

THE STATESMAN
1968

The Foreword

As we compile memorabilia for THE STATESMAN, we realize that this compilation becomes more than a gathering of concrete facts. Within these pages, one sees the rapidly changing Family of Delaware State College: the growth of its student body, faculty, and staff. The physical plant also reflects a positive change. Serious moments and gayer hours are evident in the facial expressions portrayed herein. Once the seniors leave for shores far and near, these captured moments shall always bring them back to these cherished acres of our Alma Mater; for, the great business of life is TO BE, TO DO,

TO DO WITHOUT, and TO DEPART.

Contents

Dedication

We, the Class of 1967-'68, dedicate, with sincerity and gratitude, this yearbook to

Dr. William Richard Wynder

for his unlimited service to our class. We can only repay him by reverence, because he touches our hearts as a rare, genuine jewel.

Among the many principles by which he has guided us, none exceeds the other in sublimity. They represent the most elevated in decisions.

He shall forever remain our closest and dearest friend.

A Day With Governor Terry

Administration

It is a real pleasure for me to extend greetings and congratulations to the Class of 1968 for your distinguished contribution to Delaware State College through the publication of this very impressive 1968 volume of THE STATESMAN.

A vivid history of your college days is brilliantly captured in this volume, and I, therefore, accept this volume on behalf of the entire college family and direct that it be officially recorded and preserved among our library collections.

I commend, also, your Advisors and all whose tireless efforts have helped to make this volume a reality.

Your class theme, "The Great Business of Life is to Be, to Do, to Do Without, and to Depart", reflects a philosophy of life which, if followed in the positive sense, will lead to great fulfillment in terms of human values.

Our sincere good wishes and good luck to each of you as you move on to greater heights.

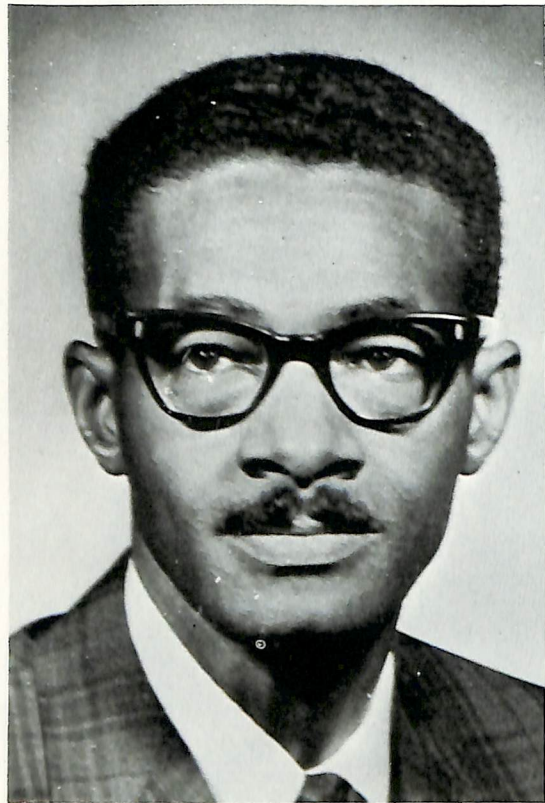

Cordially yours,
Luna I. Mishoe

A MESSAGE TO BLACK WOMEN

Queen-Mother—Daughter of Africa
Sister of My Soul
Black Bride of My Passion
My Eternal Love
You are Strong;
Yet you are weak.
You are kind, beautiful, and sweet
You took the torment
You took the pain
You took the punishment
Whenever it came.
You stood by me during my emasculation
You are surely the queen of civilization.
You are my soul and my inspiration
Together we shall build an unconquerable
Black Nation.
For centuries you have been raped, beaten and treated like dirt, but believe me, my sister, you shall soon be the Queen of the earth.

by Donald Williams

APATHY

A feeling of distress and loneliness,
Who cares for what or whom,
I sit and say,
It'll be better next day
And go my lonely way.
But for how long can I sing this song,
And shelter this feeling of indifference.
I look at my Brother, his sister, and mother—
And see not resemblance or significance.

by Tyrone R. Baker

BEAUTIFUL BLACK PROUD MAN

They say, to be black is irresponsible in American Society.
To be black is an old gov't debt—welfare check!
They say, to be black is a riot in America.
To be black is militant!
They say, to be black is a stuffed-broken window.
To be black is poverty!
They say, to be black is chicken on Sunday.
To be black is hunger!
They say, to be black is filthy.
To be black is no running water!
They say, to be black is one not informed.
To be black is educationally murdered!
They say, to be black is a criminal.
To be black is anger!
They say, to be black is a thief.
To be black is revenge!
They say, to be black is high illegitimacy.
To be black is a baby torn from her mother's womb by evil America!
They say, to be black is a broken home.
To be black is to have no home at all!
They say, to be black is to have hate.
To be black is hate!
They say, to be black is long miserable nites.
To be black is darkness!
They say, to be black is an American.
To be black is an African!
They say, to be black is bourgeoisie.
To be black bourgeoisie is a fool!
They say, to be black is Capitalism.
To be black is togetherness!
They say, to be black is religious.
To be black is “Hell”!
They say, to be black is a drunkard.
To be black is cheap whiskey!
They say, to be black is a slow pace and conservative.
To be black is four hundred years!
They say, to be black is compromise.
To be black is a winner!
I say, to be black is “Love”!
Brother and Sister!
I say, to be black is “Beautiful”!
Like Majestic!
I say, to be black is proud!
Like a Man!

—Benjamin E. Hammond—

ENLIGHTENMENT

From the African shore where every
Black man was charged a beast
From the African shore where kinky hair is the wear
From the African shore where the blackness of man drew laughter
Came identity
Came beauty
Came compassion
Came beauty
Once denied, we have brothers
Once laughter, we have gratitude
Once called a beast, we have strength
Once ugliness, we have beauty
Love for anything black
Love for beauty is black
Love for black is light
Love for black is me
I don't hide my blackness
I don't escape my blackness
I don't pretend I am white
I don't want to be white
I can love
I can smile
I can think
I am black
