Abstract:

This collection consists of Delaware State University student newspapers - The State College Lantern and The Hornet spanning from 1929 to 2015. The student-written newspapers contain articles on Delaware State University's academics, sports, social life and local Dover area news.

Scope and Content:

This collection is comprised of the Hornet student newspaper which was printed from 1950 until 2015. Each issue typically features articles pertaining to student government, homecoming, sports, academics, scholarship, and society. The collection additionally includes two issues of The State College Lantern published in June 1929 and February 1940.

Arrangement:

This collection is arranged chronologically by date and not by volume or issue numbers due to non-sequential or duplicated numbers.

Biographical History:

The first student newspaper at Delaware State University was The Echo. From 1909 to 1912, it was published weekly and cost two cents for the week or fifty cent for the year. During this time, articles featured advertisements, alumni news, editorials and society columns. In 1957, The Echo became the title of a magazine published by the Alumni Relations office for distribution among alumni. All copies of The Echo, from 1909 to current issues, may be found in the Office of Alumni Relations collection.

The State College Lantern was the second iteration of a student newspaper. Little is known about this paper due to the existence of only two editions dated 1929 and 1940. Both of these are included within this collection.

The Hornet is the most recent and ongoing student publication at Delaware State University. It was first established in 1950 with editions initially being printed once a month and later on a quarterly basis. The Hornet continued to be printed until April 2015 after which point the newspaper moved to a digital, online format. The Hornet has always been offered free of charge to the university community. The topics of The Hornet include articles related to current events at the university, editorial columns, poetry, cartoons, photography, topics of popular culture, and fashion advice. Colophon: This collection was initially processed and inventoried during the tenure of Emily Cottle. It was more recently processed in January 2016 by Jasmine Smith, archival intern, under the guidance of Rejoice Scherry. At this time, Ms. Smith added a significant number of Hornets to the collection. The additional Hornets were accessioned into the archives by Ms. Scherry following a records transfer from the Hornet Student newspaper located in the MLK Student Center in July 2015.
