. Augustine College Falcons and the Delaware State College Hornets.

These festivities are highlighted by certain events such as, the Coronation of Miss Delaware State College and her court, the class and organizational floats, and with the Homecoming Day Dance on Saturday evening. It is the wish of the brothers Psi Epsilon Chapter that everyone will enjoy himself.

This year the brothers of Psi Epsilon Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. has gone to the South and have chosen a real Southern Belle for their sweetheart. She is the lovely and charming Miss Shirley Horton. Miss Horton is from Knoxville, Tennessee and a graduate of Morristown, J. C. in Morristown, Tennessee. She is a junior majoring in Business Education. Miss Omega will be escorted in the Coronation by Brother Roscoe Baker, also a junior. The Lampados Club has also come up with a Southern Miss, Miss Purcell Grant, an advanced freshman from Savannah, Georgia.

The brothers of Psi Epsilon Chapter and their little brothers wish everyone a Happy Homecoming; and to the team and its coaches: Dr. Mitchell, Mr. George, Mr. Blakey and Mr. Washington we leave this little conotation... It doesn't matter who wins the game, but it does matter how the game is played. Good Luck.

HEY GANG!

First payment on your yearbook is due December 4, 1959. Plan ahead. Don't forget! $2.50 or the entire $5.00. There will be another installment.

FIGHT

The Sound And the Fury of Jazz

Jazz recordings like good psychological novels call for intellectual participation. If one gropes and digs, one can usually get a significant and profound truth from a good psychological novel, likewise, with a jazz recording. If one listens with the heart and the soul and the being a truth is manifested. This truth the jazz men terms "the message."

What is this message? This message is many things: the lullaby of the soul, the pepto-bismol of the spirit, the no-dose of the mental faculties. Sometimes the message hovers over you like a big black bird, other times it puts gas in your tank.

Are you with a rambling saxophone, the drifting vibes, a screaming trumpet?

Jazz is poetry. Truth is beauty. Beauty is truth. Matter cannot be created or destroyed.

New Dig This: Theolonius Monk quartet-Misterioso.

Thought of the Week: Ring those bells on Delaware's campus, play that jazz on Delaware's campus.

You've all heard the one about the student who wrote home: No mon, no fun, your son, etc. Well here's a new one for you. A student went home recently and his mother asked him what was he doing at school. This was his reply: Jamming, cramming and Spamming.

DELBERT LECOMPTE

Dedications For the On Cats

Reba Evans—"I Love You"
Sylvia Henry—"Undecided"
Freddie Coverdale—"Play it Fair"
Shirley Hart—"It's All In The Game"
"Ro" Potter—"Fat Daddy"
George A. Washington—"Charlie Brown"
Purcell Grant—"Changing Partners"
Priscilla Fontaine—"The Letter"
Shirley Horton—"Smoke Gets In Your Eyes"
"Ross" Baker—"Priscilla"
"Babs"—"Shake That Thing"
Ernestine Brittingham—"The Sneak"
William Ricketts—"I'll Play The Fool"
Freshmen Girls—"Almost Grown"
Freshmen Boys—"Walk On"
Barbara Spady—"Sheppard Blues"
Thomas Boykin—"Me and my Teddy Bear"

THE HIPSTERS

WOMEN'S FASHIONS

With Spring behind us, Fall upon us and Winter just around the corner, we begin to think more of what we shall wear for these seasons. Just as these seasons change, so do the fashions and colors change. Some colors blend with nature and others are taken from dreams.

Once again winter white has taken its place at the top of the fashion list. It is a good blending color that comes in suits dresses and evening dresses of many fabrics. Winter white is a color that can be "dressed up" or "dressed down" with accessories according to the occasion.

A good "stand by" this year are the tweeds. The colors are not restricted; you may take your choice. However, the most outstanding colors for tweeds are cornflower blue, brown, green and orange. So why not select a tweed suit or dress in your favorite color; or if you have already selected one, select the accessories and be ready for the future occasions.

For dressy affairs you also have a wide selection of colors and fabrics from which to choose. If you are in the gay, dancing mood, choose a bouffant in taffeta, satin or velveteen; or if you are the sophisticated type, choose a sheath in taffeta, satin or velveteen. Separates are also serviceable because you make them formal or semi-formal. The striking colors in the satins, velveteens and taffetas are white, black, red and some of the off-shades such as fuschia. You may also want to select an evening dress in pinwale corduroy which is in addition to the list this year. Make your decision and be ready to look your best.

As last month's article stated being well-dressed does not require a large wardrobe. Selecting the right dress and accessories for the right occasion, and selecting the styles that bring out your personality are the most important factors for a determination of being well dressed. Remember that with the advent of each season, fashions in many fabrics of assorted styles and colors are here for our choosing, and with the advent of each season comes a well-dressed girl who has selected and planned her wardrobe well.

Rose Coverdale

TEAM

Olin Curry Honored by Food Service Dept. For 37 Years of Service

Mr. Olin Curry, a member of the Food Service Department is being honored this month. Mr. Curry has been an employee of the college for a period of 37 years. His employment began on February 20, 1922.

During this time, Mr. Curry has seen many changes come over Delaware State College; such as, the shifting of Jason and Cannon Halls to their present sites to make room for what we now know as Conrad Hall and the transfer of the Dining Hall from Lockerman Hall to Conrad Hall. Out of the changes in the 37 year period Mr. Curry has spent at Delaware State College, the changes in the Commencement and Homecoming procedures are the most rigid. As he remembers it, Commencement used to be under the old sycamore tree with lots of tables around it, and Homecoming parades started from Booker T. Washington school and ended at the college.

Mr. Curry says, "The coming of Dr. Holland and Mr. Pinkett has definitely been an asset to Delaware State College." He feels that these men have contributed greatly to the progress of the school.

Mr. Curry will ride with Miss Food Service on the Dining Hall Float.

Cynthia Martin

This is a New Day

This list of rules for teachers was posted by a principal in the City of New York in 1872 and was reprinted in 1959 by the ESSO MANHATTAN:

1. Teachers each day will fill lamps, clean chimneys, and trim wicks.
2. Each teacher will bring a bucket of water and scuttle of coal for the day's sessions.
3. Make your pens carefully. You may whittle nibs to the individual taste of the pupil.
4. Men teachers may take one evening each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if they go to church regularly.
5. After ten hours of school, the teacher should spend the remaining time reading the Bible or other good books.
6. Women teachers who marry or engage in unseemly conduct will be dismissed.
7. Every teacher should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefit during his declining years so that he will not become a burden on society.
8. Any teacher who smokes, uses liquor in any form, frequents pool or public halls, or gets shaved in a barber shop will give good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity and honesty.
9. The teacher who performs his labors faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of twenty-five cents per week in his pay providing the Board of Education approves.

Beauty

Beauty, O Beauty the bubble of rapture,
The fire that kindles the blood and emotions
Are you real, Are you wise,
Trap or guide, Saint or sinner,
Are you form or intellect,
Line or longing,
Truth or Fallacy,
Are you the propulsion of love,
Or the inspiration of deceit."

Whatever be my guide,
I will follow.
Take me to barren land or garden,
Give me the heat of toil,
Or the hell fork of jealousy.
By you my spirit is bound.
Her evanescent course is undetermined.
Follow on fool,
Follow on King,
The artist has said, "Beauty is the thing".
—Delbert LeCompte

Queen's Court

QUEEN	TITLE	CLASSIFICATION	ADDRESS
Shirley Benson	Miss D.S.C. 1956-57		Felton, Del.
Mrs. Vera White	Chism Miss D.S.C. 1957-58		Washington, D. C.
Great Naylor	Miss D.S.C. 1958-59		Wilmington, Del.
Carolyn Hearne	Miss Senior	Senior	Laurel, Del.
Geraldine Ryder	Miss Junior	Junior	Dover, Del.
Joan Jackson	Miss Sophomore	Sophomore	Millsboro, Del.
Lela Woodford	Miss Freshman	Freshman	Buttonwood, Del.
Priscilla Fontaine	Miss Pryamid	Senior	Martinsville, Va.
Patricia Enead	Miss Ivy	Sophomore	Laurel, Del.
Marion Leatherberry	Miss Sphinx	Freshman	Atlantic City, N.J.
Agnew Lockett	Miss Kappa	Junior	Wilmington, Del.
Mrs. Iris Watson Turner	Miss AKA	Senior	Kenton, Del.
Shirley Horton	Miss Omega	Junior	Knoxville, Tenn.
Louise Parker	Miss Charm and Culture	Freshman	Del. City, Del.
Barbara Marshall	Miss Delta	Senior	Selbyville, Del.
Sandra Wilson	Miss Scroller	Freshman	Philadelphia, Pa.
Mary Evans	Miss NEA	Senior	Smyrna, Del.
Christine Hoagland	Miss Alpha	Sophomore	West Chester, Pa.
Cynthia Martin	Miss Food Service	Sophomore	Philadelphia, Pa.
Purcell Grant	Miss Lampado	Adv. Freshman	Wilmington, Del.
Mildred Adams	Miss International	Sophomore	St. Albans, N. Y.
Rose Coverdale	Miss S.C.A.	Junior	Seaford, Del.
Mary Bowden	Miss Mathematics	Freshman	Seafod, Del.
Wilhelminia Johnson	Miss Veteran	Junior	Orlando, Fla.
Juanita Coverdale	Miss Business	Sophomore	Philadelphia, Pa.
Jacqueline Stewart	Miss Drama	Adv. Freshman	N. Y., N. Y.
Miss St. Augustine and her court

W
E
L
C
O
M
E

A
L
U
M
N
I

SPORTS HIGHLIGHTS

Delaware State Cross Country Team Victorious Delaware State Wins 1 Loses 2

A sextet of men coached by Dean Franklin trekked to Glassboro, New Jersey, on November 6, for their first meet of the season. Bringing home the victory for D. S. C. was Huie Joyner, who captured first place with a record time of 21:06, thus breaking the old course record for the 4.2 miles by one minute. Placing second for D. S. C. and also in the race was Val Jordan who also broke the course record. Rounding out the team scoring was James Lewis who finished 3rd, Andy Butler, 4th, and Herman Moody, 7th.

On Veterans' Day, November 11, the mill and dalers then proceeded to Washington, D. C. where they placed 2nd to Cheyney State Teachers College in the Veterans Day Cross Country Meet.

Again Huie Joyner finished first in a field of well over 50. This is the second year running that Huie has accomplished this feat. As exemplified by those two victories, he is well one of the best distant runners in the C.I.A.A.

Huie established a new course record in the time of 18:13.6 for 3.75 miles. Finishing second for D. S. C. and third in the meet was Val Jordan. James Lewis, Andy Butler and Herman Moody finished 8th, 14th, and 17th respectively. The totals of the meet were:

1. Cheyney State	39
2. Delaware State	43
3. Howard U.	64
4. Lincoln U.	87
5. Morgan State	100

Hornets Begin Cage Drills

The Delaware State College basketball team has been working out for the past few weeks under the direction of Coach Bennie George and student assistant coach, Ernest Perry. Returning this year are seven lettermen from last year's squad. They are Roscoe Baker, Boston, Mass.; Clifford Noble, Philadelphia, Pa.; Kenneth Pearson, New York City, N. Y.; Thomas Arrington, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Walter Broughton, Stalibus, N. Y.; George Bratcher, West Chester, Pa.; and Hewitt Joyner, Boston, Mass.

Delaware State College won their first football game of the season by defeating Lincoln University, 38-13.

Scoring for D.S.C. was made by Harrison Wilder on an 18 yd. run, with Ralph Neal catching a pass for the conversion; Irvin Heath 8 yd. run; Howard West 5 yd. run with Allen Thompson catching a pass for the conversion; Eddie Davis 73 yd. pass intercepting with Richard Saunders getting the 2 ft. conversion; Fred Wilson 4 yd. run with Eugene Jones rushing for the conversion.

Lincoln scores were made late in the fourth quarter. Horace Judson caught a pass from the 15 yd. line; Ronald Lawrence received a pass from Latimer for the tally. The extra point was kicked by Carl Baines.

The following week-end D.S.C. trekked to St. Paul's in Virginia and were defeated 14-8. Although the gridmen suffered a defeat, the lone play was most outstanding as they held the Saints to a 1 yd. rushing.

Before a mediocre crowd on November 7 D.S.C. Hornets played host to their arch rivals Maryland State. After receiving the opening kick-off on this rainy, cold day the Hornets immediately began to threaten the Hawks from Maryland State. However, after reaching the Hawks 48 yd. line the Hornets lost the ball on downs. Following an exchange of points Maryland State scored on a pass from Robinson to Davidson. To finish the scoring in the first period, Holmes scored on a 44 yd. run by virtue of a blocked kick. In the second quarter Gray scored from the 9 yd. line and also ran for the conversion, thus ending the first half. Maryland State scored again in the third quarter on a 15 yd. pass from Robinson to Price.

In the 3rd quarter D.S.C.'s defense tightened up and held the Hawks scoreless. As a final epithet although the underdog from the start D.S.C. made a very good showing.

Other veterans returning this year are George Godfrey, Seaford, Delaware, and John Barber, Pottstown, Pa. The Hornets also have a strong group of newcomers vowing for positions this year; they are, John Dunston, Philadelphia, Pa.; George Timbers, Philadelphia, Pa.; John Simms and Major Harrison of Wilmington, Delaware.

D. S. C.'s NEW DUAL LANE HIGHWAY FROM ROUTE 13 (Circle is about 50 yards East of construction machine shown on highway).

1959 - 1960 Basketball Schedule

1 Dec.	Lincoln University
4 Dec.	Morgan State College
8 Dec.	Va. Union University
11 Dec.	Hampton Institute
12 Dec.	*J. C. Smith University 8
18 Dec.	Philadelphia Textile Institute
9 Jan.	*King's College (Pennsylvania)
13 Jan.	Va. Union University
14 Jan.	Howard University
19 Jan.	D. C. Teachers' College
30 Jan.	Maryland State College
1 Feb.	St. Augustine's College
2 Feb.	J. C. Smith University
5 Feb.	St. Augustine's College
6 Feb.	*Hampton Institute
9 Feb.	Lincoln University
11 Feb.	Maryland State College
13 Feb.	Howard University
18 Feb.	D. C. Teachers' College
20 Feb.	*Philadelphia Textile Institute

*Saturday Afternoon Games - 2:30 P. M.

ALL OTHER HOME GAMES at 8:00 P. M.

With the experience of the veterans and the potential ability of the newcomers, the Hornets should put in a strong bid for top laurels in the CIAA this season, providing there are no scholastic losses to the team.

The Hornets open the season at home on December 1, when they play host to Lincoln University.

DELAWARE STATE HORNETS

Row 1 (left to right): Gerald Bennett, Evander Duck, Grafton Brittingham, Jerome Pinkett, Howard West, Irvin Heath, Thomas Boykin, William Granville, Felton Lingo, Fred Wilson, William Merritts, and Allen Thompson.

Row 2 (left to right): Richard Saunders, Calvin Wilson, Edward Davis, Morgan Little, Marvin Williams, Ralph Neal, George Bratcher, Eugene Jones, Robley Fortune, and Herman Wallace.

Row 3 (left to right): Melvin Rhem, John Hurtz, Harrison Wilder, Clark Miller, Burrell Dozier, James Griff'n, Leonzo Ingram, Franklin Williams, Paul Ellison, William Pearson, and Willie Armstrong.

Row 4 (left to right): Head Coach Dr. E. Preston Mitchell III, Assistant Coach Donald Blakey, John Haynes, William Washington, Ulysses Baxter, Robert Nixon, Assistant Coach Ulysses Washington, and Assistant Coach Bennie J. George.

A College Without
A Yearbook Is A
College Without A
Memory

PREPARE FOR YOUR FUTURE
STUDY AT
DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE

Do Not Delay, Enter the Second Semester, January 28, 1960

START ENROLLMENT PROCEEDINGS NOW

FULLY ACCREDITED
BY THE MIDDLE STATES
ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES
AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS

NEW DORMITORIES & GYMNASIUM WITH SWIMMING POOL NEW LABORATORIES AND CLASSROOMS

A Coed School with majors
and minors in the following fields:

English	Music Education
Economics	Secondary Education
Biology	Health and Physical Education
Business Administration	Agriculture
Elementary Education	Agricultural Education
History	Business Education
Sociology	Secretarial Science
Mathematics	Home Economics
Chemistry	Home Economics Education

Pre-Professional Courses also available
in the following fields:

Medicine	Public Health	Nursing
Dentistry	Law	Veterinary Service

Write to the following
for an application blank TODAY:

REGISTRAR
DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE
DOVER, DELAWARE

Applications Now Being Accepted

THE HORNET

"THE STINGING TRUTH"

VOL. XV — NO. 3

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE, DOVER, DELAWARE

DECEMBER 18, 1959

Ambassador Westerman Of Panama Speaks At D. S. C.

On Tuesday, December 1, 1959, HIS EXCELLENCY Dr. George Westerman, ambassador of Panama, spoke in chapel about his country.

HIS EXCELLENCY stated that the population of Panama is about 12 per cent white, 15 per cent Negro, 72 per cent mestizo, and 1 per cent all others. The Spanish blood is predominant everywhere and Spanish is the general and official language, although much English is spoken.

Panama is a centralized republic. Its constitution adopted in March, 1946, provided universal suffrage and a secret ballot. The executive is the president with two vice-presidents elected for four years, with the power to appoint cabinet ministers of which there are seven: government and justice, foreign affairs, finance and treasury, education, agriculture, public works and labor, and social welfare and public health.

Panama's educational system, administered by the ministry of education, has the highest appropriation of funds in the national budget and consists of public pre-school, primary, and secondary grades. Higher education is offered by teachers' schools, trade schools, the National Institute, the Conservatory of Music, and the National University. Primary education is not compulsory. Schooling is free except for graduate fees.

Ambassador Westerman stated further that he has been judging their values of education to the utmost for the youth of Panama and that the wealth and prosperity of the people of Panama depend upon initiative.

HIS EXCELLENCY DR. GEORGE WESTERMAN addressing the DSC students. Other platform guests in the photo are: (left to right) Miss Geraldine Johnson, acting president of the Student Government Association; Miss Nora Patrick, assistant professor of French at DSC; Dr. Jerome H. Holland, president of DSC; and Delbert LeCompte, president of the International Club.

Col. Bullis Leads Spectacular Coronation Of "Miss D.S.C."

Colonel H. Edmund Bullis, retired U. S. Army Colonel, and specialist in mental hygiene, served as moderator at the Leadership Training Seminar sponsored by the Student Government Association on Saturday, December 7, held in the college library.

Placing great emphasis on the development of emotional maturity, the Colonel stressed the importance of self-confidence, making and keeping friends, accepting responsibility, making compromises when necessary, and carrying on to the best of our ability even when emotionally upset. Mr. Bullis defined good mental health as "... being fairly well satisfied with our changing environment, being at peace with ourselves, and being able to meet the changing demands of life." Of particular interest was his "Design for Living," a list of ten rules which will be mimeographed and made available to all students.

Colonel Bullis has served as an advisor to youth for more than a quarter of a century, is the author of five books, and has performed several missions under the sponsorship of the U. S. Government, and the United Nations. Under the auspices of the World Health Organization (WHO), Mr. Bullis will leave on a lecture - study tour carrying him through twenty-one countries in February, 1960 returning to the states in April. He is a Chairman of the International Service Committee of the Wilmington Rotary Club, and an alumnus of Cornell University.

Participants in the conference included class presidents, presidents of Greek-letter organizations, the president of the campus YM-YWCA, acting chairman of the Student Government, President of the Men's Council, president of the Women's Senate, and students named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The most brilliant coronation exercises ever held at Delaware State College in the crowning of Miss Armelia Lawson as "Miss DSC" was held the night before homecoming in Memorial Hall. Attending her were the charming Miss Beverly Davis of Townsend, Del., and the lovely Miss Joan Dean of Philadelphia.

In her excellency's court was "Miss St. Augustine", Miss Wynona Rhem; Miss Parthenia Downing, queen of the General Alumni Association; and Miss Shirley Benson, "Miss DSC" of 1956-57.

Crowning the queen of 1959-60 was "Miss Delaware State College" of 1958-59, Miss Greta Naylor.

After receiving the crown and regal robe, Miss Lawson who was dressed in a beautiful floor length white gown was presented the traditional football by Marvin Williams, captain of the 1959 Hornets gridiron team. Mr. Harley Taylor, National Alumni President of DSC crowned Miss Parthenia Downing as its queen.

Among the organizational queens were: Miss N.E.A., Mary Evans; Miss Club International, Sarah Adams; Miss Student Christian Association, Rose Coverdale; Miss Home Economics, Delores Benson; Miss Mathematics, Mary Bowden; Miss Charm and Culture, Louise Parker; Miss Business, Juanita Coverdale; Miss Veteran, Wilhemina Johnson; Miss Food Service, Cynthia Martin; Miss Theatre Guild, Jacqueline Stewart; Miss Freshman, Leila Woolford; Miss Sophomore, Joan Jackson; Miss Junior, Geraldine Ryder; Miss Senior, Carolyn Hearne; Miss Pyramid, Priscilla Fontaine; Miss Delta Sigma Theta, Barbara Marshall; Miss Lampado, Purcell Grant; Miss Omega Psi Phi, Shirley Horton; Miss Ivy Leaf, Patricia Snead; Miss Alpha Kappa Alpha, Iris Turner; Miss Sphinx, Marion Leatherberry; Miss Alpha Phi Alpha, Christine Hoagland; Miss Scroller, Sandra

President Holland's Christmas Message

The recent trip undertaken by President Eisenhower visiting many nations throughout the world to promote peace and good will among men emphasizes the spirit of the Christmas Season. Through our religious heritage, we are told that our Saviour lived and worked with mankind in order to bring peace on earth and good will to all men. Since his birth in the manger in Bethlehem over two thousand years ago, men have experienced difficulty living in peace. While President Eisenhower symbolizes our hopes, the real peace-makers should be the individual person. In this spirit, it is hoped that each member of the Delaware State College Family will re-dedicate his efforts toward this end, as we move into the Christmas Season.

Stephen Kovacs Overwhelms D.S.C.

Stephen Kovacs was presented in concert at Delaware Hall Auditorium on December 3, 1959, at 8:00 P.M. by the Lyceum Committee of Delaware State College.

Mr. Kovacs captivated the audience by his outstanding performance. He played selections from Bach, Beethoven, Schumann, Kodaley, Szentlenceji, Bartok, and Dohnanji. The tremendous ovations given him by the audience brought him back for several encores. His encore selections consisted of several old American favorites which he played in a humorous manner. His performance will live in the hearts of all of us.

Wilson; and Miss Kappa Alpha Psi, Agnew Lockett.

Mr. Allen Winfield was the commentator and the college band furnished the music.

National Teacher Exams To Be Given On Feb. 13

Prospective teachers in this area will have an opportunity to take the National Teacher Examinations on February 13, 1960, according to Dr. W. E. Johnston, Jr., Director of Student Personnel, who will supervise the administration of the tests.

Application Blanks and a Bulletin of Information describing registration procedures and containing representative test questions may be obtained from Dr. Johnston or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey. Applications must be mailed so as to be received at the Princeton Office not later than January 15, 1960, Dr. Johnston advised.

Scores on the National Teacher Examinations are used by a large number of school systems and teachers' education institutions throughout the country as an aid in evaluating such of the qualifications of prospective teachers as are measured by the tests, Dr. Johnston said. The scores may also be useful to examinees who are interested in discovering their own strengths and weaknesses with respect to such teacher qualifications as are measured by the tests, he added.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the Common Examinations which include tests in Professional Information, General Culture, English Expression, and Nonverbal Reasoning. In addition, each candidate may take one or two Optional Examinations which are designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter in the fields in which the candidate is prepared.

Four D.S.C. Faculty Members Make Who's Who In Amer. Education

Four members of Delaware State College faculty appear in the 1959-60 edition of Who's Who in American Education. This publication is an illustrative biographic directory of eminent educators of the United States and Canada.

Faculty members elected are Professor Joseph N. Grant, chairman of the Department of Biological Sciences; Dr. William E. Johnston, professor of Psychology and Education and director of Student Personnel; Dr. Stephan V. Benda, professor of Natural Sciences; and Dr. Michael Yatron, assistant professor of English and Humanities.

Merry
Christmas

Merry
Christmas

THE HORNET

Co-Editors Shirley Hart and
Delbert Le Compte
Associate Editor Claudia Harrell
Assistant Editor Marion Gibbs
Managing Editor James Pleasant
Fashion Editors Claudia Harrell and
Rose Coverdale
Sports Editor Lawrence Hayes
Circulation Manager Carolyn Hearne
Production Manager Mary Ross
Typists — Edna Deloris Tate, Joanne Blocksom, Claudia Harrell, Armelia
Lawson, Mary Ross, Yvonne Elliott, Juanita Coverdale, Carolyn
Hearne, Rebecca Evans, and Marita Lingo.
Reporters — Hazel Evans, Hestene Dillard, Doris Hyland, Charlotte
Morris, Frances Spencer, Jane Waters, Jacqueline Stewart, Natalie
Crowder, Joan Dean, Lloyd Dixon, Sarah Hickman, Delores Benson,
Ernestine Brittingham, John W. Davis, and Cynthia Martin.
Faculty Advisor John Robert Price
Published Periodically by the Students of Delaware State College.

Delaware State College Choir Presents Annual Christmas Concert

The Delaware State College Choir under the direction of Maye Holden Grant presented the Annual Christmas Concert on Sunday, December 13 at 6:00 P. M. in Delaware Hall Auditorium.

The program was designed around the presentation of various religious and seasonal music. The College Choir used "The Heavens Are Telling" from Haydn's "The Creation" as a choral prelude and completed the first section with: "O Filii et Filiae" by Leisring, an example of music from the Renaissance; Bach's "Ave Maria" and Handel's "Hallelujah, Amen" from the Baroque period; "Have Ye Not Known" and "The Last Words of David", twentieth century music by the American Randall Thompson and "The Three Kings", by Healey Willan, an outstanding English composer and teacher.

Section two was composed of excerpts from Handel's beloved oratorio, "Messiah". Beatrice Hargraves, senior clarinetist, rendered the "Pastoral Symphony". Edna Tate, freshman soprano, and Ernest Steward, a junior baritone, presented two arias and the choir was heard on "Glory to God" and the powerful "For Unto Us A Child Is Born".

The third and final division of the program was of lighter seasonal music. "Fum, Fum, Fum," a delightful and rhythmic Spanish carol, was the opening selection. Adele Hill, a sophomore Music Education major, was heard in two short lullabies—"Cradle Hymn of the Virgin", a modern and appealing composition of Wesley Harris, and "Sleep of the Infant", a carol of French origin and probably one of the oldest in existence. Also included in the section was the beautiful and familiar "Lo How A Rose E'er Blooming" by Praetorius and two traditional carols.

Rosetta Williams, a junior soprano of Wilmington, was soloist of the first section. Janice Knight, a sophomore Music Education major of Philadelphia, was the accompanist. Ronald Anderson, a senior Music Education major of Wilmington, was the assistant conductor. Beatrice Henry, visiting lecturer in Music Education, was organist.

he will perform an encore. If the overall performance is an exceptionally good one, a standing ovation is in order. Afterwards be seated and remain seated until the house lights are turned up. This is your signal to leave.

P.S. chewing gum? No!

Kenneth W. Livingston

A College
Without A
Yearbook Is A College
Without A
Memory

THE DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE CHOIR

Row I, (left to right) Delores Benson, Janice Knight, Beatrice Hargraves, Esther Jackson, Priscilla Barrett, Sarah Hickman, Purcell Grant, Marion Heath, Evelyn Mixon, and Martha Townsend. Row II, (left to right) Maye H. Grant, director, Catherine Swiggett, Mary Bowden, Henry Hill, Lelia Woolford, Margot Waters, Ernestine Scott, Don Ballad, Clark Miller, Perry Brown, Sallie Hall, Essie Davis, and Norwood Coleman. Row III, (left to right) Emmajean Saunders, Grace DeLoach, Charles Harris, Norman Hollis, Yvonne Elliott, Sylvia Henry, Gwendolyn Joines, Doris Taylor, Charles Collins, Rosetta Williams, Oliver Casson and Morris Ryder. Row IV, (left to right) Charles Minor, Edna Tate, Jeannette Palmer, Christine Hoagland, Adele Hill, Alonzo Kittrels, Noel Blakey, James Starling, Morris Jefferson, Ulysses Baxter, Natalie Crowder, Ronald Anderson, Loretta Gore, and Ernest Steward. Missing from Photo: John Haynes, Fred Coverdale, and Henry White.

Who's Who In American Universities and Colleges

In the last edition of THE HORNET two young men were inadvertently omitted from the list of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

At this time we wish to give recognition to Mr. Robert Draine and Mr. Marvin Williams.

Mr. Robert Draine, a senior majoring in History, is from Millsboro, Delaware. In addition to having been selected as a Dean's Scholar for six consecutive semesters, he has held membership in the concert and dance bands, the Players Guild and is an active member of the Social Science Club and dean of Pledges of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

Mr. Draine is the only student ever to have twice won the Bella Johnson Scholarship and Joshus Parker Awards.

Mr. Marvin Williams, is a senior from Atlanta, Georgia, and is majoring in Physical Education. He is a Dean's Scholar. He has shown his interest in the welfare of the Student Body by being an active member of the Student Government for two years, serving as vice-president in his junior year. He is a functioning member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity and has served as acting Polemarch and dean of Pledges. He also served as vice-president of the Pan-Hellenic Council in his junior year.

To match his academic achievements, Marvin has been an outstanding athlete on the varsity football team for four years. He has been co-captain for two years and was everyone's choice for all C. I. A. A. center in 1957.

~~~~~

DRIVE
SAFELY
DURING
THE HOLIDAYS

We Are Like Stars Notes On Concert Etiquette

We are like stars,

Shooting by,
Never meeting,
Never stopping to say hello,
Or more,
We are like trees,
Sighing,

Nodding,
Saying yes with every thirsted passion we possess,

Knowing yet that we may never bend to brush

Our arms in the wind,
That we may never touch
Yet once we did.

In one moment
We were the sea
Converging into oneness.
Into loveliness we had never dreamed could be.

Hazel N. Evans

Attire:

Men — dark suits, white shirts, neck-or bow-ties, dark socks, and dark shoes. (Leave the pledge caps at home!)

Women — dark afternoon street dresses. If hats are worn the brims should be unobtrusive. (Remember the persons behind you.)

Be comfortably seated no later than five minutes before the scheduled hour.

At the beginning of the performance the house lights will be dimmed.

The artist will appear. Give him a welcoming hand of applause. The performance will begin.

Withhold further applause until the end of a composition. Do not applaud between movements. e.g. One composition may consist of three movements: adagio, allegro andante, and largo. The artist will pause between movements, merely to adjust himself to the tempo of the next one.

At the end of the first half, the house lights will be raised. After an intermission of ten to fifteen minutes the house lights will be blinked. This is the signal to return to your seats for the second half of the program.

Remember, your applause is the artist's reward. This is the only way of his knowing to what degree the performance was enjoyed. Depending on the vigor of the applause.

Pan — Hellenic News

Alpha Kappa Alpha Highlights

Delta Lambda Chapter of ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA SORORITY attempts to be guided by the principle "Service to all Mankind." We feel that our wish to live up to such criteria helps us to justify our presence on the campus of Delaware State College.

In November the Ivy Leaf Club gave its annual "Can Can" Dance. This dance is held annually before the Thanksgiving Day Recess. Students are admitted to the affair only if they bring a can of food.

This year two cartons were filled with canned foods. Mrs. Dorothy Talbert a social worker in the Department of Public Welfare assisted the chapter in finding a very needy family. According to a letter of appreciation received from Miss Eleanor Rollins, the county Supervisor of Public Welfare, by Soror Essie Davis, Dean of Ivy Club, the family has eight small children, ranging in ages from 13 years to 6 months. The father and mother are in their twenties and he has been in and out of the Tuberculosis Sanitarium. The father contracted this disease while in the service.

The Chapter expects to visit the county Welfare Home next week to bring Christmas cheer. We look forward to this visit where the Christmas spirit is generously received by the inmates.

Last Saturday Evening the Chapter gave what they chose to call the First Annual Cabaret Dance. The dance is given for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund. We hope this year to increase the amount usually awarded a worthy student.

The members of the chapter are Beverley Davis, Basileus, Mary Ross, Tamiocheos, Essie Davis, Dean of Pledges, and Iris Watson Turner, Parliamentarian. Initiation is just around the corner so our lives are hard at work to "make it."

On November the sixth, Soror Beverley Davis attended the North Atlantic Leadership Conference called by the Regional Director, Soror Emma Brinkley. This was held at the Continental Hotel located in New York City. Soror Maude Pinkett, the Graduate advisor accompanied Beverley. They brought back much helpful information to be used by the chapter.

Our best wishes to all for a Merry, Merry Christmas and the Happiest of New Years.

Delta Chatter

Epsilon Alpha Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority wishes each of you a happy Christmas season. May your holiday be filled with cheer and fun, and may you have a happy successful 1960.

A post-holiday Mardi-Gras is being prepared. Plan to join us in the fun on Saturday, January 9, 1960.

C O M I N G
A
Yearbook
Named
HORNETARIAN
Please Support It

Alpha Accent

The Gamma Sigma Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. presented its Annual Founders' Day Program on Sunday, December 6, 1959. Attorney Louis L. Redding was the guest speaker. His inspiring remarks were centered around the subject of "Heart and Mind." Brother Charles Minor read the Scripture and asked the Invocation. Brother Joseph Royal introduced the program and Brother James Collins introduced the speaker. The Sphinx men of Gamma Sigma Chapter ushered. Little Brother Marshall Arnell and Little Brother Phillip Sadler.

The officers of Gamma Sigma Chapter are: Brother James Collins, President; Brother Eugene Kenny, Vice-president; Brother Oliver Casson, secretary; Brother Ernest Steward, treasurer; Brother Delbert Le Compte, editor-to-the Sphinx; Brother Charles Minor, chaplain; and Brother Joseph Royal, Dean of pledges. Brother W. E. Johnston, Jr. is the advisor. Brother James Moody is another active member.

The members of the Gamma Sigma Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. wishes to extend to all a very Merry Christmas and a dashing New Year. They wish to take this opportunity to extend special Seasons' Greetings to their most beloved sweetheart, the charming Miss Christine Hoagland.

Kappa Korner

To our sweetheart, Miss Lockett and the Schroller Queen Miss Wilson, we the Brothers of Beta Sigma were very proud of you during the Homecoming week-end.

During the Christmas vacation Brother Donald Dawson and Brother Richard Saunders will attend the Grand Conclave in Philadelphia as delegated from the Beta Chapter.

To the Delaware State College Family, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity extends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Get Those Grades Up

To the freshman students and all new students who wish to pledge in some Fraternity or Sorority the second semester. We would like to remind you that a minimum average of 2.00 is required to pledge. So let's study a little harder and bring up those grades. The Greeks would like to welcome you this spring.

Whereabouts Of Class Of 1959

A recent follow-up study by the Placement Office of Delaware State College reveals the following placements for the graduates of the Class of 1959:

Stanford Bratton, U. S. Army; Mrs. Elaine Dotson, counselor and social investigator, Kruse School, Wilmington, Delaware; Parthenia Downing, social studies teacher, William C. Jason Comprehensive High School, Georgetown, Delaware.

Thomas Anderson, elementary school teacher, Philadelphia, Pa.; Charlie Arnell, bookkeeper, Business Office, Delaware State College; Chestene Ballard, physical education teacher, Central School District No. 11, Centereach, New York.

Augustus Davis, Army; James Dixon, Army; Donald Evans, cashier, Wilmington Housing Authority; Earl Fields, teacher, Phyllis Wheatley School, Bridgeville, Delaware; Samuel Givens, Records Clerk, Air Mod; Robert Grooms, Army.

Women's Fashions

Greeting, fellow students, We are now approaching one of the most loved holidays of the year. At once you understand that I am talking about Christmas.

Have you done your Christmas shopping yet, or are you one of those last minute shoppers? Those of you that have already done your shopping, I hope you made wise choices, and those of you who have yet this big ordeal facing you, let us talk about beautiful fashions for this Christmas, 1959.

First, I must talk about the winter coats and suits. What do I see clinging around the collar of every suit and coat this winter? Why of course we all see fur. Oh how casual or sophisticated we can look in these beautiful coats and suits, but remember girls, if your necks are very short, let us not hide them completely with too much fur, so as to give us the appearance of our heads protruding out of our shoulders. On the other hand, girls with longer necks wear plenty of fur. Let us also remember our height when purchasing these coats and suits in poplin, corduroy, and wool.

Now that we are all warm and beautiful on the outside let us now look inside of the coat and for casual wear, what do I see? Oh yes, none other than the beautiful batux neck sweater in the luxurious synthetic orlon fabric. What a soft cuddly appearance one gives in this sweater I see a beautiful dirty green wool skirt that is either pleated or fitted, both look equally good. On your feet I see warm handsome desert boots. Your casual outfit is now complete.

Now for that look of sophistication. White is back. White with black velvet, white with blue, and white on white. Whether you have the white flared dress or fitted sheath is a matter of choice. This dress will look very festive for the Christmas parties. Dress your feet in a pair of beautiful pumps in blue, black, or dirty green suede. You will have almost completed the look of sophistication.

Let's start the Christmas holidays off with a bang. Remember fashions are made for you.

Claudia L. Harrell

Cornell Harvell, graduate student, University of Maryland; Betty Henry, teacher, Richard Allen School, Georgetown, Delaware; Minnie Hill, secretary, Business Office, Delaware State College; Melvin Jefferson, Army; Calenia Johnson, teacher, Ross Street Elementary School, Snow Hill, Maryland; Clarence Jones, social work, Brooklyn, New York; Margaret Lewis, special education teacher, Cape May Court House, New Jersey; Viola Maloy, teacher, Delmar, Delaware; Hilda McCray, teacher, Frankford School, Frankford, Delaware; Mary McSears, teacher, Timber Point Elementary School, East Islip, L. I., New York.

Wilbert Miller, Army; Naomi Mitchell, teacher, Church Street Elementary School, Stockton, Maryland; Greta Naylor, home economics teacher, Florence Township High School, Florence, New Jersey; Olivia T. Smith, teacher, Smith-Madden Business School, Richmond, Virginia; Aubrey Stinson, bacteriologist, Washington, D. C.; Delores Swiggett, teacher, Phyllis Wheatley School, Bridgeville, Delaware.

Richard Turner, science and math teacher, Salisbury High School, Salisbury, Maryland; Harriette Walker, teacher, Frederick Douglass School, Seaford, Delaware; Elwood Watson, acting principal, Lincoln, Delaware; Equilla Watson, dietitian and teacher of meal planning, Sleighton Farm for Girls, Glen Mills, Pennsylvania; Roberta Webb, women's physical education teacher, Lockerman High School, Denton, Maryland.

Christmas Gifts For The On Cats

Are you undecided about what to give for Christmas gifts? Well, here is the solution to your problems. Give publications to fit your friends personality!!!

NAG

The Mother-in-law's Quarterly ARTICLES

1. New Ways To Torture Your Daughter-in-law.
2. They Hid My Teeth, But I Kept Right On Talking.

THE HYPOCHRONDRIACS' MONTHLY ARTICLES

1. I Was Dead And Didn't Know It.

By Ima Zombie

CONTEMPORARY MUGGING Magazine for Hoodlums ARTICLES

1. How To Hold A Blackjack.
2. Correct Kidney Blows.

LIFT

Magazine for Kleptomaniacs ARTICLE

1. So You Want To Be A Shop-lifter?

By Jane Dough

2. They Caught Me Red-Handed at the Paint Counter.

By Ima Deadduck

SLOB

The Creeps' Journal ARTICLES

1. Try Going Without A Bath. By B. O. Plenty
2. Looking Seedy Is An Art. By Irving Bubkis
3. Your Best Friend Will Tell You. By Sam Halitosis

By Sam Halitosis

4. Grow Earwax For Fun And Profit.

By Milton Lipriader

THE WALLFLOWERS' DIGEST ARTICLES

1. Be The Life of the Party, Speak Etruscan Fluently.
2. 1001 Things to do While Waiting to be Asked to Dance.
3. Don't Just Sit There! Say Something!
4. New Hobbies for Ugly Girls EXTRA - Win A Live Man Place your orders now!

The Hipsters

SUPPORT

It's Christmas Once Again

Once again, the red and green in all its brilliance became the scene for the Christmas holiday. Wreaths, trees, buying of presents, singing of the Christmas carols, etc., were the activities of the day. And so being, we the members of the Boarding Department took pride in preparing for the Annual Christmas Party. We planned a gala Christmas Party consisting of dinner—6 p.m.—7:30 p.m. and a dance in Delaware Hall.

This marks the 7th year of this annual affair. It was initiated with the coming of Mrs. Harriette Jones, who has been dietitian since 1953.

The entire staff of the Boarding Department wishes to extend to you, you, and you a most sincere Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Chief Curry also wishes to thank the entire Delaware State College family for their ovations which were given to him on Homecoming Day.

Y
O
U
R

Y
E
A
R
B
O
O
K

CORONATION QUEEN AND HER COURT

Row I, (left to right) Iris Watson Turner, Miss AKA; Barbara Marshall, Miss Delta Sigma Theta; Agnew Lockett, Miss Kappa Alpha Psi; Mary Evans, Miss NEA; Marion Leatherberry, Miss Sphinx; Mary Bowden, Miss Mathematics; Rose Coverdale, Miss SCA; Purcell Grant, Miss Lampado; Geraldine Ryder, Miss Junior; and Delores Benson, Miss Home Economics. Standing behind Row I to the left: Parthenia Downing, Miss Alumni. Seated on the Platform (left to right) Beverly Davis, Attendant to Miss DSC; Armalia Lawson, MISS DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE; and Joan Dean, Attendant to Miss DSC. Standing on the Platform (left to right) Carolyn Hearne, Miss Senior; Jacqueline Stewart, Miss Drama; Patricia Snead, Miss Ivy; Wilhemina Johnson, Miss Veteran; Lela Woolford, Miss Freshman; Shirley Horton, Miss Omega Psi Phi; Christine Hoagland, Miss Alpha Phi Alpha; Greta Naylor, Miss DSC 1958-1959; Shirley Benson, Miss DSC 1956-1957; Priscilla Fontaine, Miss Pyramid; Sandra Wilson, Miss Scroller; Marita Lingo, Miss Physical Education; Louise Parker, Miss Charm and Culture; Cynthia Martin, Miss Food Service; Juanita Coverdale, Miss Business; and Joan Jackson, Miss Sophomore.

WELL DONE

Christmas decorations by the Maintenance Department.

A special word of THANKS goes to Miss Velma Ferguson for lending her artistic ability.

Same to all students who gave our campus a Christmas atmosphere.

The ingenuity of the Men's Council in the Christmas Tree design on Conwell Hall. Please observe this scene at night from Route 13.

The fine start of the Hornet cagers in this young basketball season.

The cheering by our cheerleaders in Memorial Hall.

The fine all around work of our fashion editor and associate editor, CLAUDIA HARRELL, who completes her schooling at DSC in January. THANKS from THE HORNET for four years of faithful service.

SPORTS

Delaware State Wins
Three Straight

With a number of varsity basketball players ineligible to play, Coach Pennie J. George has still developed a well-rounded team winning the first 3 games.

The Hornets opened the seasons play on December 1 against Lincoln University, and were victorious 58-50. Delaware led 32-21 at halftime. Playing his first full game as a varsity player, Hewitt Joyner led all scorers with 18 points. Lending able support was Ken Pearson with 16 points, and Stan Savage with 12. Playing their usually consistent game were Ross Baker and Cliff Noble. High scorer for Lincoln was Sullivan with 13 points.

On Friday, December 4, D.S.C. traveled to Morgan State College for a game with the Bears of Baltimore. In a hard fought battle through the regular periods, Delaware came up with the victory in one overtime period.

With Morgan leading 65-63 and only 20 seconds left to play, Roscoe Baker drove in for a layup to tie the score 65 all.

Roscoe Baker led all scorers with 21 points by virtue of 8 field goals and 5 charity pegs. Also scoring in double figures were Hewitt Joyner, Cliff Noble, Ken Pearson, with 16, 15, 13 points respectively.

Hewitt Joyner was top scorer for the Bears with 19 points.

With two quick victories under their belt the Hornets entertained Virginia Union University, the second place finisher last year in the C.I.A. Tournament. Hitting with fair consistency throughout the game, the Hornets beat the favored 60-51.

DSC's "Big Four" all hit double figures to face the margin of victory, while holding only one Union cager to the coveted double figure mark.

Ken Pearson led the D.S.C. scorer with 14 points followed closely by Stan Savage and Cliff Noble with 13 apiece. All three of these players did yeoman work off the backboards. Ross Baker and Hewitt Joyner did exceptionally good work in the back court.

High man with 17 points, and outstanding rebounder for Union was Jackie Jackson.

Note: Bowie State College Girls defeated Delaware State College girls 39-13.

"Jass"

Late Scores

Hampton 86, DSC 65

J. C. Smith 109

Delaware State 88

Come To The Mardi - Gras

JANUARY 9, 1960

Delaware Hall Auditorium

WATCH FOR THE TIME

Costumes

Live Entertainment

Sponsored By

Epsilon Alpha Chapter

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority

PREPARE
FOR YOUR FUTURESTUDY AT DELAWARE STATE COLLEGEDo Not Delay, Enter the Second
Semester, January 28, 1960

START ENROLLMENT PROCEEDINGS NOW

FULLY ACCREDITED
BY THE MIDDLE STATES
ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES
AND SECONDARY SCHOOLSNEW DORMITORIES & GYMNASIUM WITH SWIMMING POOL
NEW LABORATORIES AND CLASSROOMSA Coed School with majors
and minors in the following fields:

English
Economics
Biology
Business Administration
Elementary Education History
Sociology
Mathematics
Chemistry

Music Education
Secondary Education
Health and Physical Education
Agriculture
Agricultural Education
Business Education
Secretarial Science
Home Economics
Home Economics Education

Pre-Professional Courses also available
in the following fields:

Medicine      Public Health      Nursing
Dentistry      Law      Veterinary Service

Write to the following
for an application blank TODAY:

REGISTRAR
DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE
DOVER, DELAWARE

Applications Now Being Accepted

