Faith Of Our Fathers

Faith of our fathers, living still in spite of dungeon, fire and sword, O how our hearts beat high with joy when-e'er we hear that glorious word.

Our fathers, chained in prisons dark, were still in heart and conscience free, And blest would be their children's fate, If they, like them, should die for thee:

Faith of our fathers, we will strive to win all nations unto thee, And through the truth that comes from God, Mankind shall then indeed be free:

Faith of our fathers, we will love Both friend and foe in all our strife, And preach thee, too, as love knows how, By kindly words and virtuous life:

Refrain. . .

Faith of our fathers, holy faith, We will be true to thee till death. A-Men.

Alma Mater

Hail Alma Mater

Thy children greet Thee

Greet thee with loyalty, love, strength and truth

Here in Thine ancient halls

O'er thy plains so verdant

Thou art our guide in the pathways of youth.

From the broad world without

Come thy sons and daughters,

Bearing our laurels to lay at thy shrine,

E'er shall we heed Thy call

Ne'er shall we fail Thee

Loved Alma Mater God Bless Thee and Thine.
